

President's Message

which requires the States to be restored. There is another consideration which, though of minor importance, is yet of great weight. On the 22d day of July, 1861, Congress declared by an unanimous vote of 100 yeas and 10 nays that the Union was dissolved by the secession of the States, and that the Federal Government was the only government existing in the United States.

It is not necessary to repeat the details of this declaration, but it is sufficient to say that it was a solemn and deliberate act of the highest authority. It was a declaration of the fact that the Union had been broken up, and that the Federal Government was the only government existing in the United States. It was a declaration of the fact that the States were no longer a part of the Union, and that the Federal Government was the only government existing in the United States.
