President Lincoln, if we recollect aright, upon his acression to office removed every honest official in the country who did not agree with him in politics, and it is generally believed that the head of an important buresu at Washington was given his position shortly after presenting the President with a silver tea-service. An Inside View of the Senatorial Contest.

[Special Cor. of the Pittsburgh, Commercial, Radical HARRISBURG, Jan 11, 1867.
You ask me to describe what has occu red in Harrisburg since the meeting of the Legislature and which culminated in the caucus nomination for United States Senator of Mr. Cameron last night. To describe it is impossible. Dickens, with all his ability to depict low life, could not describe the degradation of the scene, nor tell you of the mental and moral depravily of those who have figured. Warren, Sonebody's Sayings—The course of true love is a race-course where there is often a false start. Alas I how fleeting are the charms of Nature when unbelped Art? Who would long prize Beauty, if it were not for soap? Teeth are stopped with gold, and tongues may be so, like-wise. A man with a rich wife is often silenced by her throwing her money in his teeth. Philosophers have speculated as to whether men become beasts after death, but let us reflect how often they make beasts of the releast before it. Cu-pid shoots with a rife now, and not with bow and arrows. Else how is it that girls can hear the popping of the question ?

THE STRENGTH OF SILENCE.—It is a great art in the Christian life to learn to be a lent. Under oppositions, rebukes, injuices still be silent. It is better to say not ing, than to say it in an excited or manter, even if the occasion should seem to justify a degree of anger. By remainng silent, the mind is enabled to collect ing sitent, the mind is enabled to collect itself, and call upon God in secret aspira-tions of prayer. And thus you will speak in honor of your holy profession, as well as to the good of those who have injured you, when you speak from God.

During President Lincoln's term of offise, it was generally understood that elections were interfered with by the direct connivance, if not by the direction of the administration. It is a matter of history that soldiers were thrown into Maryland pending an election, who prevented duly qualified citizens from voting for Democratic candidates, thereby securing the election of Republican candidates. It is. further, a matter of history that at the election of President in 1864 soldiers belonging to the army of which Abraham Lincoln was the Commander in Chief not only voted where they had an toget rest dence, but voted again and again on electhe order as well as the consent of President Lincoln, newspapers were suppressed ington, and notwithstanding his letter of ington, and notwithstanding his Scribes, Susths and Serthe Stones at Sharmon & Co.'s, 1839 Peach St. rested without warrant, condemned withsentenced: which deeds, "in contempla-"tion of the Constitution, are high crimes
