[ORIGINAL.] Pennsylvania's Dead. In Pennsylvania's history There's many a brilliant name Of statesman true, or chieftain bold, Whose deeds rank high in fame. From him, the great and Christian rage, Who first gave glory to the page, Down to the last soul-stirring hour,

Which saw her clad in hope and power, A star too bright to dimmed be Where'er a valiant deed was done, Where'er a vict'ry proudly won, Her sturdy sons their valor bleat, And of their life's blood freely lent, And marched through misery's fierces

To hurl from power their country's foes. Where great Ohio sullen flows, By Schuylkill's murky flood, On Susquehanna's lovely shores, Their deeds are writ in blood.

All hallowed is the sacred clay— Made mellow with their hones— Where more than Roman warrior's lay, Freed from the battle's tones. Why cross Atlantic's surly waves

And pass old Europe o'er, In search for places of renown, When here is richer lore! Europa's fields have grank much blood To aid tyrannic sime, But Liberty, led on our hosts, And consecrates our plains.

At Valley Forge's noted mound What thoughts ennobling rise! See how the suffering hero paves Wyoming's rich and blood-bought vale, Where is the eye so bold

That has not shed the pitying tear, When its sad tale was told?

Paoli's marble marks the fate Which crushed a daring band, But, ah! their leader lived to serve With valor great the land. Revenge deep-seated on his brow Gave vigor to his frame, And history records with praise The deeds of gallant Wayne.

Oh, their's were proud, aye holy fates, Who in th' unequal strife Glad vielded up their richest boon-Man's dearest jewel-life! No compass limits marked their course. Nor bar their deathless fame, For Freedom's flame, when truly felt,

They need no monuments-those men Of sterling worth and patriot deed,
For front in glory's rank they stand, Each true man's breast a casket is Wherein their memory's deeply lie, And never can they be forgot Till Liberty herself shall die.

A correspondent of the Harrisburg Patriot says Mr. Sturdevant, ex-member of the Legislature from Crawford county, rich and unmarried, has forced himself into the employ of the House as a poster and folder, crowding out a lame soldier. The ambition which prompts men who have cone got a taste of life at the Capital to be willing to accept of simost any position around the legislative halls, for the sake of being near the great men of the Commonwealth (!), is of a kind that is curious to contemplate.

A Harrisburg correspondent of the Phila-delphia Press suggests Hon G W, Scofield, of this District, as United States Senator at the That's right. Get Scofield into the idea that he can be elected Senetor, and "it" will keep him out of the road for Congress next termthe half dozen aspirants for the latter place in our county. We suspect that Lowry is at the bottom of this dodge. One of the most useful little papers we have seen in a long period is Perley's "Soldiers, Friend," issued from the National Claim agency, in this city. Is contains a considerable amount of information valuable to soldiers and their relatives, and should be in the hands of every family in the county. Bir. Perley will be glad to supply any persons who may call at his office, with copies of the pa-

On Monday, Mr. Lynn, of the Dispatch, was summoned before the investigation Committee. of the Legislature, of which Senator Lowry is Chairman, to tell what he knows of the means used to secure Cameron's election. The interview between him and the Senator must have been peculiarly rich. We shall publish his testimony, which will doubtless throw additional light on the Senatorial matter, as soon as it is received. The Cleveland Plaindealer cave: "The West bound train on the Lake Shore road had an unexpected addition to its passengers as it came flying past Geneva on Saturday evening. The gentlemen passengers receiving a hint of what was likely to coope, vacated one end of the car, leaving it entirely to the ladies. This done, the affair was quickly and quietly over. From Rev. W. D. Seigried, Pastor of Twelfth Baptist Church, Philada.

Gentlemen I have recently been laboring under the distrassing effects of indigesting, accompanied by a prostration of the nervous system. Numerous remedies were recommended by friends, and some of them thested, by without relief. Your Hoodand e German Bitters were recommended by permass who had ried them, and whose favorable meation of these Bitters induced me to try them. I must confess that I had an aversion to Patent Medicines from the "thousand and one" quack "Bitters" whose Only aim seems to be to paim of sweetened and drugged liquor upon the commonity in a siy way, and the teadency of which, if say, is to make many a confirmed dynakand. Upon learning that cours was really a medicinal preparation I took it with happy effect. Its action, not only upon the stomech, but upon the nervous system, was prompt and gratifying. I feel that I have derived great and permanent benefit from the use of a few bottles. Very respectfully tours,

From the Rev. E. D. Fendall, Assistant Editor Christian Chronicle, Philads.

I have derived decided beneat from the use of Hoofand's. German Bitters, and I feel it my privilege to recommend them as a most valuable tonic to all who are suffering from greateral debility or from diseases arising from the derangement of the liver.

Yours truly, E. D. FENDALL.

From Rev. D. Merrige, Pastor of the Passayunk' a 'tot Church, Philads.

From the many respectable recommendations give u or Dr. Hoofand's German Bittars, I was induced to give th. m a trial. After using several bottles, I found them to be a good remedy for decility, and a most excellent tonis for the stomach.

D. MEKRIGE. From Rev. Wm. Smith, formerly Pastor of the Vincan Lown and Millville (N. I) Espite Churches.
Having used in my 'amily a number of bottles of you.
Hoofand's German Sitters, have to say I regard they as an axcellent medicine, specially adapted to remove the diseases they are recommended or. They strengthen and invigorate the system when debilitated, and are use ful in discordars of the liver, loss of appartite, Ar. I ave also recommended them to several of my friends whe have tied them, and found them great'ly beneficial in the restoration of health. Yours truly,
