The news from Ireland is of absorbing interest, ad it seems inevitable that, an outbrink of some kind must occur before is full of excitement and commotion from end to end; there is a run on the banks of Dublin, Belfast, and Cork, and the mail news justifies the most recent cable dispatch, that the situation is "alarming."

The Harrisburg correspondent of the Chambersburg Repository gives the following possible Radical candidates for the Senatorship from this State: Andrew G. Curtin, John Cessus, Thaddeus Seevens, L. W. Hali, Wm. D. Kelley, U. Mercur, Wm. B. Thomas, S. A. Purviance, M. Russel Thayer, Simon Cameron, John W. Forney, John H. Walker, Morton McMichael, Andrew Stewart, J. M. Broomall, A. K. McClure, Edward McPherson, John Scott. J. K. Moorhead, Harry White, Thomas Williams, W. W. Ketchum, Wm. H. Armstrong, H. D. Maxwell, G. A. Grow, G. W. Scofield, John Covode, Thomas E. Cochran, H. L. Cake, Lemuel Todd, James Poliock, J. F. Hartranft, John C. Kunkel, D. A. Finney. It will be seen by this large list that the devotion of the Radical leaders to the "loaves and fishes" keeps full pace with their progress in "great moral ideas." We cannot now predict who o these ambitious individuals will be chosen Senator: but are willing to wager our old hat, that neither Messrs. Walker, Scofield nor Finney will be the man.

The evidence taken by the Military Commission in June, 1865, proved John H. Surratt to be one of the principal con- party in Congress, denounced the Presiapirators in the assassination of Lincoln. It was at the house of his mother that the that the "war of blood was not over." Yet, as time passed on, John Surratt was forgotten, till the other day came the startling news that he had been arrested by the American Consul-General in Egypt.

Of his wanderings little is known. It is said that he was recognized on a Liverpool of the belligerent parties. steamer shortly after the murder. Then came the rumor that he was serving as a private soldier in the Pope's Guards at hundred feet high, and escaped into the Italian territory. Mr. Marsh, our Minister at Florence, obtained telegraphic instructions from the Italian Government to have all the sesports of Italy watched to prevent his escape. He was soon supposed Alexandria, and when Surratt .- stepped mittee, were agreed upon : upon the shores of Egypt. he was seized by the strong, far-reaching arm of America. THE FIRST DAY OF CONGRESS.

The heart sickens at the recital of-what was said and done by the Radical mem-propriate legislation. after they had assembled at the National Capital. There was a time when respect was paid to the President of the United States by virtue of his office, no matter how unpopular he might be; but that day is passed. To day he seems to be the most popular man who can say the hardest things of the Executive. As an illustration of the peculiar code of ethics and morals which prevails among the Radical Congressmen, take the first day's proceedings in the House of Representatives as they come to us reported in the columns. quested the speaker to state whether it nority of radical usurpers. Who these "friends" were, for in full. the sake of meeting whom Mr. Stevens and sixty three others of his fellow Radicals'were so ready to sacrifice the dignity of the nation, let the Radical Times tell will render a year of disaster certain. us! They consisted, says the Times, "of a baker's dozen of Southern Unionists," and of "several thousand freedwomen and "children, who were only held in check by the presence of a considerable police force, while their brethren, representing "all the Southern States except South "Carolina, were evidently astonished to "find themselves with such a contempti-"bly small squad of white sympathizers." To this highly intelligent audience sundry leading Radicals, including Speaker Colfax, Senator Yates, of Illinois, and Judge Kelley, of Pennsylvania, held equality, the greater will be the injury forth, denouncing the President, praising the valor of the negro race, and predicting a new civil war. In the evening came the "banquet" from which the negroes, whom Mr. Stevens had been so eager to see at noon that he could not wait to hear the Presidential Message read, were carefully excluded. At this banquet Mr. Stevens, after a blessing asked by Hiram Walbridge, thanked God for the "pure patriotism" of his own dent as a would-be king, and declared threatened to turn; lose the "Southern Grant and Farragut, and menaced the President with being sent "to lav his head "on a laphoard goose" in "one of the em-"brasures of Fortress Monroe." The Tribune discreetly passed over in, silence the performance which attended and followed this harangue; the Herald contents itself "remarks were inaudible at len paces "from him." and the Times compromises by asserting that 'the banquet was a partial success, but lacked system." How it came to "look system" appears more clearly from the following sketch given by

Mrs. Dr. Andrews testifiers:
"I prefer it call other machine, I have known anything about, for the case and simplicity with which it operates and is managed—for the perfect elasticity of the stite!—the case with which the wirk can be ripped, if desired, and sail rian its strength when the thread in cut or accidentally bre ken—its adaptation to different kinds of work, from fine to coarse, without change of zeedle or tension." Mrs Maria J. Reane, of the house of Netalic, Tillman

The feregoing testimony establishes beyond ques-The feregoing testimony establishes beyond question—
First. The great simplicity and ease of management of the Grover & Baker machines.
Second. That they are not liable to get out of repair. Third That a greater verbet of work can be done with them than with other machines.
Fourt . That the elasticity of stith causes the work to last longer, look neater, and wear better than work done on other machines.
Fifth, That the facility with which any part of a seam can be removed, when desired, is a great adventage.
