White Men Must Rule America. COUNTRY MERCHANTS. CLUBS FOR 1868-CLUBS FOR 1868 The Best New York Weekly Published. Farmers and Others.

The New York Day-Rook is a straightforward Radical Democratic paper, with a larter circulation than any other Democratic journal ever published on this continent, and it enters on the threshold of 188 more prosperous and more hopeful of the great cause it upholds than ever before. Standing on the Declaration of Independence, that "all (white) men are equal," and therefore entitled to equal rights, it is opposed to all forms and degrees of special-legislation that conflict with this grand central truth of Democracy, and over all ami above all, does it combat that monstrous treason to American liberty, which, thrusting the negro element into our political system, must of necessity wreck the whole mighty fabric left us by our fathers. God has created white men superior and nogroes inferior, and therefore all the efforts of the past six years to abolish His work and equalize with negross—every law violated, every State Constitution overthrown, every life ancrificed, and devery dollar expended, are necessarily just so many steps towards national swickles and therefore all the choice of our country.

The Day Book, therefore, demands the restatements. ASHES, BEESWAX, BEANS, BUTTER CHEESE, EGGS, FLOUR AND MEAL AND GREEN FRUITS GRAIN, WOOL, GAME, POUL-TRY, NAVAL STORES. HOPS, GINGSENG, FEATHERS, HEMP.

OILS, LARD, greliam, social anarchy, and the lotal rum or our country.

The Day Book, therefore, demands the restoration of the "Ultion as it was,"—a Union of co-equal States upon the whilst hasts, as the only hope, and the only means possible under heaven for saving the grand ideas of 1776, and the fundamental priciples of American liberty, and it the real freemen, and the carnest believers in that sacred and glorious cause in which the men of the Revolution offered up their lives, will now labor to expose the ignorance delusion and treason of the Mengrel party, it will succeed, and the white Republic of Washington be restered again in all its original influence and grandeur.
