Ton Benton's Advice .- A Representative, in his maiden speech on the floor of Congress, in reply to an opponent, by his telling hits, witty speeches and puns, kept the house in a roar of laughter for nearly half an hour, closing amid quite a demonstration of approbation, and, as he thought, with great success. What was his astonishment after having received the congratulations of several friends at the close of the day's proceedings, to be greeted by Mr. Benton, who, taking him aside, said, "Sir, I heard your speech.
