HOOFLANDS

GERMAN BITTERS. AND

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC

DR. C. M. JACKSON. Philadelphia, Pa.

Twenty-two years since they were first intro twenty-two years since they will first intro-duced into this country from Germany, during which time they have undoubtedly performed more cure, and benefitted suffering humanity to a greater extent, than any other remedies known to the public.

These remedies will effectually cure Liver Complaint, Jaundiee, or Nervous Debuilte, Photoses of the Kides arising from a dissonance, or the real Liver Stomach, or intestines. DEBILITY, Resulting from any cause whatever; Prostra-tion of the System, induced by Severe Labor, Hardships, Exposure, Fevers, Etc.

There is no medicine extant equal to these remedies in such cases. A tone and vigor is imparted to the whole system, the appetite is strengthened, food is empoyed, the stomach digests promptly, the blood is purified, the complexion becomes sound and healthy, the yellow time is eradicated from the eyes, a bloom is given to the checks, and the weak and nervous inwalld becomes a strong and healthy being. Persons advanced in life, and feeling the hand of time yeighting heavily a on them, with all its attendant ills, will find in the use of this BITTERS, or the TONIC, an elixir that will instil new life linto their veins, restore in a measure the energy and ardor of more youthful days, build up their shranken forms, and give health and happlices to their remaining years. HANLON & BRO...

NOTICE.

It is a well established fact that fully one-half of the female portion are seldom in the end theath; or, to use I their own expression, never teel well. They are languid, devoid of all energy, extremely nervous, and have no appetite.

To this class of persons the BITTERS, or the TONIC, is especially recommended. Weak and delicate children are made strong by the use of their of these remedies. They will cure every case of MARASMUS, without fall. Thousands of certificates have accumulated in the bands of the proprietor, but space will allow of but few. These, it will be observed, are men of note and of such standing that they must be believed.

TESTIMONIALS:

HON. GEORGE W. WOODWARD, Lx-Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania, writes:

"I find Hoofinand's German Bitters is a good tonic, useful in gestive organs, and eases of debility, and want of nervous action in the system. Yours truly, GEO. W. WOODWARD." PHILADELPHIA, March 16, 1867.

HON. JAMES THOMPSON,

Judge of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania PHILADERPHIA, April 28, 1866,
"I consider Hootland's German Bitters a valuable medicine in case of attacks of Indigestion or Dyspepsia. I can certify this from my experience. Yours with respect.

JAMES THOMPSON."

FROM REV. JOS. H. KENNARD, D. D. Pastor of the Tenth Baptist Church, Phila,

DR. JACKSON—Dear Sir:—I have frequently been requested to connect my name with recommendations of differ at kinds of medicines, but regarding the practice as out of my appropriate sphere, I have in all cases declined; but with a clear proof in arisons and particularly in the usefulness of br. M. Hoolland's German Bitters, I depart for one from my usual course to express my full conviction that, for General Debility of the System, and especially for Liver Complaint, it is a safe and valuable preparation. In some cases it may fall; but, usually, I doubt not, it will be very beneficial to those who suffer from the above cause.

Yours very respectfully,

Eighth, below Coates, St.

FROM REV. E. D. FENDALL, . I have derived decided benefit from the use of Hoofland's German Bitters, and feel it my privilege to recommend them as a most valuable tonic to all who are suffering from General Debility or from discases arising from derangement of the Liver. Yours truly,

E. D. FENDALL.

The couple were married early on the night mentioned, and after the usual festivities everybody in the house retired. Some time during the night some negro burglars climbed upon a shed in rear of the house and easily gained access to the bedchamber of the young couple, to whom they adminis-tered chloroform, and then ransacked the room, taking out of it everything of value, and placing the plunder on the shed of the house adjoining. Into that house the ras-cals also went and proceeded to clear it out of valuables. The end of the track of the Union Pacific

The ruin of a young country girl, seduced by a scoundrel disguised in the dress and bearing of a gentleman, has just come to light. The case is peculiarly melancholy, the poor dupe of a miserable rake having been taken from her home, made to submit to a mock marriage and finally deserted, penniless and ragged, in a large city—a pauper among unsympathizing strangers.

On last Monday afternoon a young girl called at a house of ill-repute kept by one Carrie Watson, No. 72 North Wells street.

She had iust alighted from an express waron.

The house is besieged both by rich and by poor,
Who knock all day long at grandmamma's door;
They turn up their eyes, and they turn out their toes,
But what is all that if they do not propose?
You say that you love me, but love all alone To unmarried girls is a thing quite unknown;
You sigh and look down, and present me a frose;

They house is besieged both by rich and by poor,
Who knock all day long at grandmamma's and had with her a trunk, which was on the steps when the door was opened in response to her ring. She stated to the mistress of the bagnio that her husband, a man named Philip Gray, had sent her there to obtain board, and handed over a note addressed to the proprietress, which explained the story of the said deception and ruin of the unsophisticated girl. It read to the effect that the bearer was innocent, had just been mis led from virtue, and suggested in vulgar phrase that she could easily be deceived.

led from virtue, and suggested in vulgar phrase that she could easily be deceived. The penmanship was good and busines-slike, indicating that the writer was a man of intelligence. The missive wound up with the sentence "I'll tell you she is gay." No name was attached to it. Upon being questioned the girl told a long and pitful story. She had been living at Freeport, Illinois with hier parents, and, some weeks ago, had met on the streets of that little town, the fellow who brought about her fall. The two soon became intimate, and the result of the acquaintance was a proposal of marriage on and the conformation of their heads is much quaintance was a proposal of marriage on the part of the rascally villain. The little girl, unsuspecting his true character, accepting the raise of the range of the range of the same.

Before seeing these strange girls we had fancied that we would experience a feeling of repulsion, but the first glance at their bright, cheeful faces dispelled that idea effectually, —N. O. Picagune.

Mrs. Andrew Johnson. Washington Cor. Hartford Post.

If you would see how thorny is the road of a public man's wife, look at Mrs. Andrew Johnson. She taught her husband how to read. He went off immediately and bought a copy of the constitution, and kept reading it until he was impeached under it. It made him exerciting from Alderman up, and now him everything from Alderman up, and now his house begins to wear a hospitable look that all houses have when we feel that mov-ing day approaches. I dare say that Mrs. Johnson, pleased as she must have been in her ambition, to see the father of her children according into history would have been as ascending lato history, would have been a happier lady had her husband adhered to his goose. She is an invalid, who has been seen by few during all those eminent years, but in her secusion she must still read and feel Chicago Tribune.
