

HON. HIESTER CLYMER, OF BERKS COUNTY.

The Grand President of the Grand Council of the Loyal League in Illinois has gone over to the conservatives.

The Kentucky Election.—The election of the Democratic candidate in Kentucky by a majority that will reach in the neighborhood of 40,000 has excited the Radicals, and they are announcing the result as a "rebell" triumph.

The unscrupulous nature of Radical prints is so great that if one were to undertake to correct a tenth of their falsehoods, it would exhaust all his time.

Gen. GEARY visited the town of York last night, and made a speech, which is reported by the Philadelphia Press.

The soldiers to whom he applied these insulting phrases are those who met in convention last week at the State Capital.

The Dispatch, under the heading of "Death Bed Repentance," has this paragraph: "The Confederates, in the extinction which precedes final collapse, have taken to eating their own words."

It has been deemed necessary for the interests of the Radicals to repeat the old game of "bleeding Kansas" in order to humbug the Northern voters at the coming election.

The Cincinnati Commercial predicts that Republican victories in Ohio will not be so successful as they were in 1862.

WOUNDING THE IRISH. The organization which goes before the country and the world under the false but this guise of the "Union party," has been, from the very beginning, under all its many names by which it has been known, the constant, bitter, venomous hatred of the Irish and the Irish character.

All this the Radical Republican leaders know as well as any one. But they think they see an opportunity now to pandering to the feelings of some disappointment and some anger against the President, owing to his action on the Fenian question, which they hope to fan into animosity and antagonism to the Democratic party.

The attempt to manufacture political capital out of a temporary and not widespread alienation from President Johnson and the principles he represents, is worthy only of the party that made the attempt.

It is useless, though, to contradict any of the slanders the Radicals fulminate.—Were they proved false every minute of the day, they would continue to repeat them, with as impudent a maner as if truth were a part of their nature, and the noblest course in life was to misrepresent one's fellow man.

The Springfield Republican endeavors to appease some of its Radical readers by assuring them that although the last Congress left undone many acts which they wished adopted, it will finish up the work for their taste at the next session.

Congress did not dare to make the true issue just yet, but to elect the Radicals and see if they do not decree that no Southern State shall return to the Union until it has given suffrage to the negro.

It may be a matter of curiosity to see the changes which have taken place in the definition of the word "loyalty" within a few months. Under the late administration it was as follows: LOYAL.—To approve of everything the President, who is the government, says or does, right or wrong.

Major General Banks, in a letter regarding the Louisiana Constitutional Convention, says: "This is a peaceful and lawful assembly."

THE NEW ORLEANS RIOT. The Lieutenant Governor and Attorney General of Louisiana and the Mayor of New Orleans have sent a communication to the President detailing the history of the late riot.

Every State in the Union Represented. As early as the middle of last week delegates and attendants upon the National Convention commenced pouring into Philadelphia from every direction.

Gen. Dix then announced that the proceedings would be opened by prayer. Rev. J. N. McDonald made the prayer, in which thanks were returned to God for the blessings which had been prepared in the lot.

The convention re-assembled at noon in the Wigwam built for its sessions, which had been fully completed. The prayers were opened with prayer. The convention then adjourned until 12 o'clock.

Gen. Dix, of New York, as Chairman of the Convention, opened the convention by saying, "Gentlemen—I have now to announce to you that the National Convention of the United States is now assembled."

Gen. Dix then proposed the name of General John A. Dix, of New York, as Chairman of the Convention. The convention then adjourned until 12 o'clock.

These are the fellows who turned out the Postmaster of the Senate, because he was understood to support the administration, and out of Minister Harvey's salary, because he had written a letter criticizing the acts of Congress.

THE GREAT PHILADELPHIA CONVENTION. THE FIRST TRULY NATIONAL ASSEMBLY SINCE 1861. AN ENORMOUS ATTENDANCE. VALLANDIGHAM AND WOOD DECLINE TO PARTICIPATE.

people of the United States are not here to witness what is now transpiring before us, and from this time until the next election, we should be unwilling in our expectations to see that the next Congress, if this shall continue to refuse this sacred right of representation to equal States.

When that is done, the Union is restored, and when the Union is restored, we shall be prepared, in my judgment, to enter upon a higher and nobler career among the nations of the earth than has been upon which the sun of Heaven has ever shone.

Gen. Dix then announced that the proceedings would be opened by prayer. Rev. J. N. McDonald made the prayer, in which thanks were returned to God for the blessings which had been prepared in the lot.
