ALL THE NEWS.

For this the facilities of "The World" are unsurpassed by any journal in the United States. It seeks to excel by an accuracy and candor, a spirit and freshness in its news columns which shall commend it to readers of whatever party, sex, creed or place.

As an organ of opinion "The World" is the unflinching champion of

A Liberal, Progressive Democracy, whereof the corner stone is Freedom restrained by Justice; Freedom pure and simple, in the largest collective measure; the office of Justice being to protect Freedom from encroachments; Freedom of the individual citizen in his rights of though, speech, religion and locomotion; in his Right to make any money bargains he thinks proper in spite of foolish usury law; in his kight to buy and sell in all markets, domestic and forging in spite of unjust protective tarifice. Right to buy and sell in all markets, domestic and foreign, in spite of unjust protective tarits; in his Right to choose his own food and drink, in spite of meddle-some temperance laws; in his Right to the resultion in the legislative bodies which tax him, in spite of unconstitutional exclusions; Freedom of collective citizens to asemble for discussion of glevances; Freedom of all local communities to manage their local afairs without central interference; Freedom in every section of the country, from the arrogant and unconstitutional domination of other sections. This large and comprehensive idea of Freedom sums up the politics of "The World," which will never be found wanting to this capital interest of the country and of the human race. wee. A paper published in the metropolis is natu-ally looked to for careful Market reports and athentic information, and intelligent discus sions relating to Trade, Commerce and Finance. In these teatures "The World" invites comunitions. The WEEKLY WORLD, a large quarto sheet same size as badly, is more printed wholly in large type, and (since as union with the New York Argus) has the largest circulation of any weekly journal published, says one. It is an unrivalled Journal for the Farmer, Live Stock or Produce Bealer, Country Merchant, etc. Pub-lished Wednesday. lished Wednesday.

The SEMI-WEEKLY WORLD is a large quartor the sheet, same size as Daily, which, by omitting the great mass of city advertisements from the Daily, contains everything else that appears in the daily and weekly editions. Published The dairy and weekly entrons. Published The day and Friday.

The DAILY Walth Daffords a complete com-pendium and askenssion of the news of every day.

White Men Must Rule America. CLUBSTOR 1868...CLUBS FOR 1868. The Best New York Weekly Published. NEW YORK DAY BOOK! FOR 1808.

The New York Day-Book is a straightforward Radical Democratic paper, with a larger circulation than any other Democratic paper, and it enters on the threshold of Issis more prosperous and more nopeful of the greaf cause it upholds than ever before. Standing on the Declaration of Independence, that "sail, white) men are equal," and therefore entitled to equal rights, it is opposed to all forms and degrees of special legislation that conflict with this grand central truth of Democracy, and over all and above all, does it combat that monstrous treason to American liberty, which thrusting the negro element into our political system, must of necessity wreck the whole mightly labric left as by our fathers, (fod has created white nien superior and negroes infector, and therefore all the efforts of the past six years to abolish His work and equalize with negroes—every law vlobted, every State Constitution overthrown, every life sacrificed, and every dollar expended, are necessarily just so many steps towards national stricted; and the simple and why floro lem now upon us is just this—shall we recover our reason and refrace our steps, or march on to Mongrolism, social anarchy, and the total run of our country.

The Pay Book, therefore, demands the restoration of the "Chion as it was"—a Union of coequal States upon the white basts, as the only hope, and the only means, possible under heaven for saving the grand deas of 1778, and the fundamental priciples of American liberty, and if the real freemen, mill the earnest believers in that sacred and glorious cause in which the men of the Revolution offered up their lives, will now labor to expose the grounnes, chelasion and the sand the Mongrel party, it will suc that sacred and glorious cause in which the men of the Revolution offered up their lives, will now labor to expose the ignorance debision and treason of the Mongael party, it will succeed, and the white Republic of Washington be restored again in all its original influence and grandeur.

The Day Hook will, however, hereofter be more than ever devoted to all the varied purposes of a new paper, to conscious that it reaches thousands of nonlines who take no other journal, beyond perhaps their local paper, it will continue and improve its "News of the Weelt" Sümmary, so as to present a transcript of the World's events in each issue. Its "Family Department" will embrace the best original and selected stores. Its "Agricultural Department" will be fully sustained, and being the only paper of its class made up expressly for country circulation, it is confident it is worth double file price of a weekly burriedly reprinted from a daily. It gives full and complete reports of the New York and Albany Cattle Markets; Grain, Provisions and Cotton Markets, and a Weekly review of Financial matters, together with the markets, by telegraph, from New Orleans, cairo, Charleston, Philadelphila, Ac., &c., up to time of going to press. AGENTS WANTED FOR THE BLUE-COATS, And how they Lived, Fought and Died for the Union, with Sceness and incidents in the Great Rebellion.

Comprising narratives of Personal adventure, thrilling incidents, daring exploits, heroic deeds, wonderful escapes, life in the camp, field and hospital; adventures of spies and scounts to gether with the songs, ballads, nucedotes and humorous incidents of the war. Spiendidly illustrated with over loss fine portraits, and beautiful engravings.

namotous incidents of the war. Splendidly ilinstrated with over his fine portraits and beautiful engravings.

There is a certain portion of the war that will never go into the regular histories, nor be embodied in romance or poetry, which is a very real part of it, and will, if preserved, convey to succeeding generations a better idea of the spirit of the condict than many dry reports or cares, ful narratives of events, and this fart may be called the gossip, the fun, the pathen of the war.
This illustrates the character of the leaders, the humor of the soldiers, the devotion of women, the bravery of men, the pluck of our heroes,
the romance and hardships of the service.

The valiant and brave hearted, the picturesque, and dramatic; the witty and marvelous, the tender and pathetic, and the whole panoruma of the war are here thrillingly portrayed in a masterly manner, at once instoncial and romantic, rendering it the most ample, unique, brilliant and readable look that the war has called forth.
