

THURSDAY, JULY 19, 1866.

HON. HIESTER CLYMER, OF BERKS COUNTY.

Congress has resolved to adjourn on Monday next, the 23d inst. Let all the people rejoice!

A MEMBER of the State Central Committee, in a private letter to the editor, detailing the recent proceedings of that body, says: "Very encouraging reports were given from several portions of the State, and the prospect is really bright."

The Philadelphia Age cites a case which distinctly displays the marked contrast between the two candidates for Governor. Clymer and Gray attended the fair at Allentown several weeks ago. A reception chair was being voted for by their respective friends. Clymer voted first and deposited a ballot for each candidate.

Another veto.—The President, on Monday, in accordance with general expectation, sent in another message vetoing the second Freedmen's Bureau bill, adopted by Congress. He takes substantially the same ground as in his former veto, arguing at considerable length and with much ability against the unconstitutionality and injustice of the measure.

The United States Senate, last week, by a vote of twenty-three to seventeen, postponed the Tariff Bill until next December, by referring it to the Committee on Finance, with instructions to report at that time. As this result was accomplished by Radical votes, we are anxious to hear what the Republican advocates of the tariff hereabouts will have to say upon the subject.

Gen. Grant.—The New York Times (Republican) has a Washington correspondent who professes to have ascertained General Grant's political position. He writes to that paper that he has learned upon "good authority," that the General "will, in no event, be a candidate for the Presidency at the next Presidential election, and any use of his name for that position is wholly unauthorized and deprecated by the General."

THE NATIONAL CONVENTION.—The advantage of holding such a convention as will assemble at Philadelphia next month is too plain to leave any room for doubt in the minds of conservative citizens, whether or not they shall give it their encouragement. By having representatives from all the States in the Union meet together they can judge of each other's present temper, enter into each other's points of view, and learn what concessions may be mutually promotive of harmony between the Northern and Southern friends of the Union.

AN ARTICLE EVERY MAN SHOULD READ.

We hope every man under whose eye the following article may fall, will read it carefully. It is from the Christian Index, a religious newspaper published at Atlanta, Ga.:

FOUR MISTAKES.—The great obstacle to reconstruction in church and State, in fact and in feeling, lies in mutual misunderstanding of the facts in regard to each other by the North and Southern people. If the truth were known at the North as to what is said, and done, and thought, and felt in these Southern States, we believe that a controlling number of the people there would be inclined to extend to us such treatment as we desire, and as justice we deserve.

All this our Northern friends are entirely mistaken. There is no general disposition to oppress and persecute the negro race, and, if possible, to re-enslave them. On the contrary, there is a general disposition to protect and defend the negro race, and, if possible, to re-enslave them.

THE PROPOSED CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT.—The proposed Constitutional amendment to meet with the favor expected by the leading Republicans, is one of the leading Republican efforts to assist in securing their ratification of the States, and it begins to look now as if they were certain of rejection by several Northern legislatures.

European War.

The Austrian dispatches which claimed a repulse of the Prussian armies and their soon contradicted by other reports. On the 20th of June the Prussians entered the town of Gitschin, and compelled the Austrians to fall back to Josephstadt and Kottwitz. The great Prussian army, against which Benedek concentrated the whole of the Austrian and Saxon forces, together with the Prussian forces numbered upwards of 600,000 men.
