WEEKLY OBSERVER
ERIE, PENNA. MARCH 18, 1899.
NOTICE.—After this date no paper will be sent from this office, for any length of time, without payment in advance, unless by the order of parties whose responsibility is not assumed. All subscriptions must be settled annually. This will be sent at the close of each year to those who have not sent their money. All advertising notices are sent on the day they are received, unless otherwise specified. The closing accounts are due on the 10th of each month.

OF RARE INTEREST.—We shall commence in a few weeks, a very interesting series of articles, giving the political history of the county from 1820 to the present time, including the names of all the candidates voted for for each office, the most important votes, and other information of value. It will be of rare interest to the older portion of our citizens, and furnish much desirable knowledge to those who have come upon the scene of action at a later date. As the articles will run through a dozen or more papers, those who desire to read and preserve them should subscribe at once, in order to make sure of securing the full series.

HOX, C. L. LAUBERTON.—We received a hurried visit on Saturday from Hon. C. L. Lauberton, of Luzerne County, who was on the way for a visit to his old home in Clarion, and could not resist the temptation to stop over for a few hours in our city. Mr. Lauberton represented the Clarion district in the State Senate, where he obtained the reputation of being one of the ablest members of that body. His candid speeches in reply to Senator Lowry on several occasions, which were republished in the Observer at the time, have made his name familiar to the Democrats of Erie County, and to all who met him he seemed like an old acquaintance. Mr. Lauberton is now a resident of Wilkes-Barre, where he has already won a leading position as a lawyer and public man.

PENITENTIARY CASE.—On Monday a hearing took place before F. J. Marshall, Esq., United States Commissioner, in the case of Mrs. Susan Jane Wilsey, Postmistress at Jackson Station, accused of having abstracted money from letters passing through the office. Testimony was given to the effect that on two separate occasions the same party had stolen money by her agency. The amount being $15. On one instance she stole from the office $10, and on the other $5. Her name was Wilsey, and her maiden name was Wilsey. She was married to John Wilsey, a printer at Jackson Station. The evidence was given to the effect that she had stolen the money from the office, and had taken it to her home. She was committed to the Penitentiary for six months.
