Court Proceedings

The regular January term of the Court of Common Pleas began on Monday afternoon cavities of an animal body. The boilers, last, Judge Vincent presiding. The case of feet high, and tifteen feet nine inches long, calf vs. John W. Douglass, Collector of Internal Revenue, was postponed until the next term. It will be recollected that when Mr. Degmier was detected in his alleged peculations, he gave Mr. Douglass a judgment on his residence in this city, through which the property [fell into the latter gentleman's the same time, and the suit is to recover from Mr. Douglass the amount of their claim, it being contended that he is not lawfully entitled to the whole value of Degmier's residence. Since the termination of the criminal suit against Degmier, if is -believed by the plaintiffs that they will not have much difficulty in securing a verdist in their favor. The case is regarded with much concern by grees., This places all the machinery except the friends of both parties, and there will be a large attendance whenever it is tried. The following other suits have been disposed of :

OUR city physicians agree that the last ear was the healthiest within their rememrance. No epidemics, no contagious dis ases, not even the average number of sea sonable complaints. Most people are too noor to afford the luxury of sickness.

THE sporting portion of the community has been much interested during the week over Weston, the pedestrian, who appeared in Farrar Hall, on Tuesday, and has remained to repeat the exhibition on Friday evening. We did not attend on Tuesday, but understand that his audience were better pleased than they expected.

A PARTY of young ladies in North East taking advantage of Leap Year, gave their friends of the opposite sex a sleigh-ride to hands. Degmier was owing the plaintiffs at Quincey and back, last week. They complain of the landlord at Quincey for charging them too high, from which we infer that playing the gallant is a more costly business than they imagined.

As THE city election next spring gives promise of being one of the most hotly contested that we have had for many years, the community will be interested in seeing the ERIE RAILWAY following list of Councilment whose places will be vacant in March :

Select-II. C. Shannon, 1st district; J. M. Kuhn, 2d; P. Murphy, 3d.

Kunn, 2d; P. Murphy, 3d. Common—J. C. Spencer and D. G. Orms-by, 1st district; F. Schlaudecker, 2d; A. W. Van Tassel and F. P. Liebel, 3d; M. Henry and John Dunlap, 4th. Of these gentlemen, we understand that Messrs. Schlaudecker, Liebel, Van Tassel and Henry will be presented by their friends as candidates for re-election. Whether the other tron gentlemen will airain be candidates we are not informed.

Some sensible editor, who has probably had an experience of the sort he describes gives the following suggestions on a subject that concerns a large portion of the community :

"Suppose a man occupies a house worth three thousand dollars, and pays a rent of four hundred dollars per annum, payable quarterly. He will, in seven years, have paid two thousand eight hundred dollars, and lost the interest on the payments of the rent he has made within this time, amounting to five hundred and sixty-seven dollars. He has consumed three thousand three hundred and sixty-seven dollars, and has nothing to she for it save the receipts of his landlord. How much better would it be to buy a lot on sev-satisfactory return for the investment. It is to the credit of all classes in our city that would at the end of that time be paid for, without any trouble. A house and lot is al-so the best savings bank a man can have."
