DEMOCRATIC STATE TICKET. AUDITOR GENERAL, CHAS. E. BOYLE, of Fayette Co. SUBVEYOR GENERAL, W. H. ENT, of Columbia Co.

RADICAL NATIONAL CONVENTION. The Radical National Convention met in Chicago on Wednesday, and organized by the election of Gen. Carl Schurz as temporary Chairman, Ex-Governor Hawley, of Connecticut, was chosen permanent President, with the usual batch of Vice Presidents and Secretaries. Delegates are in attendance from all the States and Territories, numbering over five hundred in all. Gen. Grant will be nominated by acclamation, and the Vice Presidency will probably be given to

Vice Presidency will probably be given to New Englaad. The prominent candidates are Wade, Wilson, Hamlin, Fenton and Col-fax. In the House on Friday, Judge Woodward offered a resolution authorizing the appoint-uncnt of a special committee to inquire into the conduct of certain Radical members of the Missouri delegation, who had written a letter to Senator Henderson of that State, with a view of influencing his vote on the impeachment question. Judge Woodward, in the resolution, yery properly character-ized such conduct as "an infringement of the rights and privileges of the Senate, an in the resolution authorize of the Senate, an in the resolution authorize of the Senate, an in the resolution authorize of the Senate, an in the resolution of the Senate, an in the resolution and privileges of the Senate, an in the resolution and privileges of the Senate, an in the resolution and privileges of the Senate, an in the resolution and privileges of the Senate, an in the resolution and privileges of the Senate, an in the resolution and privileges of the Senate, an inter resolution and privileges of the Senate, an the rights and privileges of the Senate, an the rebel States;" thus committing a high obstacle to and subversive of, the cause of justice, and calculated to bring dishonor upon the House.". The Speaker, however, ruled that the resolution was not a question follows. The names of the Democratic Senof privilege. Judge Woodward proposed to stors are printed in italic type : amend it so as to make it such a question, but Garfield, of Ohio, objected to its' reception, and it was consigned to the fate of so tion, and it was consigned to the fate of so many more good measures. THE LAW TO DEFRAUD POOR MEN We are pleased to learn from the Lancas-ter Intelligencer, that "steps are being taken to test, before the Supreme Court, the con-stitutionality of the Registry act, passed by the last Legislature. Mr. Chalfant, of the House of Representatives, from Columbia county, declares that the journal of the House shows that the act as passed, con-tained but three Sections, while as printed in the Legislative Record and in the Pumphlet Laws, it contains twenty-one Sections. He charged in the House that it had been tan-charged pered with after it was passed, and asked that a committee of investigation be ordered, which was refused by the Radical members. The statement is a startling one, and we are glad that it is going to be investigated. The quitted on the eleventh article. The tidings constitutionality of the law will be tested at were immediately dispatched over the counthe same time. Its sole object is to injure the Democratic party, by throwing obstacles in the way of the exercise of the right of suffrage by the poor men, the mass of whom are Democrats, and is in perfect consistency party madness and intrigue. with the Radical policy of restricting in every way the influence of white men in the control of our government, and extending that of black men."

THE IMMACULATE PORNEY. No more palpable trick has been expose in a long period, than the recent widely an nounced resignation of John W. Forney as Clerk of the U.S. Senate. It has provoked ridicule wherever Forney is known. The ostensible purpose of the resignation was to enable him to be free to criticise the Senators as he might see fit, but nobody doubts that the programme was fixed up beforehand, and that he never expected the resignation to be accepted. In the Senate, Sumner moved to lay the resignation on the tinue Forney as Secretary by failing to elect nuccessor. To this Cameron, who hate the Dead Duck, objected and moved the resignation be accepted. But Sumner's motion prevailed. Hendricks then moved the resignation be accepted, and a Secretary pro tem. appointed until a regular election could be had. Sumner objected to the consideration of this motion, which would have made Forney's resignation a resignation in earnest. and it went over, so that no successor, either permanent or ad interim, having been apointed. Forney is still the Secretary with a fat salary.

THE NATION DISGRACED.

In the whole history of American politics there has never been anything so disgraceful postponement, inasmuch as it is a clear acas the attempt of the impeachers to overawe and intimidate the sworn members of the is a wanton procrastination of a great public "High Court of Impeachment" into perjuring themselves by voting for the deposition of President Johnson. The only thing approximating to it in history, that we remember, was the action of the Jacobin club, in Paris. when it was in the lishit of renairing to the French Convention, compelling it by menaces and open violence to carry out its bloodthirsty designs. Every day we see developments showing the remarkable similarity hetween the more reckless and violent of the Radicsls, and the miscreants who governed France during the "reign of terror."

What would be thought if such outside pressure, and violent menaces, as we now ed they will go back upon their expressed see employed toward Senators to wring opinions. We doubt if any of the articles from them a verdict which they do not belive to be just were brought to bear upon jurors in private cases, either civil or crimi- votes. Our news on this point is confirmed tors would suffer condign punishment. Yet on Monday, remarkable for its moderation there is no case where such displays could in comparison with its frothy ebullitions prehe more rascally, or where they would have crding the vote, speaks as follows: he more rascally, or where they would have such a fatal effect upon the peace of the coun-try, as this one in which they are employed. We shall soon see whether a miserable mole is to rule in this Government, or whether it will be conducted in accordance with the oaths and conscientious convictions of the constitutional representatives of the peo-ple. THE impeachers thick that they make a point against the independent Senators who are against Johnson's conviction, by a charge of inconsistency. The charge is that they voted with the majority of the Senate on the 21st of the eleventh article and probably decided dent with violating the tenure-of-office law mitted the unpardonable shame of voting for use much stronger language in relation to it, of Mr. Wade's stamp, neither can we often Johnson." for it was not only hasty, but grossly impro- hope to see the absence of it so signally punshould necessarily declare, by their vote, that | and men by Ben.
