Some of the old fogy dry goods dealers who have old stocks on hand, bought at war prices, which they are trying to palm off on the public as new goods, and who say, they and the public are sick of seeing the columns of advertisements of our low prices. We suppose it does make them sick. If they cannot conform to our Low Prices, they had better stop scolding about us, shut up shop, and seek an honest living in some other business, for we can, and shall, continue to supply the public with all kinds of FIRST CLASS GOODS at New York and Boston wholesale prices.
