THE ROYAL FAMILY. In the batch of nominations sent to the Senate last week, there are only two brothersain-law of the President, viz: Sharp, for Marshal of the District of Columbia, and Colonel Casey for Collector of the Port of 'New Orleans. 'It is said that another brother-in-law of Grant's Cram-now Consul to-Leeds, will be appointed Minister resident to Switzerland, and Orville Grant, the President's brother, is to get something handsomeat Chicago. This nepotism is severely criticised. A leading Radical in Congress, referring to the President's appointments, said the was taking care of his relations and the fellow- who had given him houses.

There is another case just reported, The other day a colored man attempted to get quarters at a Petersburg (Va.) hotel, but, on being ordered out and refusing to leave, was arrested and brought before the Mayor, who decided that the hotels understood to be kept for whites should not be intruded on by negroes who were not registered guests and had no right therein.3

JA JOKE BY BEN BUTLER. · Unless all signs fail, the old fend between Butler and Grant will soon break out with renewed vigor. Benjamin enjoys the situation very much, and laughs heartily over the mistakes of his old enemy. They tell a good, and true, little story of his opinion of the Cabinet in this way: It is well known that John A. Griswold, the last Republican candidate for Governor of New York, was in the Navy. He was warmly urged by the politicians of the Empire State, and had good reason to believe that he would be successful. Ben Butler mer him the other day and asked him, with a sardonic grin, how he liked the Cabinet. Griswold mournfully replied that he didn't like it much. "Well," said Butler, with a twinkle of his strahismical optics, "I say that Boutwell, the strongest man in the told you how it would be. Fact is, Gris., Cabinet, owes his appointment to their dieyou didn't subscribe enough!" There was a big laugh, as the force of Butler's reasoning was felt by all who heard the dialogue." THE REVOLUTION IN CUBA. firmation of the report of the establishment of a provisional government by the Cuban insurgents, President Grant will recommend its immediate recognition, and certainly the recognition of their belligerent rights. The Spanish minister has addressed an earnest remonstrance against the course of this Government in reference to Cuban affairs, referring particularly to the resolution of Mr. Banks, in the House looking towards the recognition of the independence of that people, as altogether premature. He also alleges that aid in men, money and arms are being dispatched to the insurgents from the United States, through the connivance of its officers. This allegation cannot be denied, for it is a well-known fact that a number of patriotic Cubans have formed a provisional junta in New York for that purpose. The extent of the movement in sympathy with the Cuban patriots in this country is not generally known. At least twenty-five professional soldiers, including General Henningsen, prominent rebel artillerist and engineer, have left Washington for Havana within the past three mgnths. They undoubtedly were accompanied by a number of supporters. It is conceded that the cable dispatches from the Ever-faithful Isle are manipulated by the Spanish Captain General before they are alprospects of the insurgents are much brighter than they are generally believed to be. At any rate, the matter has assumed such serious proportions that it promises to be one ment policy during the coming summer.

He has, however, no especial capacity to manage our foreign relations. He is as utterly unlike the Jeffersons, Clays, Calhouns and Websters, who have served in that department as can easily be imagined. In politics he was formerly a Whig, and since the dissolution of that parwhole ratife of our newspaper acquaintance ty he has been a moderate Republican. He we know of none that we can recommend has not taken a prominent or active part in politics for several years, and was considered by politicians to be pretty effectually shelved But Grant has uncarthed him against the wishes of three fourths of the active politi cians of the State of New York. Mr. Boutwell is the ablest member of the Radical party on the floor of the House of Representatives. He was born in Boston in the year 1818, and began his career as a merchant, but afterwards studied law and was admitted to the bar.' In 1851 he was elected Governor of his State by a coalition between the Democrats and Free Soilers in the Legislature, Samner being chosen at the same time to the United States Senate. He was elected has got to wear a monkey jacket. We had to Congress in 1854, as a free-trade Democrat, General Grant up in Minnesota, and, of ut since that-time has sided with the New England protectionists. He was the very oul of the impeachment movement, and did the President more harm than Butler, Bingham, Stevens and Ashley put together. As a member of the Reconstruction Committee he has exhibited as much malignity and fanaticism as the most ultra Radical could desire. Some of the most vindictive and despotic measures which have issued from that committee emanated from Boutwell. His appointment gives the 'little State of Massachusetts two of the seven members of the Cabinet, namely: the Secretary of the Treasury and the Attorney General. This fact shows of what a piece of patchwork the new Cabinet consists; for no President, in the ordinary possession of his faculties, would assign two members to so diminutive a State as Massachusetts. A weaker apconfident expectation of the Secretaryship of pointment could hardly have been devised. Rawlins and Grant are from the same town of Galena, and the appointment of the former may be set down to the usual rule-a reward for past foadyism.

The Radicals of the Legislature have put themselves upon the record in such a manbetrayed and outraged people: Senator Wallace offered a series of resolutions proposing to submit the XVth Amendment to a vote of the people at the election in next October but this fair, democratic and liberal proposition was defeated by a strict party vote, every!Democratic Senator voting for it, and ecery Radical Senator roting against it. In or der that the public may see the fairness of Mr. Wallace's plan of disposing of this XVth Amendment, we here insert the resolutions offered by that gentleman :

"WHEREAS, The Congress of the United states has proposed an amendment to the Constitution thereof, to be known as Article XV., which changes the rule of suffrage now existing in this Commonwealth, and substitutes therefor another and a different rule, which said amendment is now submitted to the Legislatures of the different States for

WASHBURNE!

A Portrait of Grant's Bearest Friend, by Donnelly.

In May of last year a difficulty sprung up between Messra. Elihu B. Washburne, Grant's right hand man) and Ignatius Donnelly, of Minnesota, both of them being Radical members of Congress. A furious war of words ensued between them on the floor of the House, which terminated in a speech by Donnelly, which will undoubtedly descend into literature as the "bright, particular" a singular patchwork. Hamilton Fish is a gem of American oratory. A short extract will give the reader a general idea of the whole. Said Donnelly:

"Has he (Washburne) not lived in the same town with General Grant, and should he not, therefore, perforce, be the Warwick, the and maker-the power beland the throne that he lived in the same town with General Grant, except on that great principle of compensation which runs through the created world; the town of Galena having for so many years endured the gentleman-God Almighty felt that nothing less than Ulysses S. I leave the gentleman's constituents to apply the parable. I bow in profound admiration cognize him as the greatest, broadest, wisest intellect of this generation. I cannot think that he will degenerate into becoming a pup-pet to be played by wires held in the hands of the gentleman from Illinois, or that he will degenerate into a kind of hand organ, to be toted around on the back of the gentle-man from Illinois, while his whole family sit on the top of the machine grinding and catching pennies like a group of monkies [general and continuous laughter.]. I would say to Ulysses S. Grant, if it was in my power to whisper anything in his ear, to take counsel by that profound remark of Ami-nadab Sleek, when he said, "You all expect to get into Heaven by holding to my coat-tail; but I will fool you all: I'll wear 2 mon-key jacket." THE GREAT AMERICAN GIFT EN-

BY " MACK."

Gen. Grant's Cabinet is more of a gift enterprise than I at first supposed. I have allooked very much like the quid pro quo for the house and lot recently occupied by Grant in this city, and that Borie's Secretaryship of the Navy was a receipt in full for the Philadelphia mansion of the new President. But I was utterly at a loss to discover wherewithal Mr. Attorney General Hoar had paved his way to the Presidential affections. The mystery is solved by the ascertainment that Mr. Hoar gave Grant a fine library a year or two ago, which, however, judging from the knowledge of law-displayed by "the great captain of the age," on the second day of his Administration, does not appear to have included a history of the initial period of the United States Government. So here we have the gift enterprise feature of Grant's Cabinet complete. Applicants for office under the new Administration must take notice that the safest way to approach the new Administration is through a house and lof, a la Stewart and Borie. Hoar got in through the cheap medium of a library, but it is safe to say that there is nothing more to be disposed of at that low rate.

The books of the Great American Gift

enterprise are still open at the White House. The ardor of those disposed to invest has, been a little dampened by the failure of Mr. Stewart to get his prize after paying his money. However, I am not so sure of its being a failure after all. Men of Stewart's good business habits are not easily swindled out of $100,000 worth, and there is talk, as I write, of a compromise, which will yet secure the big dry goods man the Treasury Department. Entries for minor prizes will then be in order. A New York friend, who has been supplying the new President with eigars for a year or two, is spoken of for the Consul Generalship to Havana; 'the man who gave him the big ox-weighing I don't know how many thousand pounds, and now on exhibition in this city-is to be Commissioner of Agriculture. GEARY makes haste to do the bilding of the Radical majority in Congress He has sent a message to the Legislature en closing a copy of the negro suffrage amend-ment, and endorses it in these words: "I cordially approve this action of the National Congress, and unhasitatingly recomprompt ratification of the Legislature. JOHN W. GEARY.

THE following is the vote in the State Sen ate on the final passage of the negro suffrage amendment : YEAS-Messrs, Billingfelt, Brown, (Mercer.) Coleman, Connell, Errett, Fisher, Graham, Henszey, Kerr, Lowry, Olmstend, Osterhout, Robinson, Stinson, Stutzman, Taylor, White and Worthington, Speaker—

NAYS-Messrs. Beck, Brown (Northamp ton,) Burnett, Davis, Duncan, Jackson, Linderman, McCandless, McIntire, Miller, Nagle, Randall, Searight, Turner and Wal-lace—15—all Democrats.

Mr. Wilson, one of the Allegheny county Representatives in the Legislature, presented in the House the other day, a petition from the Pennsylvania Republican Congressmen, asking for an appropriation of a sufficient sum to pay for a collossal bronze statue of Thaddeus Stevens, to be set up in Washington. The Democratic party in the State ought to feel flattered in being permitted to pay its quota to this commendable enterprise. We would suggest, however, that a prise. We would suggest, however, that a dered the people and amassed millions during the war, should undertake this job.

THE Pennsylvania Republican delegation in both Houses of Congress have held a cau-cus to consider the question of Federal ap-pointments in the State, and decide on what they should recommend to President Grant in the matter. At an interview with the President; the Committee on this part stated that they had come to the conclusion that it was advisable that the Representative should have the patronage in their several districts, and that the Senators should be alowed the distribution of the offices at large. It is reported that the President expressed himself in favor of their propositions, but old them that there were some few appoint-ments in the city of Philadelphia which he should fill himself, and that he would allow his Cabinet Minister from that State to have as voice in the matter. He said also that he should select the District-Attorney, as well as the Marshal for the Western District, but that before making the appointments he would be happy to hear their recommends

GOOD PRINTING INK .- A very important requisite to the production of a well printed newspaper is a suitable ink. In printing the Bucks County Intelligencer on a fast press, we have had to contend with a great many difficulties in obtaining ink that would give salisfaction. At present we are using an ink made expressly for the Intelligencer, by C shots were fired. A number of balls entered private dwellings and wounded citizens, while some were also wounded while in the E. Robinson, corner of Gray's Ferry Road and Thirty-third street, Philadelphia, which comes nearer the mark than any other we have yet met with. That this opinion is shared by other publishers is shown by the PRINTERS' INK .- A Good Article.-The ink

PRINTERS' INK.—A Good Article.—The ink with which this issue of the Republican is printed, is from the Gray's Ferry Printing Ink Works of C. E. Robinson. It is clean, flows freely, and is of good color. Our brother printers can judge of its quality by comparing it with ink from other manufactories.—Delawate County Republican.

To PRINTERS.—We have been using for the Gray's Ferry Manufactory of Charles E Robinson, which our pressmen say is the best for cylinder press news work that they have used for a long time. It is a clear black, and free from all kinds of sediment. Mr. Robinson is a practical ink manufacturer liberal and courteous in all business transac tions, and as he has recently had the mistor tune to be burned out, we are more free to recommend his ink and himself to the pat ronage of all printers who desire a good arti cle at very cheap rates.—Delaware Gazette. One of our cotemporaries also recommends FINE PRINTING INE.—We have for some time been using the news ink manufactured at the Gray's Ferry Printing Iuk Works, Philadelphia, by C. E. Robinson, and, as stated some weeks ago, have found it better adapted to our presses than any ink we have had in our office for ten years. It is not only a very excellent article of ink, but it is furnished at very reasonable prices. The works also manufacture black and colored printing and lithographing inks, varnishes, &c. Their address is Gray's Ferry Road and Thirty third street, Philadelphia.—Sugarston Her

We never recommend an article in these columns unless it really merits it, and to learn whether our own opinion of the ink the Tax Payer is now using coincided with our pressmen's, we inquired his estimate. He replied, "Good, very good;" and as we never knew him to deviate from the truth, we inform our fellow printers that this was said of Robinson's. Philadelphia printing ink.—Trapaner. New York.

Poyer, New York.
We have recently been using for our newspaper the ink manufactured at the Gray's Ferry Printing Ink Works, by C. E. Robinson, and as it gives the best satisfaction, we cordially recommend it to our brethren of the press generally—The American, Media,

This week's edition of the News is printed with ink from Gray's Ferry Works, Phila-delphia. The ink is all that could be de-sired, and we cheerfully recommend it to the printed is from the Gray's Ferry Printing nk Works of C. E. Robinson. It is clear, works clean, and is of good color. - E. Welly.

Good INK .- One of the greatest sources of annoyance in a printing office is bad ink. We have tried various makes, paying sometimes very high prices, and failing. We are now using the ink manufactured by Gray's Ferry Printing Ink Works, by C. E. Robin. We are son, and it gives us satisfaction. We shall continue to use it, and commend it to others of the craft with confidence.-Jeffersonian

West Chester, Pa.

Many of our offices have been in the habit of sending away for their inks. We would call attention to the advertisement of the Gray's Ferry Printing Ink Works. We are ising ink from this factory and it gives entire satisfaction in quality and price, and take pleasure in adding our testimony in its favor.—Philadelphia Ecening Star. FINE PRINTING INK .- We take pleasure in calling the attention of the printers to the advertisement of Mr. C. E. Robinson, Ink manufacturer, Philadelphia. The Morning News is printed with ink from his factory. It is clear, well ground and of good color and is sold at a very reasonable price. In fact it is the best ink for the price that we have ever used, and we cordially add our endorsement to those in the advertisement .-Sarannah, (Ga.) News.

PRINTING INK.—We have tried most the first-class printing inks manufactured in this country, and know whereof we speak in recommending that manufactured at God's Ferry Printing Ink Works, Philadelphis, as superior to any in use. It is easily worked in all kinds of weather, is clear, clean and pretty, and in many ways far ahead of inks sold at much higher prices. We are seconded in this recommendation by our pressmen, in the correctness of whose judgmen in matters pertaining to the press-room we have unlimited confidence.—Pittsburgh Daily Gazette.

THE FAME of the celebrated Plantatio Bitters has no parallel in the history of Medicine. The thousands upon thousands of bottles that are made and sold daily is but truth positive of their wonderful virtues. Thousands of certificates can be produced showing the efficacy and certainty of the cures which they effect, and the Medical Fraternity, usually so jealous of anything which causes persons to think and doctor for themselves, are compelled to acknowledge their their wonderful virtues, and prescribe then under other names. They are sold by all druggists.

MAGNOLIA WATER - Superior to the best imported German Cologne, and sold at half the price.

SINGULAR PROPOSITION .- Dr. Sage has un-Catarrh, judging from the universal satisfaction and approbation which we hear ex pressed by several persons who have used it R. V. Pierce, M. D., of Buffalo, N. Y., the proprietor, as will be seen by reference to our advertising columns, has so much confidence in the remedy as to offer a standing reward of $500 for a case of Catarrh that he cannot cure. The remedy is said to be very mild and pleasant to use. It may be procured by enclosing sixty cents to the proprietor, o any Druggist in the land.—Toledo Blade.

THE editor of this paper takes pleasure in calling the attention of his patrons to the advertisement in another column, of "The American Life Insurance Company of Philadelphia." There is no advertisement, of all ure, because we feel that in calling the attention of our readers to that Company we are doing them a real benefit. It is, on every account, just the Company in which it says: "Country papers can procuse an ex-change with the Courant by publishing our prospectus and giving a first-rate local no-dends: old and reliable, and always prompt in payment of losses, FACTS FOR THE LADIES.-I beg to state that I have used my Wheeler & Wilson Sewing Machine, in family sewing, fourteen years, without even the most trifling repairs, and it s in so good condition that I would not exhange it for your latest number (now upwards of 350,000.) One needle served more than a year for fine sewing.

HOW RESTORED.
Just published, a new edition of Dr. Culverwall's Celebrated Essay on the indical cure (without medicine,) of Spermarough Celebrated Essay on the indical cure (without medicine,) of Spermarough Celebrated Essay, Change and Physical Inequality, Impediments to Marriage, etc.; also, Consumption, Epilepsy, and Fits, induced by self-indulgence or sexual extravagance.

35 Pice, in a sealed envelope, only 6cents. The celebrated author, in this admirable essay, clearly demonstrates from a thirty years successful practice, that the alarming consequences of self-abuse may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicine or the application of the knife; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain and effectual, by means of which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, may enre himself cheaply, privately, and radically.

37 This Lecture should be in the hands of every youth and every man in the land. Sent, under seal in a plain envelope, to any address, postpatib, on receipt of six cents, or two post stamps. Also, ip. Culverwell's "Marriage Guide," price 25 cents. Address the Publishers,
