> HARBOR CREEK .- A Democratic Club was organized on Saturday evening, Sept. 28th, at the school house, on Gospel Hill, in Harbor Creek township. The following officers were appointed: President, Thomas Kendrick; Vice President, Charles Bliley; Secretary, J. R. Smith: Treasurer, Samuel L. Potter. The Constitution and by-laws used by the North East Club were adopted. The Club was addressed by, H. L. White, Esq., and Capt. John H. Miller, of this city. Mr. White's remarks were confined mainly to the financial questions of the day, which he discussed with a good deal of force, while Capt. Miller made some telling points, showing that although he might be a good military man, Gen. Grant was not a safe person to put in the Presidential chair. This is the first Democratic Club ever organized in the township, and the meeting was well attend-White's remarks were confined mainly to ed by some of its best citizens. Surraising Proceedings.—The employees of the Erie & Pittsburgh R. R. shops, fully armed and couloped, marched to the residence of Mr. W. Murray, late supervisor of the works, on Monday evening of last week, and without any ceremony proceeded to give him a "little piece of their mind" about the way he had treated them, and managed the company's business. After seizing complete possession of the premises, and barring all egress to Mr. Murray, Mr. P. McGuinnés, who had been appointed for the purpose, took out of his pocket the indictment which had been prepared and read it, as follows:

"Mn. MURRAY-Dear Sir :- Will you please accept this token of the friendship fellowards you by the Eric & Pittsburgh Railroad Shop employees lately under your su-pervision, as 'timely' evidence that your con-stant kindness and courtesy in both an official nd personal sense have not been unthought of or unappreciated. It has been your duty to watch us; it is now our privilege and pleasure to watch you. The 'face' we show and the 'hands' we extend to you are meant to keep true time; this is no 'second hand' expression of our feelings, and we hope to take 'minutes' of your daily progress in whatever 'round' of duties you may undertake. With pleasant recollections of our past intercourse and best wishes for your future welfare, we remain your friends."

This happy conclusion of the proceedings took Mr. Murray by complete surprise, and after accepting the watch in a speech of thanks, he threw open the hospitalities of in the city. How, then, can Mr. Butterfield his residence to the party without reserve.

THE KNAPP AND BIRD CASES .- The much talked of cases against Chas. L. Knapp and Mary L. Knapp, his wife—the former charged with committing the extensive larcenies that have transpired in this section, and the latter with being the recipient of the stolen goods-and George Bird, accused of being an accessory to the same, were disposed of by the Court last week. Mrs. Knapp was released on some technical point, and immediately arrested on a warrant from Crawford county, charging her with grave offences there. The jury failed to agree in Bird's case and he was allowed to go free. THE Secretary of the Commonwealth, in reply to a communication on the subject, expresses it as his opinion that as the law disfranchising deserters has never been repealed, it must be included by the Sheriffs in their election proclamations. He adds that "the decision of the Supreme Court decided the law unconstitutional so far as relates to deserters who have never been tried by court martial, but leaves the law in full force to such as have been tried." As the right of the Legislature to disfranchise a person who has been tried and convicted by court martial was never brought into question before the Supreme Court, we think the Secretary's position correct. The state of affairs at pres ent is as follows: Deserters who have never been tried by Court Martial have the same right to vote that they always had, but those who have been convicted by due legal promitting suicide. On Sunday, he made a cess are deprived of the privilege of franchise. The plan of our North East friends is a good one, and we recommend it to the adoption of clubs every where. stump. THE Democrats of South Eric raised handsome hickory pole in front of the Nataional Hotel, on Wednesday afternoon of this week. The attendance was large, and the best of feeling prevailed. Col. J. Ross Thompson delivered a fine speech, which was heartily applauded. We are anxious to announce all meetings held in the county and adjacent towns, and if notice of any fails to appear, it is because we have received no information of them from the proper officers.

WE caution our friends not to deceive themselves with the impression that the apathy which characterized the Radical ranks up to within a recent period will continue throughout the campaign. That party has a peculiar way of appearing half asleep until within a month or so of the election. when they usually manage in this section to get up a series of demonstrations of the liveliest character. During the last couple weeks the Radical leaders in this and the adjoining counties have been laboring night and day to get their forces in good working order, and we are led to believe that the campaign on their part for the next month will be unusually active. In this county and Warren. meetings are being held in every school district, all the party stump speakers are being called into requisition, and no means are to be left untried to keep up the majorities which they had during the war. It is well for the Democrats to know these facts, so that they may be prepared to pursue the right course to counteract the efforts of their political enemies.

Judge Brown, our candidate for Congress passed through the city on Monday, upon his way to Pittsburgh, where he is called by important professional duties. The Judge is ooking exceedingly well, and his mild and courteous manners win the esteem of all who meet him. We regret that the pressing nature of his business obligations prevents him from taking an active part in the canvass, and visiting the people in person. While he shirks none of the responsibilities connected with the nomination, he is free to say that he has no taste for political life, and would greatly have preferred the selection for Congress to have fallen upon some other person. The people will not fail to contrast the modesty which impels him to refrain from seeking official honors with the ambition and greediness of his competitor, and cast their votes accordingly.

THE Eric Academy will open for the fall A. H. Caughey, Esq., as principal, with a corps of well selected assistants. The writer is the Catholic' priest at Elizabethtown, Laneaster county: "Sir :- I noticed an item in your issue of last week, stating that the late Thad. Stevens did not desire to be baptized. Permit me to inform you that said statement is entirely false. Mr. Stevens did desire to be baptized, was baptized and died a Catholic. "Yours, &c.," "J. J. Mellyane."

> IF Judge Scofield gave his note to Mr. John H. Walker for one thousand dollars, payable on the 13th of October next, would he pay it, when due, in greenbacks or gold?" From the way he talks, one would suppose he would insist upon giving fourteen hundred dollars instead of the thousand. 'If he would not do this, why should the Government pay of our money fourteen hundred dollars to the holder of a bond who only paid the Government tour hundred dollars in gold?

THE editors of the Titusville Herald were pole is to be raised on Saturday next, at last week arrested for libel, in publishing an editorial statement and a communication charging the "Anglo-American Oil Company" with being a "swindle." The managers of the corporation are mostly residents or nersons well known in our city, and they allege the statements of the Herald to be scandalously false. They appear resolved to fore, we are informed, was a slim affair, press the suit against the Herald to the full

THE Irish Republican Club will hold meeting at the hall over French & Mc-Knight's store on Wednesday evening, the 2d inst. All Irishmen and all friends of human liberty, are requested to be present, to deliberate on the issues of the day.—Dispatch.

For the purpose of explanation, and in order to avoid misunderstanding, it may be well to say that the above is merely a jobe, got up by the city editor as a counterballine for the scarcity of local items. The number hausen and Benj. Whitman will be the of Irish Republicans in the city is too small speakers. The former will deliver his re- to fillen ordinary sized market basket.

THERE is a child named Annie Stancliff. in McKean township, less than two years 'old whose head is 27 inches in circumference. The skull bones are senarated at the middle of the head, a space of three inches intervening. The skin of the head is as tightly drawn as'a drum, and "the head itself nearly transparent." The child has been "subject to fits from her birth, and at the age of seven months her head commenced enlarging, increasing until it attained its present monstrous size." The doctors think her life cannot be prolonged much longer.

Bisnor Mullen has purchased three city lots on the north-west corner of Tenth and Sassafras streets with the object of erecting a magnificent cathedral upon them, which shall be surpassed by few in the country. The location is one of the finest in the city. The price paid for the ground is $13,100, and the building will probably cost not less than $100,000. Its completion will make four Catholic church edifices, each one with a larger capacity than either of the Protestant structures, inside of the limits of Eric and South Eric.

WE notice among the most active Radical speakers in the county the name's of Hon. I. B. Gara, Deputy Secretary of the Commonwealth, and Gen.D. B. McCreary, Adjutant General. Both these distinguished and highly respectable gentlemen are paid large salaries out of the people's treasury, and the common supposition is, that they receive the same as a recompense for arduous services rendered the State at Harrisburg. It would seem, however, that this is a mistaken impression, as one has devoted a month or more to stump speaking, and the other is at home a large share of the time, attending to his professional duties. How long would a man employ another in his private business, who followed the same course?

C. M. Duncan, Esq., has been nominated or Senator in the Adams and Franklin district. Mr. Duncan was fairly elected three years ago, but was turned out of his seat by the Radical majority. How this was done may be judged, when it is known that a prominent Radical Senator afterwards said, prominent Radical Senator afterwards said, in a fit of passion, speaking of McConaughy, to whom Mr. Duncan's seat had been awarded, "I perjured myself to give that d—d scoundrel his seat." Mr. Duncan is a gentleman of fine abilities, a good speaker and an excellent business man. He will be elected by such a majority that the Radicals will not dare to unseat him.—Lancaster Intelliancer.

A great many people about these parts are auxious to know who the Senator is that 'neriured" himself "to give that d---d scoundrel a scat." Can our estimable friend, Mr. Morrow B. Lowry, explain?

THE Journal, a paper started at Titusville, by the Democrats of that city, after a fluctuating career as daily, weekly and tri-weekly, has at length yielded to inevitable fate, and given up the ghost. It was a foolish experiment at best to undertake to build up a paper where there was not sufficient support to keep it alive, and we foresaw from the start term on Monday next, under the control of policy for Democrats to establish any more after. Now, this man has voted with that wards strengthening those they already have, we sincerely hope that Mr. Caughey will be One good paper in a county is worth more others in the same vicinity, who have for-

> Among the many monthlies in this country few occupy a better position, whether for than the Old Guard, printed by Van Evrie, the September number, the editor throws a bomb-shell into the Mongrel camp, entitled "Resistance to the Reconstruction Acts not Unconstitutional," in which he lays hare to the bone the infamy of these Acts. The paper on "Ulysses S. Grant" continues to show onclusively that the apparent success of that magnificent humbug was more the result of blunders than of strategy.

THE Atlantic Mouthly for September has or its first article a story entitled "No News," which deserves to be carefully read by every husband who is disposed to neglect his wife for younger and prettier women. It is from the pen of Miss E. Stuart Phelps. "Siberian Exiles," by Thomas W. Knox, tells some interesting facts which read much like a portion of the history of the Lincoln Adminis tration. In "The Man and the Brother" are given some curious pictures of negro character. The other articles are of the average merit which we always expect to find in the Atlantic.

WHILE Charles Mehl was boating in Misery Bay, on Saturday evening, he discovered the body of a dead man in the shallow water Information was given to the Coroner, who empannelled a jury, and a verdict was returned of "Found drowned." The deceased was an unfortunate German named Philir and felt the circumstance so keenly that he is supposed to have committed suicide.

The new Radical Congressional Conference in the Crawford district, called by the dissatisfied portion of the party, met in Franklin on Monday. The name of Mr. Johnson. the former nomince, was withdrawn, and on the 20th ballot C W Gilfillan of Venange was nominated, and the choice then made unanimous. Whether this movement will tend to harmonize the party or not, remains to be seen.

THE Corry Democratic Club, at its meeting on the 21st of August, adopted a resolution without a dissenting vote, "that we will unanimously support the ticket nominated at the late Co. Convention," and requested that it should appear in the Observer. The letter communicating it to us says, "the cause in Corry is progressing finely."

REV. M. WERTZEL, pastor of the Jewish congregation in this city, having accepted a well sermon on Saturday next, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon, to which the public generally are invited. He has been a faithful pastor and good citizen, and his departure will be generally regretted.

THE Warren Mail says the meeting adlressed by Hon. I. B. Gara, in that borough, was a "large" one. A gentleman who counted the number present informs us that they comprised sixty-two, all told. We are thus enabled to know what constitutes a "large" meeting according to Radical authority. MARRIED, in Salt Lake City, 16th inst.,

A large attendance is anticipated, and we have no doubt the occasion will be a pleasant one. Tite colored people of the city have adopted resolutions of condolence over the death of Thad. Stevens, and expressive of their "faith in the ultimate triumph of the cause" for which he labored, which, in plain words, means negro suffrage and equality...

Time curious little piece of mechanism known as "Planchette,"-is causing considerable excitement in the neighborhood of Girard and other parts of the county. Some of the communications which it furnishes are certainly very mysterious. A RADICAL paper says that in order to secure Grant's election they "must get out every voter." You can't do it, gentlemen. Some of them are in for a number of years. There's Knapp for instance. That is an old but trite maxim which

"The King governs all! The Judge gives justice to all! The soldier fights for all! The minister prays for all! But the workingman pays for all!"

WATERFORD, Aug. 31, 1864. Dear Observer :- A report has been circulated through most of the Radical papers of this county to the effect that Col. Mckay, "a what would be the result. The demise of lifelong Democrat," came out at the raising the Herald is another verification of what of the Grant and Colfax pole at Waterford, we have always preached, that it is a poor, and said he would vote with that party herenew papers, and that all their superfluous party for the last eight years, and it can be means and energies ought to be applied to proven to the satisfaction of any intelligent man.
