The two Senators from Lancaster coun ty, Thad, Stevens' home, seeing the certainty of Cameron's anccess, abaented themselves from the causus . The crushing defeat of the Curtin men was no more humiliating than their conduct afterwards, a Natwithstanding their violent opposition to Gan Cameron, and the charges they had made against his integrity and patriotism, no sconer had the ballot bean announced than Mr. Quay, of Beaver, the leader of their forces, rose to his feet, and moved that Gen. Cemeron's nomination Le made unamimore. This motion was agreed to mithaut a dissenting voice, and the whole Rodical party in the Legislature thus committed themselves to the support of a man why taking the representations of a maintity of their own presses and leaders as our authority, is the vilest and most dangerous politician in the Commonwealth Som efer the caucus, Stevens and Forney, who had lo't their duting in Washington to head the anti-Cameron column in person, departed from Harri-burg, feeling much like a terrier dog, with a tin pan

THE SERATOR ELECT. The prominence of Simon Cameron in the politics of our State, and his election by the Redical majority in the Legislature to a sest for the third time in the U.S. Senate, will render a skatch of his career interesting to most readers. He was born in Lancaster county in 1799, and is therefore 68 years of age. When nine years as journeymen printers, in this instance, perhaps, not much to the credit of the craft, and while employed as a compositor in the newspaper offices of Harrisburg and Washington, he supplied the want of early school discipling by a severe course of study. Before he was twenty-two he had been chosen as the editor of the Pennaylvania Intelligencer, published at Dovlertown, and soon after established a Demincratic journal at Harrisburg, which he ed. ited for some time. In the conduct of this paper he gave especial attention to the interests of the State, and estly displayed those financial shilities for which he has since been distinguished. In 1832 he established the famous Middletown Bank, setting as cashier. The railroad interests. of the State soon engaged his attention, and he has for many years been one of the largest stockholders and most setive managers in the leading Pennsylvania roads. Gov. Mr. Cowan's steadfast, patriotism, it was though proper that he should receive the complimentary support of our party; and his nomination was accordingly made unanimous. While we should have preforred socied out friends supporteen any prospect of success, it must be admitted that the compliment to Mr. Cowan was one that he has richly earned, and which. under the circumstances, must afford him Friedial gratification.

The election of Senator took place on Tuesday afternoon, at three o'clock, both Houses of the Legislature assembling in joins convention in the ball of the House, for that purpose, with the Speaker of the Senate presiding, as customary on such occasions. Five members were absentthree Democrats and Iwo Radicals, the latter being gentlemen who would not ngree to abide by the decision of their party caucus. A solid party vote was cast on each side, the Radicals all supporting Cameron and the Democrats Cowan. The following is the result of the ballot :

WHAT & COBBESPONDENT BATS. The editorial expressions of the Dispatch are confirmed by the Harrisburg correspondent of the same paper, who wrote : BEFORE THE CAUCUS.

Harrisburg is fall of strangers, politicians, lobbyists and hangers-on, eager for public pelf and plunder. Corruption seems the or-der of the day, and political cormorants are seeking to gorge themselves to repletion. A man's fitness for office is not so much of a con sideration as how much money he has and how many votes he can control. I wonder if ever in the good "old times" our grandisth-ers tell about, things were thus? Surely the prime qualifications in public officers. It may be no worse now in this city than it has been in years past, but if there is any prospect of its ever heing worse, well may the people cry,

"Good Lord deliver us !" APTER THE CAUGUE.

All is quist, dreary, forlorn, about the city this evening. Not so was it last night After eight o'clock jolling and liquar were jubilant and hotels were uproarious. Aye, right bilarous was our city then. Pres drinks, free fights, and free concerts made night hideous. And why ? and for what ? No less important event had occurred than the nomination of Siman Cameron by the Republican members of the Legislature for the office of United States Benator. Thence flowed the turhuleut froth which last night made Harrisburgh the scene of drupken bacchanality.

Fon sixteen years I was sorely distressed with the Asibms A great portion of the time I was unable to work, and frequently for weeks at a time. I could abtain alcop only by setting up in a chair, being unable to breathe in a lying postare. In my long gearch after relief, I. of course, tried, many
