

ANOTHER VETO.

The President's message, vetoing the hill to admit Colorado into the Union, was duly sent to the Senate on Tuesday, but that body had not the common courtesy to have it read before adjourning for the maye The document is brief, but pointed. it shows the gross mequality to which the largely populated States would be placed by the admission of Colorado. The President cites the fact that the present basis of representation is a Representative for one hundred and twenty thousand popuistion, while Colorado has but thirty thousand inhabitants. He adds that the new State would have a Representative for that number, while New York, with four millions of people, only has thirty three. He also speaks forcibly of the injustice to the eleven older States of the Union which are unrepresented, which would be accomplished by admitting Colorado .that the veto will be sustained and the bill reiscied.

INCONSISTENT PROPHETS. Qne cannot avoid, in reading and, lis tening to the maledictions now showered upon the head of President Johnson, by the Abolition preachers and politicians, recalling the course and language of these eleash and the former's inauguration .--While all the land mourned together the elreadful taking off of the late President ;

while the soldiers o' Lee in Virginia mingled their voices with those of Grant in execution of that murder most foul and unnatural ; while Johnson in North Carolina was clenching the hand of Sherman in a common horror at a crime at once so hideous and so irrational, these saintly leaders of the party founded on "great moral ideas," professing to be the privy souncillors of the Almighty, declared the act to be not the wilful deed of Booth, but n direct interposition of Providence .-From two-thirds of the pulpits in the land was heard the exclamation, in substance, if not in words: "Abraham Lincoln was too gentle, too good; God saw him to be an unfit instrument to execute his yenmeance upon the Southern people for their crimes, and He has removed him to make way for Andrew Johnson, who will better carry out His purposes." "Like the sending of Joseph into Egypt," said Damiel S. Dickinson, who, to give him his the Father of Lies himself, at quoting he warmly denounced the act, and de-Scripture, "like the sending of Joseph into Egypt, the murderers of Abraham Lincoln meant it for evil, but God means it for good." "I thank my God!" exclaimed the meek and lowly Butler, "that

him "tfältor," and threaten, as Cheever recently did, to "sweep him from power." The saintly people who make the platforms and carve out the course of the Redical party, have got themselves into a sad plight.' To acknowledge that they were mistaken last year, is to prove the falsity stant pretenzions of the Radica's to repof their claims as the spokesmen of Providence, and to impair their standing with the people. - Let them take either horn of tor" and "copperhead" to all who up the dilemma, and they will find it rather dertake to thwart their designs, it has ac difficult to explain their position.

AME. CLYMBR AT NOBE.

The Beading Gazette, published in the city of Mr. Clymer's residence, states that in every instance when he has run for the Senate he has polled more than the full Democratic vote of Berks county. In 1860, when he was first elected, to, fill a vacancy, he had 2831 majority-718 more than Mr. McKenty, the Congressional candidate at the same time. Again, in 1861, when he was elected for the full term, he had 4424 majority-the largest, by from 110 to 400, of any candidate upon the Democratic ticket of that year. He led the highest of his colleagues on the Legislative ticket 93 votes. In 1864, when he was re-elected to the Senate, he had 6561 majority, 221 more than Mr. Ancons, candidate for accomplished by admitting Colorado.- Congress: Mr. Clymer has never been ters. We find that the Southern States, There seems to be little or no doubt but guilty of the trick of electioneering, for exclusive of Kentucky and Missouri, and votes personally, in order to manufacture paper popularity, by running himself ahead of his colleagues, but has been hon-orably content to stand, with them fairly and squarely before the people, and abide their verdict. The Gasette adds : Our friends abroad may rest assured that Clymer is all right at home, whatever unscruprecalling the course and language of these ulous opponents may assert to the contra-rame peoplo at the time of Mr. Lincoln's ry; and that Old Barks will roll up for him a majority fully equal to his deserving, and worthy of her ancient renown as the banner county of the State.

AFTER the ensistent claims of the Radicals to be the peculiar friends of the soldier, it may surprise the public to learn that the Senate last week refused to confirm the appointment of Gen. Frank P. Blair as Collector at St. Louis. No charge against his competency or fitness for the place was made, and the sole reason of his rejection is admitted to be his endorsement o' the President's policy. The rejection of Blair is suggestive. He embarked in the war at its very putset, and kept in it to the end. With the possible ex ception of Capt. Lyon, the credit of preverting the formal secession of Missouri is due to Frank Blair more than to any other man in the Union. He was a friend and favorite of Lincoln down to the day of his death. Yet because he is against the new policy of the stay-at-home radicals, they refuse to allow him to share in the henors of the government which he original report of Stanton's position in the did so much to save! HAH " COPPERHEADS" A MAJORITT. The Richmond Enquirer has been guilty of an act of "disloyalty " which adds abother to the many in lications of the unfines of the South to be somitted to its rights in the Ugion. Moved by the conresent "the voice of the nation," and by their acrimonious appellation of "traiconclusions : Taking the vote between Lincoln and McClellan as furnishing the test between Republicanism and Patriotism on the one hand, and Copperheadism and Treason on the other, the figures, will stand thus :----Lincoln 2 203,831, McClellan 1.707,019; or a majority for the former of 406,812 .-The number of Conservative or Johnson Republicans has been estimated as at least a fifth of the whole party. This modification being made, the foregoing figures would read : Patriots, 1,763,065 ; Traitors, 2,237,785-majority for the Traitors, 474-

But this unhappy exhibit must show a still greater balance on the wrong side .southern people are all traitors, we have | party in power. but to ascertain the aggregate of their voomitting "West Virginis," so called, cast in the Presidential election of 1860, an aggregate vote of 870,901. These, according to the doctrines of the day, are all traitors. It is necessary for the public safety to exclude them from all position under the government, and they are in fact denied even a hearing. They are never consulted ; they are only command

ed. Add this last number to the previous and the poll stands Patriots 1,763 065 ; Trautors, 3,108,686; or a majority of 1 345 -621 for the Traitors. Deduct Bolts and Calvin Pepper, and the dreadful majority still remains 1.345,519. This is a very alarming show for the safety of the country, and of the best government that the world over saw.

Was ever assurance more bold than this ? To think of a "rehel" paper proving by facts and figures, which cannot be disputed, that the saints are scarcely more than a third of the people! STANTON. The public generally will be surprised to learn that at a recent Cabinet meeting Secretary Stanton, who has heretofore been claimed by the Radicals, formally gave in his adhesion to the President's policy, and announced his intention to "fight it out on that line." The Disunionists who had been led to believe that he was one of their most reliable allies, indignantly denied the ellegation at first, but it now seems admitted to be correct. The National Intelligencer, which is the accredited Executive organ, reaffirms its following positive language :

"This community does not expect the Intelligencer to reaffirm its statements of what it has published as reliable matter of fact ; and we should not now refer to the denials of the verity of our report of what transpired recently in Cabinet council concerning restoration, were it not that we have a comment to make upon the sub-

A Radical-Atolitionist, who werl South horoughly impressed with the belief that Mr. Summer's scrap-book stood next to the Bible, if sot above it, as the word of truth, has writen a letter to the Chicage Times, in which he records a marvelous change of seltiment. The following extract will befound instructive :

B fore coming South I was a staunch believer in all those ridiculous reports gotten up 😾 unprincipled politicians, in regard to the disloyalty of the Southern people, and I openly argued the rigid pel-tcy urged by Stevens, Summer & Co. Butin justice to a brave and noble people, will say that I have utterly failed to dis cover the mach-talked of treason. On the contary, I have found a universal deaire for pace and union. I confess that on arriving here I cherished all the preju dices of i true Radical toward these down-trodden people, but my opinion has undergondan entire change, and I am now fully convinced of the gross wrongs that have been heaped upon them by the un merciful party now in power. I hope this unjust reatment of a brave but fallen foe may case forever-that the reports got ten up by political demagogues, who em-ploy their pens in fabricating falseboods of the deepest dye, may no longer deceive the Northern mind concerning affairs in the Southern States. They are all false-

The South is yet to be counted-as the only intended to continue the dominant It is the great desire of the Southern

With this feeling existing in their bosoms, is it not a burning shame that they are daily subjected to the most galling insults from a party who would gladly see them deprived of every vestige of freedom 1 I ask the Northern people, how is it possible that a people, after undergoing all the horrors of a war of plunder, should lend their aid to a gov ernment which seeks to degrade and en slave them ?. It is an impossibility, and if persisted in will, before long, create an undying hatrad between the two sections. Let any other course be pursued, and a kind, brotherly feeling will spring up at

The expressions of hatred and deep re venge that daily ascend from the halls of Congress to high beaven only tend to increase the wounds of the nation. The speeches made were by Southern orators to a Southern audi ence. I failed to hear one word that breathed the spirit of dialoyalty. Alter a few remarks from the president, explana tory of the meeting, Hon, Walker Brooks. formerly United States Senator from this State, was introduced to the assembly .-Soon his voice filled the hall, and could the noble sentiments he expressed have reached the halls of Congress, the politic-

It has been authoritatively announced from Washington, and nowhere and by no one contradicted, that Gen, Grant is net only an earnest supporter of President Johnson's policy, but that he has declared the President has not gone far enough in his antegonism or hostility to 'the Disubionists at the other end of the line "-the Stevenses, Sumners, Wades, to, who are distracting the public mind, keeping finance and trade unsettled, and denying representation to the Southern' or legal reason.
