Our community has been honored with a Pratt, familiarly known as "The Great American Traveler, and Genius Candidate for the Presidency." The General is on a tour of observation, to ascertain the public sentiment, 'make suggestions' for local improvements, address the people on the issues of the day, and otherwise benefit his fellow men. He gives us the information in confidence that he is certain to be the next President, and promises us the best office in his gift if we will support his election. The General has handed us the following thrilling effusion to print, which he assures us will electrify the nation, and be worth $1,000 to us-all of which, of course, we most implicitly believe: PROCLAMATION

The following story is especially season able just now in this locality, in view of the soul for eternity, if he could be supplied on earth with all the money he could use. The bargain was concluded; the devil was to sup-ply the money, and was at last to have the soul, unless the young man could spend more money than the devil could furnish. Years passed away: the man married, was extravagant in his living, built palaces, spec-uhited wildly, lost and gave nway fortunes, and yet shis coffers were always full. He turned politician, and bribed his way to hon-or and fame, without reducing his pile of gold. He became a fillibuster, and fitted out ships and armies, bit his backer honored all ships and armies, but his banker honoreit all his drafts. He came to New York to live, and paid the usual rates of interest on all the money he could borrow; but though the devil made faces when he came to pay the bills, yet they were all paid. One expedient after another failed. The devil connted the time only two years that he must wait for the soul; and he mocked the efforts of the de spairing man. One more trial was resolve upon-the man started a newspaper! Th devil growled at the bill at the end of the first quarter, was savage in six months, mel-ancholy in nine, and broke, dead broke, at the end of the year. So the newspaper went down, but the soul was saved.

THE Union Star has hoisted Mr. Lowry's name at its editorial head, and last week came out with a long article defending him against the charges of the Dispatch, Gazette and Meadville Republican. The article closes with the following threatening language, which, we suspect, will not do much towards mollifying the feelings of the large element in the Republican ranks who are dissatisfie I with Lowry's nomination :

A second Gazzalation is THE Chairman of the Republican County Committee laboring in the interest of Mr. Lowry, has arranged for a series, of political meetings in every portion of the county. The object of these meetings is to excite a renewed political farore, and revive the zeal of the Republicans for their party organization, on the strength of which it is hoped that the hundreds of persons who now threaten to bolt the ticket will be coaxed or intimidated into changing their minds. It is a curious fact that all the speakers advertised are righthand men of Lowry's, and that none of the local orators who arrayed themselves against him in the last contest have been mentioned. The Chairman of the County Committee is a shrewd little man, but he must not think to impose on the anti-Lowry Republicans by what may happen. Wanted-immediately-a bottle of Mrs Winslow's Soothing Syrup, to calm the nerves of a Radical editor, whom the late elections and the prospect of a "true Republican paper in Erie county" have worked into a distressing condition. Direct, under Senatorial frank-the Erie Gazette office. Article must be sent without delay, as the patient is dangerous,

An over-confident Radical was highly inlignant the other day at the suggestion that : Mr. Stranahan, the Democratic candidate for Jury Commissioner, would be elected. He said it couldn't be possible-that Eric county was always sure for from two to three thousand majority. Some one posted him about the law, and he left, firmly believing the coun try was ruined I and the state of the safe

CHANGE IN THE MODE OF VOTING .- Two tickets, or slips, must be voted at the coming election, the one to be labelled outside "Judiciary," and to contain the name of the candidate for Judge of the Supreme Court ; the other to be labelled "County," and to contain the name of all other officers who will be voted for this fall.

Some one suggests that Mr. Hecker can easily be elected, if he takes the right course, He need only promise that every village shall be created a county-seat, agree to have all the little streams made navigable, and advocate the building of a railroad through every man's farm, to ensure a two-thirds vote.

THE Meadville Republican is responsible for the following :

"The Erie Dispatch and Erie Gazette each claim to have been the first paper in the county to advocate the impeachment of President Johnson, and arc re-printing from their files to establish their respective claims. It is a matter of the gravest importance that their dispute should be decided at once !"

The Buffalo Commercial Advertiser, which opposed Radicalism when it was not haif so pronounced and revolutionary as it is to-day, has formally embraced it. It apologizes for, or advocates the policy which it has shown to be prolific of evil, and, what is stranger still, claims to be a model of consistency.
