WHAT MAKES A LADY/-When Beau Brummel was asked what made the genyeou right. Yeou better go and list tleman, his quick reply was, "starch, yeourself, yeou tarnal old critter, 'sted o' starch, my lord ?" This may be true, but it takes a great d'al more to make a lady, and though it may seem singular, I am ready to maintain that no conceivable quantity of muslin, silk or satin, edging, frilling, hooping, flouncing or furbelowing, no dress maker, can per se, constitute a perfect lady. Was not Mrs. Abbot I love her muchly, however, and humer Lawrence just as much of a lady when attired in a twenty-cent calico, in Boston, as when arrayed in full court dress at St. James, London. > THE EDITOR AND THE FORTUNE TELLER .-Kentucky editor visited a fortune-teller recently. He makes the following report of the revelations concerning the past and future: "Thou hast served three years in the penitentiary for a horse thou didst not steal. Thou wilt be governor of the State, and afterwards decline a seat in the Senate of the United States. A wealthy young lady, with blue hair, auburn eyes, and very beautiful, is now about to graduate from the House of Correction, whom thou wilt marry as soon as thy present wife diest, which will be at the fourth full of the next moon. Thou wilt become possessed of this lady's wealth, and elope with the wife of a coal-boat engineer. Thou wilt go to New Orleans, and start a keno bank, which will bring thee in great riches. After an absence of nineteen years thou wilt return to thy repining wife, lay thy princely fortune at her feet, be forgiven and after raising a family of nineteen children, die happy, at the age of ninety-nine."
