

HORATIO SEYMOUR, of N. Y. FOR VICE PRESIDENT. Gen. F. P. BLAIR, of Missouri.

For whom will Gen. Geo. B. McClellan vote? For Horatio Seymour? For whom will Gen. Winfield Scott Hancock vote?

THE KEYSTONE STATE. From the list of meetings arranged by the State Committee, and the representations of our exchanges, we are led to the conclusion that the campaign is being conducted by our party in Pennsylvania with a degree of energy scarcely ever witnessed.

A TRUE INCIDENT. A little incident occurred at the Democratic National Convention, which has not been mentioned before, and may possess some interest.

CONGRESSIONAL ELECTIONS IN MAINE. We give the majorities on members of Congress at the late election, as stated by the New York Tribune, and compare them with the result two years ago.

OUR GOVERNMENT BONDS.—It is a notable fact, as well as a melancholy one, that the bonds of the United States are lower in the foreign money markets than those of any other nation.

WAS COLPAX A KNOW-NOTHING?

The following editorial in the Gazette of September 17th opened our notice until after the last issue of the Observer had gone to press. We ask that portion of the public who are most immediately interested to study it carefully, and then return to us below.

The Erie Observer has asked for a denial from Schuyler Colfax that he once belonged to the Know-Nothing party. We have given such a denial from Mr. Colfax, who said in his own words: "I was struck by the fact, when coming from your depot this very day, that the hundred and forty signatures of the German Club, and the seal of their condemnation and denunciation upon not only the calumny but the forgery which have been since."

The newspapers of June, 1855, show, and many living witnesses can testify, that he was an active and prominent member of the Know-Nothing National Council, which met in secret session in Philadelphia, about the 6th of June, 1855. It was well known, at the time, that only the most trusted members of the order gained admission to that Council.

In the Convention here mentioned Indiana was represented by the following delegates: Godlove S. Orth, J. S. Harvey, F. D. Allen, James R. M. Bryant, Thomas C. Slaughter.

What To Do. The New York Tribune, a few days since, gave some advice to its party friends, which is so pertinent to the occasion, that we adopt it as our own, with the slight exception of changing the names.

Are You Ready? Every Democratic vote in this county will be polled on the next Tuesday, October 3rd. Democrats of the several election districts, are you ready to get the very best Democratic vote to the polls?

Great Meeting at Edinboro.—The Democrats of Edinboro are making extensive preparations for their meeting on Thursday next, and are determined to make it the greatest meeting of the county.

Who may become Citizens and How. Any alien may become a citizen of the United States by declaring on oath or affirmation before the State courts of competent jurisdiction, two years before his admission, that it is his bona fide intention to become a citizen of the United States.

Who may become Citizens and How.

Any alien may become a citizen of the United States by declaring on oath or affirmation before the State courts of competent jurisdiction, two years before his admission, that it is his bona fide intention to become a citizen of the United States.

An alien, of the age of twenty-one years and upward, who existed in the arms of the United States, either the regular or volunteer forces, and has been honorably discharged, may be admitted to become a citizen on proof of his residence one year next within the United States, previous to his application to become a citizen.

Who Pay the Taxes. Mr. Scofield, in his speech at Waller's Hall, told the people that they pay no taxes, and that the revenues of the Federal Government are mainly derived from a comparatively few individuals.

The Dispatch, speaking of the applications for naturalization this week, gives the following particulars:

The witnesses were generally subjected to a sharp cross-examination, and the answers were founded on the law. The question "Do you applicant promise to support the Constitution?" was always promptly answered "Yes."

The following paragraph, from the Clearfield Republican, we give just as we find it, without any positive information as to the circumstances. Our understanding is, that Mr. Hornish's friends proposed a joint discussion, to which he assented, but that the matter has never been brought before Mr. Scofield in such a manner as to be considered a direct challenge from Mr. Hornish.

One of the main stocks in trade of the Radicals is the assertion that if Seymour and Blair are elected there will be war. Who, pray, will make the war? If there is anything of the kind it will be brought about by the Radical Disunionists who alone would have an interest in creating trouble.

A LETTER FROM WENDALL PHILLIPS appears in last week's Anti-Slavery Standard, in which he repeats his declarations of Grant's incapacity and intemperance. The following extract, coming from the source it does, is worth the consideration of the public:

We have little confidence in Grant. He is a man of no great talents, and his own people recognize him as a tool. He has been drunk in the public street since January, and he is now in the hands of the law. Only those unfit to be trusted with public journals, pass their lives off for ever, can deny it.

Ev-Gov. CHATTIN thinks that Pennsylvania will give Grant a heavier majority than was ever before cast for a Presidential candidate.

Our vote should fall all like that of Maine, eight per cent. of the total vote of 1892, we would lose New York by 48,718 majority.

THE REPUBLICAN REFUSES to inform us whether or not Mr. Scofield did take the "extra pay," but endeavors to divert us from pressing the inquiry by threatening to publish some charges against Judge Brown, in connection with the failure of the North Western Bank.
