The Travellers' Insurance Company, of Hartford. Conn. was the first to auccessfully introduce in this country the practice of insurance against accidents, of whatever kind, whether they occur in traveling, or is hunting, fishing, sailing, riding, skating, in the street, store, office, or while working in altops, mills, factories, or on the farm. A general acaident policy covers every possible form of casualty, including the risk in traveling; also, all forms of dislocations, broken blones, suptured tendons, aprains, concussions, orgenings, bruises, onts, stabs, gunshot wounds, poisoned wounds, burns and scalds, bitss of dogs, unprovoked assaults by barglars, robbers or murderests, the action of lightning or sun stroke, the effects of explosions, chemicals, diods, and earthquakes, and suffectation by drowing or cheking.

This Company has now been in successful operation since April 1st, 1864, and up to Jan. 1st, 1885, had issued upwards of thirty-five thousand policies, and paid over nice hundred-liesses—incleding the large sum of 255,500 to tweety-one policy holders within the year, for $19,440 received in premiums. Who would not be beautiful? Who would not add to their beauty? What gives that marble purity and dis tingue appearance we observe upon the stage, and in the city belied It is no longer a secret.
