WEEKLY OBSERVER

ERIE. PENN'A. OCTOBER J. 1807.

Removal of the Observer Office. The Editorial and Business Offices of this aper have been removed to the second story Rosenzweig's block, next door to the telegraph office, where we shall be pleased to see any of our friends. The entrance from the street is the same as before.

A Last Word. This is the last issue of the Observer that will appear previous to the election, and we again appeal to our friends to spare no effort that will bring success to our cause. The time is short, and the work to be done admits of no further delay. If we fail of making such a return as we would like Eric county to present, the fault will rest with those upon whose active exertions we have a right to rely. We feel that we have done our full duty in endeavoring to point out the means of victory, to rally our forces to the battle, and to encourage them to the manful performance of their work, and if they fail to respond as the occasion demands, the fault will not lie at our door at least. The issue henceforth rests with the Democrats in the different districts. Upon their fidelity, energy and zeal depeads the question of success or defeat. We can win, if we choose, and if we fail, our own inactivity will be the

Is Lowry Entitled to the Support of Republicans?

On the week of the Republican County Convention, the Gazette, discussing the manner in which Mr. Lowry secured his noin! nation, presented the following table of the way the delegates stood at the time of their election:

COLTON, Eric 2d Ward 2 Erie 1st Ward 2 South Eric 2 North East Tp. Eric 3d Ward Erie 4th Ward East Mill Creek 3 North East Borough 2 3 Venango 4 Wattsburg West Mill Creek Greenfield 2 Wayne 8 Concord Union Tp. Union Borough 3 Corry 2 McKean LeBouf 3 Middlebore Washington Waterford Borough 2 Edinborn Franklin Elk Creek Springfield 4 Conneaut Girard Township 3 Albion Girard Borough

On the strength of these figures the Gazette declared, "It was therefore apparent to dinal feature of their creed, which he said all that the Republican party of Eric county the party would have to do or die. We sim- one of the ablest editorials we have ever seen ry remember that in doing so he votes to had fairly and regularly made choice of Geo. ply state what the condition who heard W. Colton as its candidate in the conferce him must acknowledge, that the effort of Mr. W. Colton as its candidate in the conferce Convention for the State Senate."

Gazette, after summing up the particulars, concludes by saying:

concludes by saying:
"Having thus candidly posted the Republican masses of Eric county as to the modus operandi by which their expressed wishes in regard to the Senatorial candidate were set at maught through open fraud in the County Convention, we leave the matter before them Convention, we leave the matter before them for the balance of the pending campaign. The exclusion of Greenfield township from representation cannot be justified or explained to the satisfaction of any intelligent and fair minded Republican. It was contarry to all usage, all precedent, and all justice, and the actors in the fraud are meeting that condemnation which their course deserves." Strange as it may appear, the Gazette, after showing thus candidly and explicitly the way in which Mr. Colton was swindled out of his nomination, supports Lowry as the regular nominee of the party. We do our cotemporary the justice to say that we do not believe its course in this respect is diomi ted by any sincere motives, but solely because its interests as the party organ seem to require it to do so.

Let the sober minded and hencet intentioned Republicans of the district read the above statement from their party organ; and ponder it well. If it is true as no and has seen proper to publicly deny, how can they decide give Mr. Lowry their votes? A majority of the Republican voters of the county, we are told by the Gazette, instructed their delegates against his nomination, and yet in definite of their wish, he has been placed in the field as the candidate of the party. Through what mysterious influences were the delegates chosen against him brought over to his support? What right has a man to claim to be SWISS WATCHES, the party nominee when a majority of the party decided against him at the primary elections? Has such a nomination any SILVER WATCHES, force upon the party adherents, and can

those who have been cheated out of the can-chate they desired, with any degree of self NDSOME CLOCKS! respect susptin it?
These are questions which litally concerns every Republican voter in the county, and if their own political organs will not present their, it is time that some means should be found by which they can be brought to the notice of those most concerned. The purity of our political organizations, the vindication of the majority principle, the character of our local representation, and the reputation of the community, all require that they should be met by the people in a manner that cannot be misunderstood. THE Titusville Herald contains a tepor of a speech made by Mr. Lowry in that city last week, by which it appears that whatever. his enemies may be disposed to do, he has no intention of letting the quarrel in the Radical ranks subside for a while longer. His opponents are designated as , weak kneed, bow-backed and sunken-eyed Republicans," the papers which arrayed themselves against him are stigmatized as the "debauched press," and the customary appeals are made by him to the sympathy of the poople. Like all of Lowry's productions, this speech is a rare combination of extravagant expressions, queer logic, over-drawn comparisons, and quaint conclusions. At will increase the bitterness of his enemies, and cause many of them to support the Democratic candidate, who might otherwise have

The Lowry Meeting.

The friends of Mr. Lowry held their first public meeting in the city to advance his inerests, in the Court House, on Monday even ing. We are not informed whether they were required to pay ten dollars, as the Democratic County Convention was, for the use of the building, but presume that as the janitor is somewhat liberally disposed towards them they procured it at a reduced rate.

The community had been told by the Dispatch, which did not appear to be aware that it was being used as a "catspaw" for Lowry. that an old-fashioned, grand and tremendous rally would take place. Everybody was on the tip-toe of excitement in consequence, and it was confidently expected that a dem onstration was certain to occur that would throw all the circus exhibitions we have ever had entirely into the shade.

The first thing on the programme was torch-light procession, which was announced to be on a peculiarly brilliant scale. Accordingly all the little and big boys about the city, who enjoy anything that will contribute to their love of variety, were promptly on hand at the West Park, where a bon-fire was lit to give life to the occasion. A number of zealous persons strained themselves to collect the torches, and a little before eight o'clock enough boys were found willing to make an exhibition of themselves to get up a respectable sized procession. The line presented a formidable array of tall boys and short boys, fat boys and lean boys, boys whose mothers knew they were out, and others who didn't, A carefully compiled table, gathered by some half, dozen celebrated mathematicians, specially employed for the occasion, and carefully posted at various points on the route, develons the fact that the procession was compose ed as follows: Voters, 17; big boys, 65; little boys, 53; nigger, 1-total 136.- This huge procession, which was calculated to strike terror into the hearts of wicked Copperheads, paraded around several squares, and having accomplished its patriotic mission, suddenly struck a bee line for the Court House, where it arrived at a little after eight. One of our

. At the Court House, an audience had gathered which, when swelled by the torch-light crowd, just comfortably filled the hall, which will hold perhaps five hundred persons. The bar presented a motley collection of Radicals, prominent among whom were seen the irrepressible gentleman in whose interest the meeting was called, and his faithful aid-de-.camp, the Chairman of the Radical County Committee. The "weak-kneed, and bowbacked, and sunken-eyed" element of the party was slimly represented, those who were in attendance looking much like mourners at their own funeral. On motion of Col. McCreary (Lowry) Mayor Noble (Lowry) was called upon to preside. The principal office having been secured, the balance was distributed around among the Germans and Colton men, as a salve for the slights and wounds received by them at the late County Convention. They will undoubtedly approciate the favor at its full value.

The first speaker was Hon. B. H. Brewster. Attorney General of the State, who sald that he had not made a political speech for many years, and had only come to Erie at the urgent solicitation of Senator Lowry, between whom and he there has been a long personal friendship. He enlightened the audience with the information that he had been a Democrat until the opening of the war, when hebecame a red hot Radical. His speech was dry, illogical and uninteresting one, and was mainly devoted to urging the Radicals present to accept of negro suffrage as a car-Brewster did not equal his reputation, and ors from the start, and most of them were glad when he diosed. The next speaker was flow Galustia A.

Like Brewster, he had once been a Democrat, and like all renegades his remarks against his former political allies were infused with more falsehood and meanness than it would be possible for a consistent member of the Opposition to utter. The opening of his speech was in a sophomorical style calculated to give one the impression that he had just left some down East college. Mr. Grow's whole object appearant to be previous the passions of the past and the passion of the same. The greater portion of his speech was nonneed in the little support to the passion of the war, and in denunciation of special pet of Sinon Cameron, to Micse in the city was employed on the hearing Mr. Grow, that he has tambed down from a position of promisence to that of an ordinary local politicism. Being next door to the telegraph office, we will have unrivalled facilities for procuring the news. THE "weak-kneed and bow-backed and sunken-eyed Republicans," referred to by Mr. Lowry in his Titusville speech will have a chance to respond to him on Tuesday next. Will it be in his own mode, or are they such good Christians that they will deem it their luty to reward his abuse of them by helping to re-elect him to the Senate?

THE two German papers in the city, the Free Press (independent) and Speciator (Republican) both advocate the election of Mr. Liebel, one of the Democratic candidates for the Assembly. From what we can learn, it looks as if Mr. Liebel will secure nearly the entire German vote of the county, regardless of politics. A NICE family are these Johnsons' that are paid $25,000 a year to live at the White House.—Gazette. We hope the Gazette hasn't, forgotten that it was its party who placed "these John sons" where they are. If "these Johnsons' are the terrible fellows we are told they are, the Republican party is responsible for putting them in the position they occupy.
