Naturalization Court. Two sessions of Court will be held before the October election, the first commencing on Monday, the 28th of September: the sec ond on the first Monday of October. At each of these terms persons entitled to naturalization can secure their papers, and we recommend that the subject be brought to their attention before it is too late. The importance October cannot be too strongly pressed upon infallible index of the result in November. If Pennsylvania is carried by the Democracy, then Seymour will surely be elected; if we are defeated in that preliminary contest, the struggle will virtually be ended.

We urge that those intending to apply for naturalization papers should endeavor to appear on the first days of court, as the length of the sessions is always uncertain. By waiting till the middle of the week or later, they may find the court adjourned, and have all their time, travel and trouble for nothing.

Senator Doolittle to be in Eric September 25th.

It affords us more than ordinary pleasure o announce that, through the efforts of Hon. Wm. A Wallace, Chairman of the State Committee, we are able to promise our citizens a speech from the able and eloquent Senator Doolittle, of Wisconsin.

He can only spare time from the campaign in the West to make five speeches in Pennsylvania, one of which will be in Eric on Friday evening, Sept. 25th, and another at Warren, on the Saturday following, September 26th.

Senator Doolittle made his first and last canvass of 1866, at which time he left an impression that will not soon be effaced. He vas pronounced by all who heard him to be the most efficient campaigner who had ever appeared before our people, and his reputation has since spread over the whole coun try. We risk nothing in promising all who hear him one of the most clear, courteous,

The Democracy of South Erie, always alive to their duty, and never behind-hand in performing it, organized a club some weeks of having every Democratic vote polled in ago, which is in splendid working order. A hickory pole was raised last week in front of our friends. The State election will be an the National Hotel, the proceedings on which occasion we have already reported. On Saturday evening, another pole was raised in front of the public house of Wm. Losch, in the presence of a large audience. Knoll's band was in attendance, and every one of its members being staunch Democrats, they played with even more inspiring effect than usual. Speeches were made by Col. Thompson, Mr. Scott, and Mr. Galbraith in English, and by Mr. Camphausen in German. They were all of a very happy nature, and the crowd evinced a degree of enthusiasm rarely seen. Our friends in South Eric report a large gain, and are confident of inreasing the Democratic majority. The Democracy of the Fourth District assembled in large numbers at Streek's Hall, corner of Sixth and Cherry-streets, on Monday evening last, and effected a permanent organization by the election of Wm. G. Arbuckle as President, Wm. E. Leonard and Martin Weindorf as Vice Presidents, Horace L. White as Secretary and Edwin J. Kelso as Treasurer. An Executive Committee, to have the general supervision of the party interests in the district, was selected as follows: Jacob Dresigaker, James Touly, John Hanley, Andrew Stronk and David risit to Erie as a public speaker during the Burger. The meeting was addressed by Benj. Whitman and Horace L. White, each of whom sought to bring the issues to the practical consideration of their hearers, and apparently with good effect. Most of those present were working men, and we have never seen a more orderly, attentive, earnest and well behaved audience. Another meeting will be held on Tuesday evening, Sept. candid, argumentative and convincing ad- 15th, when speeches will be made by one or two gentlemen. A meeting of the First District Democracy was held in Bray's Hall, on Wednesday evening, which, in consideration of the brief notice, was well attended. The following officers were elected: President, Gates A. Bennett; Vice President, Dennis Fogarty; Secretary, R. S. Hunter. A constitution for a district club was adopted, after which Mr. Whitman was called upon, and spoke of the value of organization, and the need that every member of the party should contribute his personal exertions to the success of the ause. W. A. Galbraith followed with the main speech of the evening, which was one of the best he ever delivered, and enthusiastically received. Some fifty persons signed their names to the Constitution, and the meeting then adjourned to Wednesday evening of next week, when a permanent organization will be secured. Speakers will be provided for a meeting in the Third district as soon as our friends there secure a hall and fix upon an evening.

The Campaign in the City. Our irrepressible Radical brethren are mak ng almost superhuman efforts to advance their cause in this city. They long ago engaged Walther's Hall as their headquarters during the campaign, and nearly every even ing have it in use for their club, ward or gen eral meetings. The main purpose seems to be to get up as much excitement, show and noise as possible, thus covering up the real issues at stake, as generals often make their most important moves behind the smoke of the battle-field. In this way the young men, who are too often led astray by flashy demonstations and the desire to be on the strong side, are sought to be entrapped, and the political experience of the war is expected to be repeated. It would seem as if the time had come when men of sense would turn away from such a system of tactics with disgust, but the Radical leaders may, after all, have a better appreciation of the popular intelligence than our friends give them credit for. They have also divided the city into played some of their sweetest strains from districts, with a canvasser in each, to ascerthe balcony, and a crowd of perhaps four tain the political standing of every citizen, hundred was collected, which would proba- and exert his influence in having doubtful voters array themselves on the Radical side. accommodations. A DISCUSTED EDITOR .- The last issue o the Corry Telegraph shows quite plainly. what we have suspected for some time, that Bro. Pain is pretty thoroughly tired of the doings of the party with which he has been identified for some years past. How a man of his independence of character and fairness of disposition could have supported Radicalism as long as he has has long been a mystery to us. " The Telegraph still keeps the Radical ticket at its editorial head, but if the following extract from its issue of last week, is a criterion, we suspect that its influence against Democracy will not be "enough to hurt." After favoring the Radical nominees for Assembly and Commissioner, it says: "The other nominees it don't matter to us individually which is elected. Politics have got into such a darned mixed up mess, that it's about like the woman when her hasband and the bear were fighting—it don't matter much which wins at the State election. The ticket at the head of our column shows our preference, but we are not interested enough either way to care which gets in.

"The country will go on about the same, whichever succeeds. If we have peace, so much the better; and we don't believe the men live who would inaugurate another war ust vet. If we have war, it will be no more than we have been through. Taxes are about as high as they can be and bear under them. If they get higher, the Republican party will then see that they have got to cast off some of the darned skunks that hang on its skirts because there's money in it; and we may then feel a pleasure in supporting as of yore, with all our heart and soul, hencet Republicans, such as comprised the party in the days of its first organization."

THE CRAWFORD DISTRICT .- The conferees to nominate a Democratic candidate for Congress in the district composed of Crawford, Mercer, Venango and Clarion counties, met at Franklin on the 31st of August. The trouble in the Radical ranks making it possible that the Democratic hominee may be elected. led to a vigorous competition over the candidate, and each county presented a name, as follows: Mercer, R. M.: DeFrance; Clarion, James B. Knox; Venango, S. C. T. Dodd: Crawford, W. R. Bole. Ninety-two ballots were had, when Mr. Bole's name was withdrawn. The ballots then run up to one hundred and twenty-two, when Mr. DeFrance received a majority of the votes, and his nomination was at once made unanimous. He is represented to us as a gentleman of more than ordinary talent, a steadfast Democrata and a popular man. The vote of the district in 1866 was as follows: Finney, Rad.,

THE Dispatch informs us that Mr. Gara, Deputy Secretary of the Commonwealth, left for home on Friday evening of last week, 'after eleven days' absence-not a 'month or more,' as 'the Observer erroneously states." The exact period is of little importance, neighbor; the question of propriety is the one under consideration. Is it right for Messrs, Gara or McCreary to receive large pay from the State for doing certain work, and then employ their time in attending to party or personal interests? It makes little difference in purpose whether the period is eleven days er a whole year.

A LETTER from a correspondent at Edinboro gives us the following:

"It is truly encouraging to the honest Democracy to witness the daily increase of our numbers at the expense of the Radicals. The numbers at the expense of the Radicals. The efforts of our party have never been crowned with the same success as at the present time. The good effects of our meetings can be noticed in the downcast looks of the Radical "carpet-baggers," who, through a spirit of revenge, on last Monday evening, attempted to tear down the pole which had been reared on the Saturday previous, and were partly successful. The reseals cut the rone attached successful. The rascals cut the rope attach to it, and broke off about thirty feet from the top of the pole. Some of the most prominent Republicans in the town are supposed to have been the perpetrators. There is noth-ing too mean for some Radicals."

The letter of our Harbor Creek corfespondent was, in some way, mislaid last week, and as the information it conveys was all given editorially, we regret being compelled to leave it go unpublished. He corrects the date for the next meeting of the Harbor as published. In closing, he uses the fol-

cles. The grounds contain sixty acres, and are located on the banks of the Susquehamns, that it is a subject of remark by almost every within a convenient distance of the city of one, that a calm, firm, strong faith in our Harrisburg, and about one-half mile from the cach one is ready to do his part—not only line of the Penna. radiroad. A MOULDER of this city, named Charles visit to Fairview on Saturday, and in the evaning started to walk home along the railroad When a little this side of the town, where the track is double, he stepped off one to evade a freight train, not noticing that the Cincinnati Express was coming east on the other. The latter struck him while going at a considerable speed, hurling his body some dis tance, breaking both his legs, and severely bruising his head and left arm. He was picked up in an unconscious condition, and prought to his home on German street, where he soon after died, leaving a family to mourn sand opposition majority, where Democrats | mass meeting on the week just preceding the his sad fate. This accident is another im. have no hope of reward, either direct or re- October election, which they intend to make pressive warning against the too common poses.

Mr. Joseph Wiggins, publisher and com iler of a Directory of the Beaver, Shenan and Mahoning valleys, has called upon us to say that he will soon issue a Directory of the Eric and Pittsburgh R, R, which promise JAMES A. McCullouch, Esq., has been to be one of the best works of the kind exselected by the Democrats of that township fant. It will include, besides the usual list of business firms, valuable information respecting all the cities and towns along the route, making it of general interest, and esents were received at too late a day for in-sertion last week. We are informed that some of the best animals within and Colfax Club, which is doing great good a circuit of a hundred miles have been entered.

THE North East Herald, after a year of feeble existence, has been suspended, to be East, but we should not like to be the unfortunate publisher dooined to test the matter." MR. JOHN McLAUGHLIN, of Moorheadville, has left at our office the largest watermelon we have seen this season. It was nearly three feet long, a foot through, and weighed forty-two pounds. For this section, it will be hard to beat, and we rather guess Mr. M. will be entitled to the prize.

Letter from North East.

NORTH EAST, Sept. 7, 1868. Editor Observer :- Notwithstanding the very unlavorable weather of Thursday last, Sept. 3d, the day appointed for holding our out-door meeting, quite a large and enthusiastic audience assembled in Union Itali to isten to the very able speeches from Hon.W P. Jenks, member of the Pennsylvania Legslature from Jefferson county, and Wm. A. Galbraith, of your city.

The Democracy of this borough had made extensive preparations for holding this meeting in the public park. We erected a large stand for the speakers and arranged benches for the audience under the shadow of our noble old hickory pole, but unfortunately the weather proved unfavorable, rain commenced to fall about the hour of noon, which had the effect of deterring our friends in the country from coming in with their wagons, as promised. However, the speakers were on hand, and the meeting was held in Union Hall, which was filled to overflowing. The speeches were excellent and well-timed-especially the one delivered by Wm. A. Galbraith, who spoke with effect upon the financial question; and; showed up the enormous frauds practised upon the people by the "trooly loil," and the immense expenditure of the people's money caused by the Freedmen's Bureau. "Fivehundred thousand dellars," he said, "had been appropriated to purchase medicines for the negroes in the South," and thought "there must certainly be a sickly set of niggers down there!" He also ventilated, the extravagance of modern Radical Congressmen, in the way of penknives, kid gloves, et celera, confiscated by them at the people's expense. Mr. G.'s speech throughout was a telling one, and by unanmous consent of both Democrats and Radicals who heard it, it was conceded to be the ablest yet delivered in this place since the campaign opened.

The Grant club of this place held its semi monthly meeting on Saturday evening last, and was addressed by a Mr. Underhill, of New York City, reputed to be the author of a "Life of James Buchanan." Judging from the whole tenor of his remarks, it was plain to see that Mr. Under-hill thids it an up-hill business to support the claims of the "no policy" candidate for the Presidency. He told his audience that the three great States of New York, Pennsylvania and Ohio would decide the coming contest, but that two of tates he had reference to. The inference ingly for Seymour & Blair. Mr. U.'s speech did-not inspire much confidence in Hiram's supporters. An effort is being made (with some show of success) to start a Radical weekly paper in this place, on the ruins of the Herald. Messrs Brainerd and Cushman, two young lawyers of this borough, are to be the editors and proprictors. It is thought that it will make its first appearance sometime during the las week of the present month. I see by posters that Hon. Glenni W. Sco field speaks here on the 10th inst. Yours, &c., Non'-EASTER Letter from Lockport. PLATEA, Sept. 7, 1868.

Dear Observer :- The second regular meet ing of the Democratic club of Lockport was held at the hall of Mr. Andrews, on Saturday evening last, and was addressed by Mr. L W. Savage, of Springfield. His remarks were characterized by candor, argument and abil ity, and cannot fail of being effective, since n our comparatively large audience we had a good sprinkling of Republicans: Mr. Sav age's personal popularity, his knowledge of constitutional law, and his candid reasoning combine to render him a more effective speaker than many others who have a wider reputation for elequence, but who are more iolent and vituperative.

Our club now numbers seventy-five active members, and we expect soon to increase the number to more than a hundred. We are alire and in carnest, and confidently expect to poll a larger vote in Lockport district this fall than we ever polled before. One good sign of the times is the readiness with which the Republicans turn out to our political gatherings, wherever they are, thus laying themselves open to conviction; while, at the same time, their own meetings, as a general rule, are sparse, and seem to possess very little vitality. The laboring masses of the people take slight interest in the administration of the Government, aside from the advantages they receive from that administration : they neither seek nor expect any of the emoluments or profits of office, but they have a love of liberty inherent in their matures, and will watch with a jealous eye any encroachment upon their privileges. All that is needed in the present campaign is a fair presentation of the issues-the real live issues of the present-to the intelligent American people, to secure an overwhelming defeat for Radiculism in November. God save the right! Our next meeting will be held on Saturday evening, Sept. 19th, and will be addressed by Capt. D. W. Hutchinson, of Girard.

. Yours truly, From McKeau County.

SMETHFORT, Sept. 3, 1868, Editor Observer :- We organized a Soymou and Blair club here last Monday, with the following officers: Ghordis Corwin, President; William Gifford, Vice President: Delano R. Hamlin, Secretary, William Brownell, Treasurer. Up here in McKean wê are alive and doing to propogate the good cause. Cole, aged about 50 years, had been on a At our second meeting we had 71 names on the roll, and at our next meeting we intend to double the number. On Tuesday the Republicans had a large meeting, and raised pole 107 feet high, but we are bound not to be beaten, and intend to put up one in a few days 125 feet high, so as to look down on theirs.

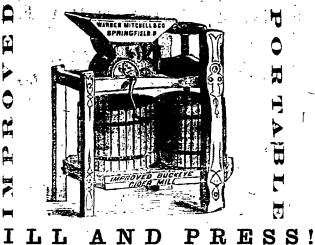

Truly Yours. A FRIEND OF THE GOOD CAUSE. MARRIED.

THE FOLLOWING COMMUNICATIONS from

THE FOLLOWING COMMUNICATIONS from well known citizens explain its merits:

I hereby certify that I have used the "Mercler Flexible Harrow," the right of which for this County is owned by Capt. John H. Weish, and find that I can accomplish one-third more with this machine than with any other I am acquainted with. It combines the qualities of lightness, cheapness and durability, and is the most perfect harrow that I have over seen. It can be easily changed into a cultivator for Corn and any boy large enough to drive a team can readily and easily take it apart and put it together and any friends and acquaintances to buy this machine, as I consider it altogether the best in use. No risk is incurred by the purchase, as the bayer will have sumple opportunities of trying before paying for it. I have purchased a Harrow and a farm right.

Its flexibility—which causes it to adapt its if closely to the surface of the ground, however rough or uneven it may be, is a feature or much importance, and one that distinguishes this from all other Harrows. There are also other peculiarities in its construction which will be readily perceived by the intelligent farmer, and which will doubtless tend, ere long, to bring it into general use. I have purchased one of the se Harrows for use on my land.
