Farm for Sale.

Farm for Sale.

THE UNDERSIGNED offers for sale his valuable farm, on the Kuhl road, in Harbor Creek township, one mile south of the Colt Station road, and eight miles from Erie. It contains fifty-five acres and eighty perches, all improved and in the highest state of cultivation. The land is equal to the very best in that section of the county. The buildings comprise a 2 story frame house with 1½ story kitchen and good collar under the whole; wood house and work house; 2 barns, each 30x15 feet; a shed 70 feet long with stable at the end; and all the necessary outbuildings. A first class well of soft water, which never tails, is at the kitchen door. There is an orchard with 140 apple trees, all graffed, and bearing; and an abundance of almost every other kind of fruit grown in this neighborhood. The only reason why I wish to sell is that I am going West to embark in another occupation. Terms made known by applying to me on the premises, or to Hon. Elijah Babbitt, Aftorneyut-Law, Erie, Pa.

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS,

Medical.

Hoofland's German Tonic.

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS Is composed of the pure juices (or, as they are medicinally termed, Herbs and Barks, Herbs and Barks, Hardel and entirely free from alcoholle kind.

The great Remedies for all Diseases of the Liver Stomach or Digestive Organs.

Hoofland's German Tonic s a combination of all the ingredients of the litters, with the purest quality of Santa Cruz tum, Ornge, etc., making one of the most lensant and agreeable remedles ever offered to be a mixing. deficant and agreeouse remained by the public.
Those preferring a Medicine, free from Alcounteadmixture, will use HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS. Those who have no objection to the combination of the Bifters, as stated, will use HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC.

They are both equally good, and contain the same medicinal virtues, the choice between the two being a mere matter of taste, the Tonic being the most palatable.

The stomach, from a variety of causes, such as Indigestion, pyspoliity, etc., is very tions deranged. The applications deranged. The applications deranged. The same part to have its functions deranged. The with the stomach, then becomes affected, the result of which is that the patient suffers from several or more of the following diseases:

Constipation, Flatulence, Inward Piles, Fullness of Blood to the Head, Acidity of the Stomach, Nausea, Heartburn, Disgust for Food, Fullness or Weight in the Stomach, Sour Eructations, Sinking or Fluttering at the Pif of the Stomach, Swimming of the Head, Hurried or Dirilcult Breathing, Fluttering at the Heart, Cloking or Suffocating Sensations when in a lying posture, Dimness of Vision, Dots or Webs before the Sight, Dull Pain in the Head, Deficiency of Perspiration, Yellowness of the Skin and Eyes, Pain in the Side, Back, Chest, Limbs, etc., Sudden Flushes of Heat, Burning of the Flesh, Constant Imaginings of Evil and Great Depression of Spirils.

The sufferer from these diseases should evercise the greatest caution in the selection of a reenedy for his case, that which he is as the first which he is as true from his invertigations and invertigations and invertigations and invertigations from injurious ingredients and has established for itself a reputation for the cure of these diseases. In this connection we would submit these well-known remedies—

HOOFLAND'S

GERMAN BITTERS.

HOOFLANDS

GERMAN TONIC.

Prepared by DR. C. M. JACKSON, Philadelphia, Pa.

Twenty-two years since they were first intro-duced into this country from Germany, during which time they have undoubtedly performed more cures, and benefitted buffering humanity to a greater extent, than any other remedies known to the public.

These remedies will effectually cure Liver Com plaint, Jaundice, or Nervous Debility, L Diseases of the Kid-es arising from a dis-Stomach, or Intestines.

DEBILITY. Resulting from any cause whatever; Prostra-tion of the System, induced by Severe Labor, Hardships, Exposure,

There is no medicine extant equal to these remedies in such cases. A tone and vigor is imparted to the whole system, the appetite is strengthened, food is enjoyed, the stomach digosts promptly, the blood is purified, the complexion becomes sound and liealthy, the yellow tings is enalicated from the eyes, a bloom is given to the cheeks, and the weak and nervous invalid becomes a strong and healthy being. Persons advanced in life, and feeling the hand of time weighing heavily upon them, with all its attendant tills, will find in the use of this BITTERS, or the TONIC, an elixit that will instil new life into their veins, restore in a measure the energy and ardror of more youthful days, build up their shrunken forms, and give health and happiness to their remaining years.

It is a well established fact that fully one-half of the female portion of our population nor seldom in the enlies of their own expression, "never teel their own expression, the properties of their own expression, the properties of their own expression, and their own expression, and their own expression, and their own expression, and the properties of and have no appetite.

To this class of persons the BITTERS, or the TONIC, is especially recommended. Weak find delicate children are made strong by the use of cither of these remedies. They will cure every case of MARASMUS, without fail. Thousands of certificates have accumula-ted in the hands of the proprietor, but space will allow of but few. These, it will be observed, are men of note and of such standing that they must be believed.

TESTIMONIALS; HON, GEORGE W. WOODWARD.

Ex-Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania, writes: PHILADELPHIA, March 16, 1867 el find Hoofand's German Bitters is a good tonic, useful in gestive organs, and enses of debility and want of nervous action in the system. Yours truly.

HON, JAMES THOMPSON, Judge of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania PHILADELPHIA, April 23, 1866.
"I consider Hootland's German Bitters a valuable medicine in case of attacks of Indigestion or Dyspepsia. I can certify this from my experience. Yours with respect.

JAMES THOMPSON."

FROM REV. JOS. H. KENNARD, D. D. Pastor of the Tenth Baptist Church, Phila.

DR. JACK-10N-Dear Sir; —I have frequently been requested to connect my name with recommendations of different kinds of medicines, but regarding the practice us out of my appropriate sphere, I have in all cases declined; but with a clear proof in various intances, and particularly in the uscinlness of Dr. M. Hoofand's German Bitters, I depart for once from my usual course to express my full conviction that, for General Debility of the System, and especially for Liver Complaint, It is a safe and valumble preparation. In some cases it may fall; but, usually, I doubt not, it will be very beneficial to those who suffer from the above cause.

Yours very respectfully,

J. H. KENNARD,
Eighth, below Coates, St.

FROM REV. E. D. FENDALL, Assistant Editor Christian Chronicle, Philad's I have derived decided benefit from the use of Hoofiand's German Bitters, and feel it my priv-ilege to recommend them as a most valuable tonic to all who are suffering from General De-bility or from diseases arising from derange-ment of the Liver. Your truly, E. D. FENDALL.

A QUAKER WEDDING. (From the New York Evening Mall.)

A Quaker wedding is a novelty to the world's people, and as such we present our readers with a detailed description of one which recently took place in the town of Harrison, Westchester county:

Last Tuesday evening, at the residence of Friend John Seaman, in Harrison, Mr. Eugene V. Lorton, of this city, married himself to Miss Amy T. Mosher, of Greenwich Conn. The relatives of the young Friends who were to be married came together from all parts of the compass, even from the towns of New Jersey, the hills of Oregon county, the city of New York, New England, and Westchester county. There was a plentiful sprinkling of the world's people too—young ladies in Pompadour wajsts, and young men in swallow-tailed coats and fancy neckties. But to all intents and purposes the wedding was of Quaker origin, conduct, and conclusion. which recently took place in the town of Arriving at the mansion, the guests were ushered into the parlors, where bright fires of wood were blazing in the great open fire-place. The young people assembled in the back parlor, while the near relatives and aged Friends were comfortably seated in the front The ceremony was to take place at eight o'clock in the evening. The Friends, in their peculiar and well-known costumes, were seated in the front parlor, in solemn silence. The gentlemen were, for the most part, dressed in black, with white neckties, while the ladies wore small lace caps with little peaked crowns, and lace under handkerchiefs. The prevailing colors of their dresses were brown, a deep, rich mulberry, and black. Whenever a Friend entered the room, he or she shook hands with each one present, saluting them by their given names.

Beneath the mirror in the front parlor a sofa had been placed for the bride and groom, WINTER TIME TABLE.

The bride was dressed after the ordinary fashion, in a white cashmere, en train, trimmed with white sat-in, pompadour waist, lace under waist, veil, orange flowers, &c. During the silence succeeding the ceremony an opportunity was offered for any of the Friends to address the couple if the spirit moved. After waiting for some time a quiet, motherly-looking lady, made the following

"This is indeed a very solemn ceremony, and we all need the Divine assistance in living up to its requirements.' Another period of silence, and the bride-groom arose and kissed the bride, whereup-on the best man and woman did the same thing.

At this stage of the proceedings the best man, with an assistant, brought a small table into the room, upon which was a marriage certificate in the shape of a scroll, a pen, and an ink-stand, and placed it in front of the biddersom. bridal cashe was not cut.

The whole ceremony consumed about an hour. Between fifty and sixty signatures of the relatives of the bride and bridegroom were appended to the parchment. This is a good custom, and serves to call to mind each one present at the wedding. It is a little curious that the marriage certificate has to be procured in Philadelphia. It is afforded at the reasonable price of five dollars. A new gold pen and case is always purchased for the signing of the contract. This may be presented by the husband to his wife.

A Strange Romance. "Evelyn," the New Orleans correspondent of the Mobile Sunday Times, writes: Something like two years ago young M——, the son of one of the wealthiest men in Louislason of one of the wealthiest men in Louisia-na, fell deeply in love with a young lady of a neighboring parish. His love was returned with warmth, and they were engaged. But now an obstacle came in the way. M's father opposed the match. For some time he kept this a secret from his fance, and meanwhile she was making preparations for the marriage. She was an orphan, but had been left a small property, which, valuable before the war, brought her but little over $3.000. This she expended upon her trousbefore the war, brought her but little over $3,000. On that very day M——'s father died, and the funeral notice was handed to her as she stepped into the carriage to go to the cars. For a week nothing was heard from her, but soon we got the finale of the romance. The girl had gone immediately to M——'s bedgirl had cone immediately to M——'s bed-side, and found him very ill, attended by his two sisters. He told her that he was dying, and now that his father was gone, wished to make her his wife. They were married. A will was made by him giving her one half of his large fortune, the other half to his two sisters, and the next day he followed his father from earth. Contrary to the advice of her friends, the young maiden widow declared lier intention of retiring to the convent for vou may have.

Horrible Murder of a Young Wife. Horrible Murder of a Young Wife.

A most horrible marder was committed on Saturday, the 17th inst, in the county of Macon, in the neighborhood of Salem Church, Alabama. For the act to be appreciated in all its horror, it will be necessary to write a little history. Some time last year, a youth of about eighteen years of age, named William Duke, won the heart of a girl about sixteen, by the name of Mary Low. Her family objected to their marriage, but, as is oftenthe case under such circumstances, they ran away and were married. Their happiness was short-lived. Harsh treatment from the young husband and from his family toward the young wife, who had disregarded and forsaken her family to join her destiny with his, soon followed the honermon. But

My Dean Grils:—Body and mind both require rest and relaxation at intervals, in order to maintain their full vigor. A change of employment will often afford rest, when entire inactivity would not. This is, especially true with nervous, restless minds. Public speakers, writers, clergymen, &c., who astonish the world with their powers of accomplishment, are examples of this. Success would not attend them if they did not unbend occasionally to seek rest in change of occupation and healthful amusements.

The gambols of animals, insects and birds, remind us of the innocence of play.

A cheery laugh helps digestion, and brightens those that hear it. A halt hour's exercise in the gymnsaimm is a rest to muscles overtaxed by one position; and any out of door employment, to those confined to sedentary habits to the house, is an amazing rest. I once heard an esteemed clerkyman say that he cured himself of an alarming attack of dyspepsia and hypochondria by sawing wood duly for about six weeks!

A LEAP YEAR SWINDLE.—Miss M had conceived a passion for Mr. W. It was not reciprocated. Mr. W's coldness had driven her to desperation, which, among young ladies, means a resort to strategy to accomplish what they cannot do by fair means. The young lady, presuming upon her leap-vear privileges, and upon W.'s bulief in spir-itualism, and his respect for the name of his deceased mother, employed a celebrated me-dium and had a meeting arranged to which Mr. W. was invited. On the evening prohorror, the sepulchral voice pronounced the marriage ceremony.
