* * We are in the midst of the Registration. I am registered, being one of the fortunates that never held office before the war. There are four ex-Federal officers here attending to the registration. They get the anug sum of eight dollars per day each, and could do all that is to be done in three days, but they are killing time to make good wasers. After all, it is a cruel and mortifying farce.

After all, it is a cruel and mortifying farce. Any negro can register, but very few white men are allowed to do so.

My brother-in-law, who is a lawyer, cannot get his name on the list, because he was a deputy clerk before the war, when only eighteen years old! At the same time his old negro man, a half-witted imbecile, is duly registered. One I knew was not twenty-one. In fact, his fifther told me he was only seventeen, and the other had not been in the parish a month. I respectfully objected to their being registered. The former went through at once by Captain 8—, who said he would not listen to objections raised by rebels, and further said that as they had sixty days to complete the registration the latter would be all right, as he only needed to live two months in the parish to be entitled.

to live two months in the parish to be entitled to vote. We are, indeed, in a humiliating fix. The colporture of the Radicals are coming thick and fast among us. All the Board of Registers are in the interest of the Radicals. and they permit few whites to register. All the negroes who apply pass through if they look about eighteen. There have been over thirty boys in this place allowed to register, whose ages ranged from sixteen to twenty.

whose ages ranged from sixteen to twenty. Their former masters, on whose plantations they were born, knew this to be a fact.

We are suffering from gloom and apprehension. An overflowed country, and the worst laborers on God's earth to deal with, and a set of malignant Radical howlers traveling from parish to parish, stirring up strife between the masters and their former servants. That seems to be their chief aim. They are sending samads of soldiers to all the points in

A. Yes, sir; and I voted the Republicanticket—that's sure as gun abot.

Q. For whom did you then vote as a candidate for Congress!

A. I voted for Delano; first voted for old Abe—he got killed, and then I voted for the other nees.

Q. Where did you vote last October? What down there in Newtonville. What township is Newtonville in?
Why—its in Newton.
What county is it in?

What State is it in? A. Why—it's Muskingum State, I guess. Yes it's Muskingum. Q. Is it in any other State besides Muskingum?

A. No, sir.
Q. Did you ever hear of a State called Ohio?
A. No, sir.
Q. Did you ever hear of a country called he United States!

A. No, sir.
Q. Did you ever hear of a continent or a e called America? No, sir, I didn't. A. No, sir, I didn't.
Q. Have you ever heard of a continent or place called Europe?

A. No, str.
Q. How large is Muskingum?
A. Well, I ain't posted of that—I ain't scholar enough for that.
Q. Who is the President of the United A. Why, let me see, I heard his name, too. Why, his name is Delano.
Q. Who was President before Delano? Q. Who was President before Letano?
A. Who, what's his name; why, he died.

gh—yes, sir, Brough. What was Abraham Lincoln? Q. What was Abraham Lincoln:
A. Why, he was a Republican.
Q. What office did he hold?
A. Why, he held the President, you might English Views of American Taxation. Congress, in the face of urgent necessity, did not hesitate to impose heavy taxation, and the American people bordit with a readiness which surprises even their own states-men. Money could only be had for the late That seems to be their chief aim. They are sending squads of soldiers to all the points in the State where election boxes are kept, and there they loaf the time away. Amid all this din and excitement, is it any wonder that poor Cuffee loses the little judgment he has, and resolves to play the gentleman of leisure or ignorant tyrant.

Prof. Agassiz on the Negro.

The following is an extract from a recent lecture delivered by Prof. Agassiz, a resident of, and the most distinguished scientific man in, New England:

"I have pointed out over a hundred specific differences between the bonal and nervous systems of the white man and negro. Indeed, their frames are alike in no particulation, or chemically of the same composition, as that of the white man. The nelection of imposts which should touch the citizens in every relation of life, and this was devised with the relentless ingenuity of Pitt himself. For several years America has been the most highly taxed country in the world. Not even the Englishman or the Dutchman is so constantly encountered by taxation in every act of life—in cating and drinking, in buying and selling, in work and anusement—as the citizens of the Republic. Where local taxation is increased by msl-administration, and, it rumor be correct, by worse offenses, as in New York and other great cities, the burden on each housekeeper must be enormous. Every mail brings us the complaints of the American press on this subject. The newspers tell us of the sufferings of the laboring class, of strikes and other industrial converges bones contain a far greater per centage.

> THE SOUTH AS A FIELD FOR NORTHERN CAPITAL—The New York Herald calls at-tention to the fact that in consequence of the impoverished condition of the South and lack of means to cultivate, nearly all the farm or plantation lands there can be purchased for much less than their value, in many cases for a third or fourth of their value, and asks. "Why do not our capitalists, instead of stocklobbing and using their maney for all-sorts of kits-flying speculations, invest in Southern property?" The answer is easily given. It is because, under the military sattrap system of government, there is no secutively for property in the Bouth.
