STATE POLITICS.

The Pittsburgh Post says the spring elec tions in Allegheny county, on Friday, "ex-hibit decided gains for the Democracy." Gov. CURTIN, during the war, rejoiced in the title of "The Soldier's Friend." In view of his anxiety for office, he is now, with more propriety, denominated "The Gover THE World says that in the debate upon the tenure-of-office bill, on Friday, John Scott, the new Senator from Pennsylvania, surprised the Senate, and contradicted his appearance, by a very foreible and entirely original speech." GRANT has displayed his love for the soldiers by removing Gen. Joseph F. Knipe, as Postmaster at Harrisburg, and putting the notorious George Berguer, of the Telegraph, in his place. Knipe was one of the bravest of the brave, while Bergner was a stay-at-home mule contractor. The Republicans of Harrisburg are nearly unanimous in opposing Bergner's appointment. SINON CAMERON, the proprietor of the Republican party, is believed to be averse to the nomination of any of the candidates now before that party for Governor. Genry, and one that party for Governor. Genry, and one of the candidates now before that party for Governor. fore that party for Governor. Genry, and Morehead, and Grow, and all the others named, are obnoxious to Simon. He will probably not announce his favorite until the Convention meets, and then, as he did in regard to United States Senator, the "coming man" will be announced and nominated. When Cameron commands, the Republican party of Pennsylvania must obey. The Chambersburg Repository, the Republican organ of Franklin county, has an article charging Governor Geary with lying in reference to the appointment of ex-Governor Curtin to a position in Grant's Cabinet, and not believe him on his oath.

THERE is a great deal of opposition in the ranks of the enemy, to that part of the pro-gramme of the Republicans in Congress from Pennsylvania which gives to Senators Cameron and Scott the distribution of the officer in the districts represented in Congress by Democrats. It is alleged that it will com-pletely ignore the active men in those dis tricts, and especially the Republican cadidates for Congress, unless Senator Scott should re-solve to consult those candidates. It is contended that the Republican members elect are not entitled to any more consideration in their districts than the Republicans who ran as candidates in hopeless districts like those of Berks, York, Northampton, Lebig b, Clearfield, Luzerne, etc.
