HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS,

Hooffand's German Tonic, The great Remodles for all Diseases of the Liver Stomach or Digestive Organs.

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS Is composed of the pure juices (or, as they are medicinally termed, Herbs and Barks, tion highly concentree from alcoholic kind.

Hoofland's German Tonic

is a combination of all the ingredients of the Bitters, with the purest quality of Santa Ciuz-Rum, Orange, etc., making one of the most pleasant and agreeable remedies ever offered to the public.

Those preferring a Medicine, free from Alcoholic admixture, will use HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS Those who have no objection to the combina ion of the Bitters, as stated, will use HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC.

They are both equally good, and contain the same medicinal virtues, the choice between the two being a mere matter of taste, the Tonic being the most palastable.

The stomach, from a variety of causes, such as Indigestion, Dysbellity, etc., is very tions deranged. The Oliver, sympathizing as closely as it does with the Stomach, then becomes affected, the result of which is that the patient suffers from several or more of the following diseases:

Constination, Flatulence, Inward Phés, Full-ness of Blood to the Head, Acidity of the Stom-ach, Nausca, Heartburn, Disgust for Food, Full-ness or Weight in the Stomach, Sour Fructa-tions, Sinking or Fluttering- at the Pit'of the Stomach, Swimming of the Head, Hurried or Difficult Breathing, Fluttering at the Heart, Choking or Suffocating Sensations when in a lying posture, Dimness of Vision, bots or Webs before the Sight, Dull Pain in the Head, Defi-ciency of Perspiration, Yellowness of the Skiu and Eyes, Pain in the Side, Back, Chest, Limbs, etc., Sudden Flushes of Heat, Burning of the Flesh, Constant Imaginings of Evil and Great Depression of Spirits.

PROVISIONS, YANKEE NOTIONS,

EARTHENVARE,
CHOICENEWFRUITS, &C.

The sufferer from these diseases should exercise the greatest caution in the selection of a remedy for his case, purchasing only that which he is as overligations and infully compounded is free from injurious ingredients and has established that our prices are lower than those of any other house in the trade.

HOOFLANDS

GERMAN BITTERS.

HOOFLAND'S

GERMAN TONIC.

Carpet & Dry Goods House Prepared by DR. C. M. JACKSON, Philadelphia, Pa.

> Twenty-two years since they were first introdueed into this country from Germany, during which time they have undoubtedly performed more cures, and hencilited suffering humanity to a greater extent, than any other remedies known to the public.

These remedies will effectually cure Liver Complaint, Jaundice, or Nervous Debility, Diseases of the Kides arising from a dissistant or Intestines.

These remedies will effectually cure Liver Complete DEBILITY, ng from any cause whatever: Prostra-n of the System, induced by Severe Labor, Hardships, Exposure, Fevers, Etc.

There is no medicine extant equal to these remedies in such cases. A tone and vigor is imparted to the whole system, the appetite is strengthened, food is enjoyed, the stomach digests promptly, the blood is purified, the complexion becomes sound and healthy, the yellow tinge is eradicated from the eyes, a bloom is given to the checks, and the weak and nervous invalid becomes a strong and healthy being. Persons advanced in life, and feeling the hand of time weighling heavily upon them, with all its attendant ills, will find in the use of this BITTERS, or the TONIC, an clusir that will instill new life into their veins, restore in a measure the energy and ardor of more youthful days, build up their shrunken forms, and give health and happiness to their remaining years.

Campaign Song. ling out the flag, its folds of white

Fling out the flag, its folds of white
Bear nothing but a laurel wreath;
Beneath it, marshaled in their might;
Behold! the white men and their chief.
From North and South, from East and West,
They come, as thick as ocean's sand,
Prepared the issue now to test;
If black or white shall rule the land.

Let despots strike and bigots rave,
Their bolts pass harmless from the shields
Of men whose life-blood, like a wave,
Has watered many ensanguined fields.
Fling out the flag of purest white;
Stamped with the laurel of the free;
Our Segment's back row white the latest O'er Seymour's head now shines the light That cheers us on to victory.

Shall we supinely yield our States
To realots and barbarian sway,
Bow tamely down to adverse fates
Of moments born, of life a day?
Not while the current in our veins
Bounds quick with fair Caucasian blood;
As well try ston, with pulling dains As well try stem, with paltry chains The rush of old Ningara's flood.

To the people of the city of New York: "A riotous demonstration in your city, ori-ginated in opposition to the conscription of soldiers for the military service of the United States, has swelled into vast proportions, directing its fury against the property and lives of peaceful citizens. I know that many of those who have participated in these proceedings would not have allowed themselves to these who have participated in these proceedings would not have allowed themselves to be carried to such extremes of violence and of wrong, except under an apprehension of injustice; but such persons are reminded that the only opposition to the conscription which can be allowed is an appeal to the courts.

"The right of every citizen to make such an appeal will be maintained, and the decision of the courts must be respected and obeyed by rulers and people alike. No other course is consistent with the maintenance of the laws, the peace and order of the city, and the safety of its inhabitants.

"Riotous proceedings must and shall be put down. The laws of the state of New York must be enforced, its peace and order maintained, and the lives and property of all its citizens protected at any and every-hazard. The rights of every citizen will be properly guarded and defended by the chief magistrate of the State.

I do therefore call upon all persons engaged in these riotous proceedings to retire to their homes and employments, declaring to them that unless they do so at once I shall use all the power necessary to restore the order and peace of the city. I also call upon all well disposed persons, not enrolled for the preservation of order, to pursue their ordinary avocations.

In connection with this subject, we also find the following in the N. Y. "Commercial Advertiser" of June 22, 1863, a Radical journal during the war and now, and at present engaged in calling Gov. Seymour a "copperhead," &c.:

"Who Soaped The Horn?—No doubt most people are familiar with the story of the fellow soaping the clergyman's horn at camp meeting, so that when he went to call the congregation together he blew the soft soap over his brother clergymen; he exclaimed: "Brethren, I have served the Lord thirty years, and during that time never uttered a profane word, but I'll be d—d if I can't whip the man that soaped this horn." Some two days after a tall, swarthy, yillainous looking desperado strolled on the grounds and leaned against a tree, listening to an exhortant of the Mob.
