HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS,

Medical.

GROCERY AND PROVISION STORE, Hoofland's German Tonic, The great Remedies for all Diseases of the Liver, Stomach or Digestive Organs.

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS

Is composed of the pure juices (or, as they are medicinally termed, Herbs and Barks, tion highly concentree from alcoholic kind.

Hoofand's German Tonic Is a combination of all the ingredients of the Bitters, with the purest quality of Santa Cruz Rum, Orange, etc., making one of the most pleasant and agreeable remedies ever offered to the public.

Those preferring a Medicine, free from Alco-holic admixture, will use

WHOLESALE AND RETAIL GROCERS, HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS. Those who have no objection to the combination of the Bitters, as stated, will use HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC.

They are both equally good, and contain the same medicinal virtues, the choice between the two being a mere matter of taste, the Tonic being the most paintable.

The stomach, from a variety of causes, such as Indigestion, Dysbeility, etc., is very thon deranged. The Cliver, sympathizing as closely as it does with the Stomach, then becomes affected, the result of which is tunt the patient suffers from several or more of the following diseases:

Constipation, Flatulence, Inward Piles, Fuliness of Blood to the Head, Acidity of the Stomach, Nausen, Heartburn, Disgust for Food, Fuliness or Weight in the Stomach, Sour Eructations, Sinking or Fluttering at the Pit of the Stomach, Swimming of the Head, Hurrled or Difficult. Breathing, Fluttering at the Heart, Choking or Suffocating Sensations when in a lying posture, Dimness of Vision, Dots or Webs before the Sight, Dull Pain in the Head, Deficiency of Perspiration, Yellowness of the Skin and Eyes, Phin in the Side, Back, Chest, Limba, etc., Sudden Flushes of Heat, Burning of the Flesh, Constant Imaginings of Evil and Great Depression of Spirits.

The sufferer from these diseases should exercise the greatest caution in the selection of a remedy for his case, the property of the selection of a remedy for his case, the selection of a sured from his investigations and introduced in the compounded is free from injurious ingredients and has established for itself a reputation for the cure of these diseases. In this connection we would submit these well-known remedies—

HOOFLAND'S

GERMAN BITTERS.

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC.

DR. C. M. JACKSON.

Philadelphia, Pa. Twenty-two years since they were first introduced into this country from Hermany, during which time they have undoubtedly performed more cures, and benefitted suffering humanity to a greater extent, than any other remedies known to the public.

These remedies will effectually cure Liver Complaint, Jaundice, or Nervous Debility, Diseases of the Kides arising from a dissessionach, or Intestines. DEBILITY, Resulting from any cause whatever; Prostra-tion of the System, induced by Severe Labor, Hardships, Exposure, Pevers, Etc.

There is no medicine extant equal to these remedies in such eases. A tone and vigor is imparted to the whole system, the appetite is strengthened, food is enjoyed, the stomach digests promptly, the blood is purified, the complexion becomes sound and healthy, the yellow tings is cradicated from the eyes, a bloom is given to the cheeks, and the weak and nervous invalid becomes a strong and healthy being. Persons advanced in life, and teeling the hand of time weighling heavily upon them, with all its attendant ills, will find in the use of this BITTERS, or the TONIC, an elixir that will instil new life into their veins, restore in a measure the energy and ardor of more youthful days, build up their shrunken forms, and give health and happiness to their remaining years. which he offers very cheap for cash. He invites competition, and requests every one to call and examine before purchasing elsewhere, my 12-2a. GEO. DECITER, 1322 Peach St.

HON. JAMES THOMPSON,

Judge of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania "I consider Hoofiand's German Bitters a valuable medicine in case of attacks of Indigestion or Dyspersia. I can certify this from my experience. Yours with respect.

JAMES THOMPSON."

FROM REV. JOS. H. KENNARD, D. D. Pastor of the Tenth Baptist Church, Phile.

Pastor of the Tebus Expuss Church, rame.

Dr. Jackbox—Dear Sir:—I have frequently been requested to connect my name with recommendations of different kinds of medicines, but regarding the practice as out of my appropriate sphere, I have in all cases declined; but with a clear proof in various instances, and particularly in My own family, of the usefulness of Dr. Hoofsand's German Bitters, I depart for once from my usual course to express my full conviction that, for General Debility of the System, and especially for Liver Complaint, it is a safe and valuable preparation. In some cases it may full; but, usually, I doubt not, it will be very beneficial to those who suffer from the above cause.

FROM REV. E. D. FENDALL.

Assistant Editor Christian Chronicle, Philado I have derived decided benefit from the use of Hoofland's German Bitters, and feel it my privilege to recommend them as a most valuable tonic to all who are suffering from General Debility or from diseases arising from derangement of the Liver. Yours truly,

E. D. FENDALL.

[From the Harrisburg Patriot.] The Radical State Committee have printed a "shorter catechism" upon the subject of the State debt, to which General Hartrank makes responses. We give the Committee the benefit of an insertion of the whole matter in our columns, as follows:

fice from 1861 to 1867 inclusive.

Respectfully, yours,

J. F. HARTRANFT,

Auditor General.

This "looks very well on paper," but unfortunately for General Hantranft and Mr.

Grow, the public records show that the Radical party, instead of applying the people's money to the payment of the State debt, have squandered it for other purposes.

Gov. Geary, in his last annual message, states that the total State debt in 1866 was $35,622,052.16. Auditor General Hartranft, in his annual report for 1867, says that the in his annual report for 1867, says that the amount in the Treasury on the 30th of November, 1867, "applicable to payment of balance of over-due loans," was, $2,937,978.

53. Now, if during the intervening year, from 30th of November, 1866, to 30th of November, 1866, to 30th of November, 1867, the Radicals had not increased the State debt, it would have stood at the latter date, at the precise sum of $32,-684,073.71, which we arrive at thus:
State Debt Nov. 30, 1866 $35,622,052.16 Deduct balance in Treasury over-due loans, Nov. 80th, 1867, 2.937.978.55 $32,684,073.61 But instead of this sum, the Auditor General fixes the debt on the 30th of November, 1867, at $34,766,431.22, and in his reply to Grow, says that on August 5th, 1803, it was $33,631,657.37. Now, we have shown that if the debt had not been increased during 1867, it would have been but $32,684,073.01, or $967,563.86 less than Gen. Hartrank says it was a the few of August 1868, proving it was on the 5th of August, 1868, proving that the debt was increased nearly one mil-lion since the 30th of Nov., 1866. lion since the 30th of Nov., 1866.

But we do not stop here. The Constitution provides (Art. XI, Sec. 4) for the creation of a Sinking Fund, to be applied to the payment of the principal and interest of the State debt. In accordance with this provision of the Constitution, the Democratic vision of the Constitution, the Democrate Legislature of 1858, enacted a law providing for the creation of a Sinking Fund. It is this enactment that has enabled the Radicals to do what little they have done toward paying off the debt and to dispense with the tax on real estate. If they had carried it out faithfully and honestly, as will be shown, they could be this time have cancelled the to work.

Will somebody explain what those purposes were, and whither those twenty-five millions have gone?

Meanwhile, let it be remembered, that from taxes upon real and personal estate from war loans, from payments by the United Bates, and from other sources of revenue, as per the reports of the Auditor General's of the, there were received at the Treasury since 1860, $13,107,531 91. Add this sum to the Sinking Fund, and we have a total of receipts at the Treasury, exclusive of loans, since 1860, of $38,455,283 91. The war loans from the act of April 12, and May 15, increased these receipts to $41,890,282-91, and the loan for the redemption of the over-due bonds, increased them to $40,990, 283 91, or nearly double the amount of the State debt in 1860.
