The symptoms of Catarrh are at first very slight. Persons find they have a cold that they have frequent attacks, and are more sensitive to the changes of temperature. In this condition the none may be dry, or a slight discharge, thin and seried afterwards thick and adhesive, may ensue.

As this disease becomes chronic, the discharges are increased in quantity and changed in quality; they are now thick and heavy, and are hawked or coughed off. The secretious are offensive, causing a bad breath; the size thick and namal; the eyes are weak; the some of smell is lear-load or destroyed; desfores frequently takes

Another common and important symptom of Catarrh is that the person is obliged to clear his throat in the morning of a silet or a silmy mucous, which has fallon from the head during the sight. When this takes place the person may be sure that his disease is on its way to the lungs, and should loose no time in arresting it.

We are receiving letters from all parts of the Unic and also numerous featimonials from those using t bearing the evidence of its infallable merits.

The American Jewelers' Association calls your attention to the fact of the being the largest and most personal processing and always has been conducted in the most candid and honorable munner. Our rapidly theressing trade is a sure guarantee of the appreciation of our patrons for this method of obtaining risk eigenst and costly goods. The sudden stay ation of trade in Europe owing to the late Herman war and the recent disastrous financial crisis in England, has caused the failure of a larve number of jewelr houses in London and Paris, obliging them to sell their goods at a great sacrades, in some instances less than one-third the cost of manifacturing. We have lately purchased very largely of these barkupt goods, at such estrainely low prices that we can afford to send away finer goods, and give better chances to draw the most valuable prizes than an other eastly-homent doing a smilar business. A most delightfal and efficacious cure for the various lits to which intants and young children are subject. Invaluable for teething children. It softens the guns, absts inflammation, invigarates the stomesh and lowels, corrects acidity, and is a sure and speedy cure for Colic, Cramps and windy pains. A most excellent preparation for children of a restless and fretful habit and in all care of looseness, griping, vomiting or other inward grief, it gives immediate ease. Used for more than half a century in the private practice of one of the most eminent physicians of Philadelphia. In now placing this article within the reach of all our countrymes, we would remark that we know it to be a remedy of unstrailed excellence, and that it has proved in the unamake 5 cases, as we are resolved it shall in millious, a priceless boon. a concentrated extract of Para Sarsaparilla, so combined with other substances of still greater alterative power as to afford an effective mitidote for the diseases Sarsaparilla is reputed to cure. It is believed that such a vitiated blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in pimples, cruptions, or sores; cleanse it when you find it is obstructed and sluggish in the veins; cleanse it whenever it is foul, and your feelings will tell you when. Even where no particular disorder is felt, people enjoy better health, and live longer, for cleansing the blood. Keep the blood healthy, and all is well; but with this pabulum of life disordered, there can be no lasting health. Sooner or later something must go wrong, and the great machinery of lasting health. Sooner or later something must go wrong, and the great machinery of life is disordered or overthrown.

Sarsaparilla has, and deserves much, the reputation of accomplishing these ends. But the world has been egregiously deceived by preparations of it, partly because the drug alone has not all the virtue that is claimed for it hut more because many preparations.

preparations of it, partly because the drug alone has not all the virtue that is claimed for it, but more because many preparations, pretending to be concentrated extracts of it, contain but little of the virtue of Sarsaparilla, or any thing else.

During late years the public have been misled by large bottles, pretending to give a quart of Extract of Sarsaparilla for one dollar. Most of these have been frauds upon the sick, for they not only contain little, if any, Sarsaparilla, but often no curative properties whatever. Hence, bitter and painful disappointment has followed the use of the various extracts of Sarsaparilla which flood the market, until the name itself is justly despised, and has become synonymous with imposition and cheat. Still we call this compound Sarsaparilla, and intend to supply such a remedy as shall rescue the name from the load of obloquy which rests upon it. And we think we have ground for believing it has virtues which are irresistible by the ordinary run of the diseases it is intended to cure. In order to secure their complete cradication from the system, the remedy should be indivision of the diseases it is intended to indivise a secure their complete cradication from the system, the remedy should be indivisional trades. eradication from the system, the remedy should be judiciously taken according to directions on the bottle.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral has won for itself such a renown for the cure of every variety of Throat and Lung Complaint, that it is entirely unnecessary for us to recount the evidence of its virtues, wherever it has been employed. As it has long been in constant use throughout this section, we need not do more than assure the people its quality is kept up to the best it ever has been, and that it may be relied on to do for their relief all it has ever been found to do.
