Eric, July 2, 1868-21.

WE hope our friends throughout the coun ty will not fail to adopt immediate steps for ratifying the New York nominations in some appropriate manner as soon after they are made as possible. In politics, as in everything else, a great deal depends upon the right kind of a start. The popular disposition is in our favor, and if we open the campaign in a spirit that betokens our confidence in success, we will at once fally to our support all that large element which makes a practice of going on the winning side. A W. JUDGE SCOFIELD AGAIN

[From the Harr. Jurg Patriot.] It will be remembered that in May, 1867 John D. Young (Democrat) was elected to Congress from the Ninth district of Kentucky by the following vote : For Young, 9,042 ; for amuel McKee (Radical), 7,536; for T. M. Green (Ind. Democrat), 862; Young's majo rity over McKee, 1,479; over both opponents, 617. Mr. Young presented his credentials at the special session of Congress last summer. but was not sworn in. Early in the present session he was rejected on a false and flimsy charge of disloyalty. The Committee on Elec man has taken occasion to see and advise with the prominent men of each locality, tions, of which G. W. Scofield is chairman and the following names have been furnished | made a report against Young as unfit to take him as among the most efficient persons for his seat, " because he had given aid and comthe circumstances there is nothing seriously the purpose desired. We will simply state that the programme has been carefully prepared, that all classes ot our citizens have exhibited a gratifying zeal in promoting the plans of the committee, and that one of the most interesting oc casions which has ever taken place in the North-West is confidently expected. From what we can learn, the people from nearly all sections of the county are preparing to visit Erie on the Fourth, and the probabilities are that the attendance will be greater than upon any anniversary of Independence day that has been celebrated in our city for many years,

An unusually fine opportunity to purchase splendid farm is offered in the advertisement of Thos. Mellon, Esq., of North East. He will dispose of his property on the Lake Shore R.
