THE TIME TO ADVERTISE .- Some one, who has studied the matter thoroughly, advises ousiness men that the present is the time of all others to advertise. He says : Now that the Presidential election is over, people will be ready to settle down to practical business. Housekeepers will be providing for family wants, and merchants laying in stocks of fresh goods to meet the demands which are sure to be made upon them. Those who have merchandise to dispose of should take advantage of this favorable state of affairs, and do as the politicians have been doingkeep themselves before the people. The columns of the Observer (which has the largest circulation of any paper in the North-West,) are open to all such. We cordially invite business men of all kinds to avail them selves of the golden opportunity promptly and to as great an extent as their purses will terms as "hog," "ass," "horse," "bull," "drunk allow or their business will justify. A BOY'S IDEAS OF POLITICS .- Boys are usually pretty shrewd observers of things, and it isn't often that they go far astray in their judgment of them, as the following essay by one of the pupils in our high school conclusively proves. Those of our readers who took an active part in the last campaign will read it with interest :

"Politics is a hard word. I don't just now what it means. I guess it is a sort of sickness. People who have this sickness meet together in the evening and howl and talk. Pa has 'em bad.
