

DEMOCRATIC STATE TICKET.

ALBION GENERAL. CHAS. E. BOYLE, of Fayette Co. SENATOR GENERAL. W. H. ENT, of Columbia Co.

SOLDIERS' AND VETERANS' NATIONAL ASSOCIATION.

The Executive Committee appointed by the Soldiers' and Veterans' National Association, held at Cleveland in 1866, have called a National Convention of the Conservative Soldiers and Veterans of the United States, to meet at the city of New York, the 4th of July next.

EDWARD L. DANA, Brigadier General.

JACOB SWEITZER, Late Colonel and Brevet Brigadier General. JOSEPH F. KNIPF, Major General.

THE RADICAL NOMINEES.

The unanimity with which Gen. Grant was chosen as the Radical nominee at Chicago is of an essential value, except as it may show the skill with which the party leaders have manipulated public opinion to subvert the purpose of the Radical nomination.

IMPEACHMENT A DEAD DOG IN THE SENATE.

Thursday being the day set for voting on the remaining articles of impeachment, a full Senate was in attendance, and the galleries were crowded with an anxious audience.

STANTON RESIGNED.

The illustrious Stanton, who rejoiced in being the only Cabinet officer in the United States who has ever sought to retain his position after the President had notified him that his term was better than his country.

THE TRUTH COMING OUT.

The Grant Investigating Committee has not succeeded in hunting up any thing that impugns the integrity of the Senators who voted against impeachment, but it has run athwart something which requires a little explanation from Mr. Pomeroy of Kansas.

WAL DEPARTMENT.

The resolution of the Senate of the United States, which declares the President has no power to remove the Secretary of War and designate any other person to the duties of that office, is being tested by the House of Representatives.

CORRUPTION AT CHICAGO.

If we can believe the representations of a Radical organ, it is a pretty safe indication that all is not mere assertion. The late, under date of the 29th inst., says:

DEMOCRATIC RENEGADES.

The Republican Convention at Chicago was managed exceedingly by such renegade Democrats as Dan. Sickles, John Logan and John C. Cochrane. They are equal partners in the honors and expected emoluments, and formed a triangular mutual admiration society.

THE TRIAL OF JEFFERSON WALKER.

Jefferson Walker will commence at Richmond, on the 3d of June, Chief Justice Chase presiding.

GEN. GRANT AS AN ADVOCATE.

No fact is better known to the mass of intelligent readers than that when the Radical party deserted the plan of restoration adopted by President Lincoln and Johnson, and a separation ensued between Mr. Johnson and his party, General Grant was in full accord with the President. He stood beside the President when the latter received and replied to the Committee from the Philadelphia Convention of August 14th, 1868.

THE NATIONAL REPUBLICAN PARTY OF THE UNITED STATES.

The National Republican Party of the United States, assembled at the National Convention in Chicago, on the 22d of May, 1868, make the following Declaration of Principles:

THE GUARANTEE BY CONGRESS OF EQUAL SUFFRAGE.

The guaranty by Congress of Equal Suffrage to all loyal men at the South was demanded by every consideration of public safety, of justice, and of the honor of the Nation.

THE NATIONALITY OF THE COUNTRY.

We denounce all forms of Repudiation as a national crime, and the national platform requires the payment of the public debt in the utmost good faith to all creditors at home and abroad.

It is due to the labor of the Nation that taxation should be equalized, and that the rates of taxation should be uniform.

THE NATIONALITY OF THE COUNTRY.

The National Debt, contracted, as it has been, for the preservation of the Union for the purpose of redemption, and it is the duty of Congress to reduce the rate of interest thereon, whenever it can be done without injury to the Nation.

THE NATIONALITY OF THE COUNTRY.

The Government of the United States should be administered with the strictest economy, and the corruption which has been so shamefully misused and abused, should be promptly reformed.

THE NATIONALITY OF THE COUNTRY.

We profoundly deplore the untimely and tragic death of Abraham Lincoln, and regret the accession to the Presidency of Andrew Johnson, who has been so unjustly and so unwisely elected.

THE SLAUGHTER OF SHAME.

The following is a special despatch from Chicago to the N. Y. Commercial Advertiser: "Chicago, May 28.—The knowledge that Senator Wade's nomination as Vice-President by the National Convention at Chicago, on the 22d of May, 1868, was virtually withdrawn from the contest."

THE SLAUGHTER OF SHAME.

Negotiations for votes on the impeachment were proclaimed as unblissfully as if they were negotiations for corn or cattle. Between who was this ill-regulated "pandering" who undertakes to vote for impeachment and acquit Lincoln? And who offers such votes for sale? In any such negotiations are really going on, the country has a right to know the names of the parties to them.

THE SLAUGHTER OF SHAME.

There is pretty general inquiry as to the names of the Chicago Convention, which offices they filled, what committees they were on, and what special reference to them. The reporters seem to have ignored their existence entirely.

THE SLAUGHTER OF SHAME.

By private advices from Chicago, we learn that the telegraph has committed another of its unaccountable blunders in giving the names of the distinguished nominees of the Radical Convention. The gentlemen actually nominated are as follows: For President, Gen. U. S. Grant; for Vice President, Hon. Schuyler O. Garrison.

POLITICAL PARAGRAPHS.

Ben Wade don't receive quite so many letters now from anxious office-seekers, as he did.

POLITICAL PARAGRAPHS.

The Democratic ticket in Cumberland, Md., recently, the Democratic ticket was elected without opposition. What a healthy place that must be to live in!

POLITICAL PARAGRAPHS.

Ex-Governor Bigler, of California, and Ex-Governor Bigler, of Pennsylvania, both of whom were the main candidates to the Democratic National Convention.

POLITICAL PARAGRAPHS.

Still another committee has waited on Gov. Seymour to learn his intentions, and has been told that under no circumstances will he accept a nomination for the Presidency.

POLITICAL PARAGRAPHS.

A Republican lawyer in New Haven is credited with the remark that "the evidence against President Johnson is not enough to justify sending a vicious boy to the reform school."

POLITICAL PARAGRAPHS.

The Louisville Journal says that most men, rather than have been guilty of what he calls "the crime of the century," would rather be hanged to the gallows.

POLITICAL PARAGRAPHS.

The Democracy of Williamsport, Lycoming county, achieved a grand victory last week. Dr. Logan, Democrat, was elected mayor by about 300 majority—a gain of nearly 100 votes.

POLITICAL PARAGRAPHS.

The Cincinnati Commercial's Chicago telegraphic correspondent, in describing the contest for Vice-president, says: "Mr. Wilson's prohibitory liquor speeches are being quoted against him, and have already defeated him." Has it come to this, that the fact of being a temperance man is sufficient to cause his defeat in the National Convention of a party which claims to hold an exclusive patent on "great moral ideas"?

POLITICAL PARAGRAPHS.

Poor Wade! Repudiated at home, his State elected a Democratic Legislature which has chosen Judge Thurman to fill the place soon to be vacated by him in the Senate.

POLITICAL PARAGRAPHS.

Looking to the honors of the Presidency through the infamous avenue of impeachment by false charges, and now his party have been defeated, the wretched man is carried off in a sedan chair, and is being carried off in a sedan chair, and is being carried off in a sedan chair.

POLITICAL PARAGRAPHS.

All the able men who in the past days of the Republican party were its trusted leaders—Seward, Chase, Fremont, Fessenden, Trumbull, Charles Francis Adams, Andrew Johnson—have become alienated that they will probably never act with the party again.

POLITICAL PARAGRAPHS.

A party which has thus lost its brains has no chance of success. It will be a little while before the spasmodic energy of an epidemic fit; it will convulse it, will from at the mouth, it will dash its head against the pavement; but such activity is formidable only to itself, and tends to shorten its days.

POLITICAL PARAGRAPHS.

The apparent unanimity of the nomination of General Grant is of no political significance. Clay was nominated by acclamation, and with the same unanimity by the Whig convention in 1844, while the Democratic Convention of the same year elected Fremont as much about as to a candidate as Clay was nominated the party of 1868.

POLITICAL PARAGRAPHS.

It is admitted on all hands that the Chicago Convention was a most corrupt body, and that delegates to it sold their votes as a marketable commodity. The Chicago correspondent of the Cincinnati Commercial, a respectable paper, thus speaks of it: "The fact of being a temperance man is sufficient to cause his defeat in the National Convention of a party which claims to hold an exclusive patent on 'great moral ideas'?"

POLITICAL PARAGRAPHS.

The Louisiana delegation will reply to a charge of corrupt use of money, one of the Southern delegates was poor men, and the Southern delegates were poor men, and the Southern delegates were poor men.

POLITICAL PARAGRAPHS.

The Chicago Times gives the following general description of the Radical National Convention: "From opening to close, it has been emphatically a tame affair. It has failed to elicit any cordial response from the popular heart. Like the accidental nomination for nomination for an office for which he is unfit by nature, by education, by experience, by lack of brains, it has been a cold, dull, listless, spiritless, stupid affair, and a disgrace to the human race."
