TWO WAYS TO LIVE. A LOVE STORY. About twenty miles from New York lives a rich man, who has a fine estate, and an interesting family.

There are two ways to live on earth—Two ways to judge, to act, to view. For all things here have a double birth: A right and wrong—false and true.

Who in a neighbor's fortune find No wish, no impulse to complain? Who feel not—never feel—the mind To envy yet another's gain?

Only a Beauty. Emma Sinclair was the beauty of Willow Grove. She was loved by every man and woman in the village.

Our Only Surviving President. The precious health of General Franklin Pierce has been so long and so severely impaired that he is unable to attend to his duties.

Epitaph on the Last Congress. (As it did much while living) THE FORTIETH CONGRESS. Composed of sharks, sharks and sharks.

THE MODERN HUSBAND. BY AN OLD MAID. Finds home convenient place to rest. So comes to it when he thinks best.

His manners with his hat puts down. Puts on his slippers and a frown. And very probably, doth scold.

Don't Stay Long. "Don't stay long, husband," said a young bride tenderly, in his presence one evening.

A Minister Shot While Performing the Marriage Ceremony. From the Boston Globe—Singer, March 11. The Rev. Mr. M. H. M. was shot while performing the marriage ceremony.
