FOURTH OF JULY.—The Congregation and Societies of St. Patrick's Church will cele brate the Fourth by a pic-nic in Cochran's Woods, at which it is expected that several thousand persons will be present. The male members of the church will march in procession to the Woods, wearing the badges of the different orders to which they are attached, and carrying many emblematic designs. Rev. Father Mullaine will read the Declaration, and an oration will be delivered by Rev. Father Finnucane to be followed with short speeches by other gentlemen. - Extensive arrangements for the celebration are being made, and it is anticipated to be one of the most pleasant ever held in our vicinity. Our German fellow citizens are also pre paring to celebrate the Fourth in an appropriate manner. 'We have not obtained the full programme, but learn that the various called patent for propagating grape roots from single eyes by mulching. Societies will meet at the Park, and from there march in procession to Gingrich's Woods, where an oration is to be delivered by Rev. Mr. Semler.

SINESS PROSPECTS.—That times are dull. there can be no-doubt; it is demonstrated in everybody's business, and shown conclusively in many faces. Yet, that the coming seaon is to be an especially disastrous one in financial circles, we do not believe, nor can we ment do not seem to have made much, if any, see any sound reasons for coming to such a see any sound reasons for coming to such a conclusion. From every quarter we have reports of the abundance of the coming crops and the bountiful supplies that will be garnered during the coming summer and autumn months. The railroads are all doing a thriving business, commerce is increasing and trade generally is beginning to shake itself free from the torpor and sluggishness of the past season. The question of a European war having been finally settled to the satisfaction of all concerned, there can be no cause for stringency in that direction. The general dread of a great financial crash seems to us entirely without foundation. Men have been looking for it for nearly two -years, and in that time there are comparatively few persons in business who have not arranged their affairs to meet the expected storm. The Disputch's correspondent intimates that the withdrawal was brought about by the wireworkers at Meadville to whom he had intrusted his interests, and that the campaign had already cost him four or five hundred dollars, with a fair prospect of being successful. Under the circumstances, it is no wonder that he should have felt "astonished" at finding himself withdrawn, and pronounce himself very thoroughly disgust ed with his political experience.

For the Observer. Annual Session of the Good Templars of Pennsylvania.

Beausylvania.

Mr. Editor:—The fourteenth annual session of the Grand Lodge of Independent Order of Good Templars for Pennsylvania, commenced in Mozart Hall, Seventh street, Pittsburgh, on the 12th last, at 10 a.m. It was the intention of the Grand Lodge to meet in Allegheny city, but as no bell could meet in Allegheny city, but as no hall could there be procured large enough to accommodate the meeting, it was resolved to hold the session as above, and it was one of very great importance, and was conducted throughout with remarkable harmony and good feeling. It is estimated that on the first day of the session there were seven hundred delegates and representatives in attendance; upwards of three hundred lodges of Pennsylvania were represented, and there were able men and women present to represent the Order in other States. The head of the Order for Maryland was there, and gave a most cheer-Maryianu was mere, and gave a most and ing account of the prospects of the cause in his jurisdiction. Leading officials were also in attendance from Ohio, New Jersey, New York, Wisconsin, and elsewhere.
At the hour appointed for opening, Rev. J.

The credentials of representatives was then called for and referred to the Committee on Credenilals, when it was found that one hundred and fifty new lodges were represented. Azro Goff, Esq., of Erie, represented the New Era Lodge and South Erie Lodge, and several of the Lodges in the county of Erie, and James A. Davidson represented Erie Lodge No. 241 as their regular delegate. Crawford county was represented by W. W. Bloss, Esq., of Titusville, and Venango county by Rev. Dr. Williams, of Franklin, and A. M. Baldwin, Esq., of Petroleum Centre. It may not be out of place to state that the Lodges of Erie and adjoining counties were proved to sustain the first rank in prosperity in all the State, and many deserved compliments were paid the good citizens of these counties for their zeal and efficiency in the good work. called for and referred to the Committee on

During the year one hundred and fifty new lodges have been organized, and a number of lodges have been revived and restored to active work whose members had for a time ceased to meet. The financial condition of the Order, was reported in a most satisfactors state, there being a handsome balance in the Treasury after the payment of all the expen-

Grand Lodge honors.

The reports of the G. W. C. T. and the G.
W.S. were delivered on first day and proved the order in Pennsylvania to be in a condition of prosperity entirely unprecedented.

es of the year.
The R. W. G. T., Hastings, addressed the Grand Lodge in reference to the wants and claims of certain States in the South, where it was very desirable that work should be done, if the State Grand Lodges would aid in the work. It was the intention of the R. W.

state, and would result in good at present impossible to estimate. It proved to all that the Good Templars of Pennsylvania are a liberal class of men, entirely free from all narrow or sectional prejudices. Mr. Hastings responded in a speech of much feeling and onlightened philanthropy.

S. McMurray, of Altoona, G. W. C. T., called the meeting to order in the manner usual in Good Templar meetings, and the Grand Lodge was opened with the regular services of the Order, including singing and prayer. The first action taken after opening was a resolution tendering the G. W. C. T. of Maryland a seat in the Grand Lodge, and inviting him to a participation in the work of the session. their zeal and efficiency in the good work.
The Head of the National Department, or Right Worthy Grand Lodge, S. D. Hastings, of Madison, Wisconsin, and J. A. Spencer, of Cleveland, R. W. G. S., arrived on the first day of the session; and were received with

G. L. to send the Order help in more desti-tate fields, and the Grand Lodge of Pennsylvania responded without one voice of dis-sent by granting a donation of about eight hundred dollars towards this missionary fund. When the vote was announced, the Hon. James Black, of Lancaster, one of the leading spirits of the Order, arose and de-clared that the vote just taken was the most important one ever given by the order in this State, and would result in good at present loquence, returning thanks for the munifi-ent appropriation.

Much discussion took place on the choice

NEW FIRM. laving associated with me on the let of Janua ry Andrew Mayer, in the BOOT & SHOE BUSINESS,

The firm will be known as C. Englehart & Co. and the business will be carried on as hereto fore at No. 19 West Park, Eric, Ph. C. ENGLEHART. Something New. Buy Silver Tipped Shoes for your children. A majority of the children wear holes in the toes of their shoes in a very few days; then the shoes are soon worthless, and a new pair must be lought. The only way to prevent this great waste of money is to buy shoes protected by silver tips. They never wear out at the toe, and make a pair of shoes last three times as long as without Tips. Leather Caps have been worn to some extent, but they have proved worthless. Silver Tips have a neat and substantial appearance, and do away entirely with the disagreeable sight of dirty stockings and protruding toes. We have constantly on hand the only assortment of Silver Tipped Shoes to be found in the city, including fine Sewed shoes, Baimornis, Youths' Boots, &c., which we offer, together with a large and fashlonable assortment of Ladles and Gents' Fine and Heavy goods, at the lowest cash prices.
