The action of a few politicians in our comnunity, in accusing Mr. Scott of dieloyalty, and endeavoring to excite party prejudice against him, is a fair specimen of their gene. ral character, and gives conclusive proof of the malice and cowardice which actuates them. They have issued a scandslous handbill, which not one of the gang had the manliness to attach his signature to, and which we are pleased to know meets with the disapprobation of every respectable citizen. In this way they hope to accomplish by indirecion what they could never effect by personal icfluence, and the edium of publishing the bill is mainly thrown upon the Gasette effice, whose imprint it bears. The authors of the document are known, however, and need not suppose they will escape the responsibility of their conduct. While these men, who accuse Mr. Scott of givthemselves around street corners and store in a milk and-watery way. doors, gossipping about their neighbors, male and female, and criticising the ankles of the ladies, or rushing to the provest marshal's effice to claim exemption from the draft on account of sore toes-the subject of their felsehoods was patriotically furnishing his time and money to promote the cause of the Union, and laboring for the benefit of the city.

While they are circulating base slanders on his character, in a manner that none but villains would stoop to, Wm. L. Scott is at says was secured half a mile out in the Bay, the State Capital, seeking to secure to Erie and claims to be of the best quality. the permanent maintainance of the advantages his skill and enterprise secured for us.

Let the people judge between the two classes of men for themselves. The conduct of both is familiar to all our residents; and if they conclude to adopt the lead of "loyalists" who never willingly gave a penny or lifted a musket to aid the cause; of "patriots" whose pockets are their first consideration; of citizens who never have developed an instance of public enterprise or benevolence-instead of the control and advise of our prominent and useful business men-they are made of different metal from what we believe them to be.

The sons and daughters of Green Brin in this city and vicinity are preparing to celebrate St. Patrick's day in a magnificent manner. In the morning at 7 o'clock the members of the St. Vincent de Paul and Total Abstinence societies will march in procession from the school to the church on Fifth street, and in their handsome new regalia, will undoubtedly present a very fine sight. Religious services are to be held during the forenoon, and the day will be observed as a general holiday. A supper is to be given in Farrar Hall in the evening, commencing at 7 o'clock, at which several hundred persons are expected to be present. Liquor of every sort is to be dispensed with, and pure cold water, coffee and tea substituted. The ladies of the church are to furnish the good things. free of expense, and all are trying to do their best. A brass band and a harp will be in at. tendance, and the vocalists of the congregation will sing a number of patriotic odes. The former pastors of the congregation, Fathers Tracy and Coady, are invited, and in all probability will be on hand. Bishop Young has also given his promise to attend. Among the gentlemen expected to speak, in response to the toasts, are Father Carrol', Mr. Galbraith, Mr. King, Mr. Quinn, the editors of several of our city papers, and other wellkn wn persons. A remarkably pleasant time is anticipated, and, from the experience of other St. Patrick celebrations here, we feel been but little injured this winter, and that satisfied that those who attend will not be it will be ready for business at an early period disappointed.

The post offices at Levell's and Lexington, in this county, have been discontinued. Mail matter for persons at the former place should be directed to Corry, and for the latter to Albion.

We have received a pamphlet copy of the address delivered before the Erie Co. Medical Society, on the 6th of Pebruary, by W. M. Wallace, M. D., President of the Association. It is a well written and interesting production, highly creditable to the author's ability.

We wellome to our table the Pres Press, now German paper, just established in this city by Carl Benson, Esq., designed to be mainly lotal and literary in its character. It is got up neatly, and is filled to the brim with spicy and interesting articles. Mr. Benson possesses the industry and ability to make a good paper, and if he is well encouraged, as we hope he may be, the Free Press will become one of our favorite German "institu tions." But one Justice of the Peace is to be elected in the city this year, and that one in the East Ward. Two candidates are in the field, E. P. Bennett and Herman Leo. The former is the present Justice, and he is admitted by all to have made a faithful officer. The latter is a German of much intelligence, who was a lawyer in his native country, and who was compelled to leave the South in the early stages of the rebellion, to avoid persecution for his Union opinions. The Venange Speciator, the Democratic organ of Venango county, the office of which was totally destroyed by the late fire in Franklin, has appeared again, looking better and reading fresher than ever. Mr. Cochran, the editor, is one of the pleasantest gentlemen of our sequeintance, and seems to be as enterprising as he is clever. We hope that from this time on the career of the Spectator will be one of continued prosperity.

The last story from "Pithole" is that a fire broke out-the engines played upon it-the fire burned more fiercely than ever ; and upon investigation it was found that the firemen had struck oil instead of water, and were throwing it on the flames—a pretty good "puff" for "Pithole."—Exchange.

The best feature of the story is, that it is true. The wells or springs used by the firemen on the occasion have been yielding oil in paying quantities ever since.
