Depart. it has become so common a plan for Repub-licans to thrust their politics forward upon all occasions, that it is doubtful at times whether they really appreciate the indecorum of their conduct. Our object is to avoid unpleasant feeling in future, and this can only be done by keeping the celebration within the strict limits marked out at its origin.

AWFUL DISASTER ON THE LAKE.-The sidewheel steamer Morning Star, carrying forty passengers, a crew of thirty, and two hundred tons of iron, which left Cleveland on Saturday evening, came into collision with the barge Cortland, loaded with iron ore, and having a crew of thirteen, bound for the same city, at about eleven o'clock o that night, and both vessels sunk in less than ten minutes. The night was dark, and a heavy wind was blowing, which made the Lake very rough, and rendered the situation of the passengers and crew unusually critical. Many of them clung to the boats and floating pieces, but some twenty or thirty.were lost. The steamer R. N. Rice came along between three and four o'clock on Sunday morning, and rescued all that could be found. James Morton, Clerk of the Morning Star, lost his life in attempting to save a lady passenger. Among those lost are some six or eight ladies, two of whom, the Misses Patchen, of Troy, N. Y., had been to Cleveland to attend the wedding of a friend, and were extending their tour to Detroit, on a visit to relatives in that city.

Tite Democrats of nearly every city in the Union are preparing for a magnificent ratification of the Democratic nominations on the Saturday following the meeting of the National Convention. We trust Eric will not consent to be behind any of her sister cities in zealous and patriotic devotion to the cause. Our city club has been organized some months, and we suggest that it could adopt no more effective plan of opening the campaign than to get up a rousing meeting on Saturday evening of next week. The masses stand ready to respond with enthusiasm to any calls that may be made upon them, and only await the initiatory action of our leading spirits to rally around the old banner with an alacrity surpassing the most memorable era of our political history. It has been proposed that a meeting be held on Tuesday evening next, to make the needful sidered. If this The match game of base ball between the just dues, simply because stays and delays time in the vicinity of zero, the thermometer suggestion meets with the favor of the party, we trust to see a movement at once inaugurated that will bring the active men together, and secure that harmonious co-operation which alone can render the meeting a suc-ce-s. Tim Radicals of our neighboring district are in their usual biennial stew over a nomince for Congress. Each county presents a candidate of its own, viz: Crawford, S. Newton Pettis; Clarion, Geo. W. Lathy; Mercer, W. T. McAdam; Venango, G. W. Gilfillan; and each insists that its particular man shall be chosen. To make "confusion worse confounded," Clarion has passed a resolution instructing its delegates to support no candidate from Crawford or Mercer, and the two latter, in retaliation, vow that in no event shall Clarion draw the prize. Venango sits calmly looking on, a disinterested spectator, not caring a fig "whether the man licks the bear or the bear licks the man," and pretty sure that whichever way the struggle terminates, it will enure to her advantage. The strife between the other counties renders the nomination almost sure to fall upon her candidate, though it is not improbable that, as in Culver's case, a new man may be taken up as a compromise. There are a few uncharitable enough to hint that the longest purse will win in the end.

RADICAL CANDIDATES .- The primary elections of the Radical party of this county will be held on Saturday, July 11th, and as the rules require candidates to be announced three weeks beforehand, it is now too late for any clude from membership in the Soldiers' and more to enter the canvass. The soldiers of the Crawford Congressional district have appointed Maj. John B. Clark (formerly of Eric) and General A. B. McCalmont as delegates to the Fourth of July Convention, with Capt. J. A. THE Meadville Republican suggests Thos. W. Grayson, Esq., editor of the Crawford Democra as the candidate of our party for Congress in that district. We do not know what the programme is in our neighboring county, but we are very sure that the Democratic party could not make a better choice than to take up our friend Grayson as its reproach, his Democracy of the staunchest against him. A Congress composed of such men as Thos. W. Grayson would soon bring nominee. His personal character is beyond sort, and his ability equal at least to that of any candidate who is likely to be pitted scare would be a decided benefit to the comback our Government to the pure, economical and patriotic principles on which it was established. JUDGE SCOPIELD'S Committee on Elections has added another to the petty tricks which have given it such an unenviable reputation over the country. At the election for Congressmen in 'Kentucky, John D. Young, Democrat, was successful by 1,200 votes over Samuel McKee, his Radical opponent. Regardless of this heavy majority, the Committee have reported in favor of McKee's admission, and the House, as a matter of course, has sustained the report. The only ground for keeping Young out of the seat to which he was justly entitled, was that he is not "trooly loil." Scofield's course in this and the Morgan case should unite the Democracy of the district as one man in a firm determination to use every honorable effort for his defeat. THE Democratic Convention of Venango county unanimously endorsed Mr. Pendleton G. A. R., in this city, E. R. Chapman, Lock as their first choice for President, and adopt-

Though we've no particular fancy for wherein liens have been filed than was allowed by the old act. The new bill will be being roasted alive, we prefer a little foreof great importance to mechanics, who have taste of what's in store for us hereafter, to in many instances, heretofore, been comthe cheerless kind of weather of last month. nelled to wait an unreasonable time for their inity of zero, the ther were permitted by the acts under which their has recently jumped straight from freezing point to summer heat. The only reasonable objection to this is, that we did not have a THE City Councils have authorized the islittle warning; time enough, for instance, to sue of fifty thousand dollars' worth of addi- remove our winter clothing with moderate tional water bonds, and provided that they haste, without tearing our-shirt. But such are not to be sold for less than eighty-five is life. Since the impeachment flasco, there has cents on the dollar. This makes three hundred thousand dollars of bonds issued in all been little stir here, either in political, religious or business circles. Even Butler's smelling committee clicits little applause from the loud-mouthed impeachers, who, during works according to the plans they have de the trial, were busy writing letters to Chief Justice Chase and numerous Senators, urging the President's conviction. We know two or three of this class who have been very ill and confined to their rooms since the announcement of the vote. The shock was too much for such delicate constitutions. The recreant seven should have let them down a little easier. The double-and-twisted, green-back and gold-front, non-committal Chicago platform was received here in silence. Not an amen was heard save in the wee, small voice of the Commercial Advertiser. Whether the absence of an impeachment plank, which might have been cut from the immense saw-log editorials of the New York Tribune, had anything to do with this would not be hard to guess. We onine that the ultras feel sold. yet why should they? Do they not know that these moderate men, whose words savor a little of honey but more of "soft soap," are Radicals as well as themselves? "By their works shall ye know them." After election is over, will they not all join hands in voting to Africanize the South and govern the country by military satraps.? Probably no campaign has ever been opened with so much apathy on the part of the people, and no Presidential ticket as supposedly popular as the one nominated by the Radical party has ever been received with less enthusiasm. The unpromising business prospect, together with the equally unfavorable prospect of a reduction of the expenses of the Government and the consequent heavy burden of taxation, combine to produce this depression. The people have lost all sympathy with the party in power, and until after the New York Convention little interest will be manifested in the coming

Grant's nomination, which was expected to set the country wild with excitement, failed to raise a breeze here. Not a trace of natural joy was visible anywhere. Not a leaf or mouse stirred. A few boys assembled in the Park to amuse themselves by firing off a small gun, but the rain soon dampened even their ardor, and the passers by seemed to shake their heads as much as to say, "a false alarm." No effort has been spared to get up enthusiasm for Grant and Cold-facts, and induce somebody to say something in favor of the ticket, but they all "talk horse" or speculate as to the probable nominee of the New York Convention, who, it is taken for granted, is certain to be elected. A monstrons Grant ratification meeting was projected for last week. By dint of industrious advertising, of which the Courier performed its share gratuitiously, and with the aid of a Band, several bon-fires and the inevitable small gun, St. James' Hall was comfortably filled. As a natural consequence of the Courier's advertising, probably full half the assemblage was Democrats, who simply went to hear what could be said in favor of making "the General of our armies? President. Never did we attend a political meeting so utterly devoid of which elicited any applause, were those of the ismented Lincoln and Gen. McClellan. This, very likely, came from the Democratic bortion of the audience. President Johnson, of course, came in for his share of the invective. One speaker pronounced him, several times, "the cause of all our ills," which is decidedly good. A leading feature on this occasion, market on Wednesday morning at ten and was what the Express facetiously terms the procession (!), comprised wholly of six men, enthusiasm. The only names, the mention of with leather aprons, bearing a banner, and two small boys, one of whom was remorse lessly beating a kettle drum. This party attracted some attention as they ascended the platform, and the query at once suggested rials and locals, and talks Democracy pure itself, "what mean these aprons?" They might represent the sturdy, strong-armed perity that its tasty and enterprising proprie- blacksmith, or more likely, so many buck sheep aproped and ready to be turned loose new Democratic papers are springing up in with the flock. However, the question was soon settled, as upon their banner was printed the words, "Grant's pioneer tabners of Buffalo."

> The Chase movement had some advocates here, and, altogether, it has been treated as a subject worthy of consideration, yet, I doubt, if any considerable number of the Democratic party seriously regard his nomination either desirable as a stroke of policy or possible on the score of principle and consistency. Whatever may be the opinion as to treating certain questions as irrevocably settled, there are points upon which the Chief Justice and the Democratic party widely differ. That the latter cannot go over is certain : and that the former will not come over is, judging from his past life, probable; moreover, if he should, would it be safe or expedient to select him as our standard bearer?

Business is dull, remarkably dull, with slight or no prospect of a change until after election.

Just now, our people are deeply interested in base ball. The recent victory of the Niagara's over the famous Atlantic's of Brookiyn, has created more interest in the game than has ever been manifested here. Like the impeachment trial, the result of this game has been ascribed to "corruption," or corrupt influence, but if we are any judge, and we think we are, the game was fairly won; though we would not undertake to say that the Niagara's would find pleasant exercise in trying to repeat the thing often. This little success has made plenty of "business" for the club. Challenges pour in from every direction. One is now under consideration from the Union's, of Lansingburg, and one has been accepted from the renowned Athletic's, of Philadelphia, for Saturday next. Hartz was here last week and drew crate houses during his stay. Prestidigitation is at a heavy discount now. Since the advent of Grant, the occupation of Heller Hartz and the rest is gone. The political sphynx has disgusted the people wi thing in that line.

GORDON'S HORSE HOE.

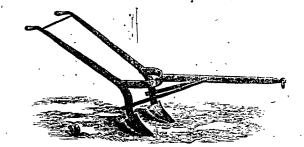

AS IMPROVED FOR 1868.

HAVING made very important improvements on the Horse Hoc, manufactured for us during the past four years, we are enabled to present to our patrons the most complete implement for cultivating corn, potatoes, cotton, and all hill crops, ever introduced to the farming community. As now made, the back teeth are reversible, and not removed for hilling as upon the old style Horse Hoe, thereby making it a complete cultivator and hillier at the same timer, but when hilling is not required, the wings are removed from the toeth.

By this arrangement, wider rows may be hillied than with the wings placed upon the showels. It is made of the best quality of steel and highly polished, and superfor to any other cultivator on account of its lightness, (weighing about 3) pounds,) durability, cheapness and adaptation to all kinds of work.

ALLIANCE SHOVEL PLOW.

We would call your attention to our DOUBLE SHOVEL PLOW, which we think, without loubt, excels anything now in market, for the purpose designed. Its principal points of excelence are, that it is WROUGHT IRON FRAME, very light and strong—steel shovels—easily adasted to run shallow or deep, and is neatly and tastefully made.
