White Men Must Rule America.

CLUBS FOR 1868...CLUBS FOR 1868.

The Best New York Weekly Published.

NEW YORK DAY BOOK! FOR 1868.

The New York Day-Book is a straightforward Radical Democratic paper, with a larger circulation than any other Democratic journal ever published on this continent, and it enters on the threshold of 1869 more prosperous and more hopeful of the great cause it upholds than ever before. Standing on the Declaration of Independence, that "all (white) men are equal," and therefore entitled to equal rights, it is opposed to all forms and degrees of special legislation that conflict with this grand central truth of Democracy, and over all and above all, does it combat that monstrous treason to American liberty, which, thrusting the negro element into our necessity just so many steps towards national suicide; and the simple and awful problem now upon us is just this—shall we recover our reason and retrace our steps, of march on to Mongrelism, social anarchy, and the total ruin of our country.

The Day Book, therefore, demands the restoration of the "Union as it was"—a Union of coequal States upon the white basis, as the only hope, and the only means possible under heaven for saving the grand ideas of 1776, and the fundamental priciples of American liberty, and if the real freemen, and the earnest believers in that sacred and glorious cause in which the men of the Revolution offered up their lives, will now labor to expose the ignorance, delusion and treason of the Mongrel party, it will succeed, and the white Republic of Washington be restored again in all its original influence and grandeur.

The Day Book will, however, hereafter be more than ever devoted to all the varied purposes of a news paper. Conscious that it reaches thousands of families who take no other journal, beyond perhaps their local paper; it will continue and improve its "News of the Week" Summary, so as to present a transcript of the World's events in each issue. Its "Family Department" will embrace the best original and selected stories. Its "Agricultural Department" will be fully sustained, and being the only paper of its class made up expressly for country circulation, it is confident it is worth double the price of a weekly hurriedly reprinted from a daily. It gives full and complete reports of the New York and Albany Cattle Markets; Grain, Provisions and Cotton Markets, and a Weekly review of Financial matters, together with the markets, by telegraph, from New Orleans, Cairo, Charleston, Philadelphia, &c., &c., up to time of going to press.

"THE WORLD."

At the opening of the year 1868, "The World" challenges, more confidently than ever, the sympathy and support of all patriotic citizens. A glorious work has been gloriously begun. Deep already answers deep. The long fidelity of this journal to the cause of liberty protected by law stands nobly vindicated in a splendor of victory shining from Maine to California. Connecticut, Ohio, Pennsylvania, New Jersey, New York have thundered forth their verdict upon the misrule and madness of the past. But much more remains to be done. Never was the peril of the country greater. The Radical party still decrees the death of representative self-government in ten sovereign States. Armed with military despotism and wholesale Negro suffrage, it desperately grasps at a permanent lease of power, in defiance of public opinion, at the cost of enormous taxes and of crippled industries, at the cost of Union and Peace.

To the great battle still to be fought "The World" will give all its efforts, its energies. It asks of its friends in their turn as much; it asks of them more readers and a wider influence. It asks this with confidence in its claims as a newspaper and as an organ of opinion.

The chief use of a Newspaper is to give its readers

ALL THE NEWS.

For this the facilities of "The World" are unsurpassed by any journal in the United States. It seeks to excel by an accuracy, and candor, a spirit and freshness in its news columns which shall commend it to readers of whatever party, sex, creed or place.

As an organ of opinion "The World" is the unflinching champion of whereof the corner stone is Freedom restrained by Justice; Freedom pure and simple, in the largest collective measure; the ethics of Justice being to protect Freedom from encroachments; Freedom of the individual citizen in his rights of thought, speech, religion and locomotion; in his Right to make any money bargains, by thrifty prosper in spite of foolish statute laws; in his Right to buy and sell in all markets, domestic and foreign, in spite of unjust protective tariffs; in his Right to choose his own food and drink, in spite of prohibitive temperance laws; in his Right to representation in the legislative bodies which tax him, in spite of unconstitutional exclusions; Freedom of collective citizens to assemble for the assertion of grievances, Freedom of all lawful combinations to manage their legal affairs without central interference; Freedom in every section of the country, from the arrogant and unconstitutional combination of other sections. This large and comprehensive idea of Freedom sums up the politics of "The World," which will never be found wanting to this capital interest of the country and of the human race.

A Liberal, Progressive Democracy,

A paper published in the metropolis is naturally looked to for careful Market reports and authentic information, and intelligent discussions relating to Trade, Commerce and Finance.

In these features "The World" invites comparison with any other journal.
