

MIFFLINTOWN: Wednesday, Dec'r 24, 1873. PENNA. R. R. TIME TABLE.

LOCAL INTELLIGENCE. Patterson talks of building a church. There has been no horse market since the panic set in.

It is expected that the new railroad will enhance the value of property. Sunday was the shortest as well as the most wholesome day of the season.

About one-half the vote of the county was polled at the late Constitutional election. The rush is now to Stambaugh's new quarters, in the Sulouff and Bartley rooms, in the building put up on the site of the Nevin row.

Rev. Mr. Blackwelder has announced that he will commence a protracted meeting in the Lutheran Church in this place on New Year's evening. The revival meetings in Patterson, under the auspices of the Evangelical Association, have been closed.

The tramps are not kept by Mr. Knoose, the new Sheriff. They are supplied with lodging, supper and breakfast, by Mr. E. West, at the north end of Main street. When you are told that the SENTINEL AND REPUBLICAN office is away off in the country, remind yourself of the fact that it is no further from the Court House than is the river bridge.

The Millfin bridge is one of the few river bridges in central Pennsylvania that is lighted the whole night. It is a credit to the Company, and a luxury to those who are compelled or chance to travel at night. To number the deer and turkeys shot this season in the counties of Juniata and Millfin would impress one unacquainted with their location, with the belief that they are frontier districts and in a state of wilderness.

In a preceding issue a local item announced that a boy had discharged a pistol in a school house in Fayette township while the school was sitting. A citizen of that immediate neighborhood writes that the information published was not correct, and that no such occurrence ever took place in the school house designated.

Post Master Books, the other day, while expatiating in his inimitable way over the arrival of his mammoth stock of Holiday Goods, came in contact with the SENTINEL AND REPUBLICAN stove and brought it, pipe and all, amidst an awful din, dust and smoke, to the floor. He said that was nothing, and, like the fellow with the sausage, he kept talking on, not, it is true, about sausage, but about his Goods. To tell the fact, Books is ahead with his Goods, and has the largest and best assorted stock of Christmas and New Year Goods in the county. Call around and make Books happy, and the little folks, too, by purchasing of him.

SCHOOL NO. 4. No. pupils in attendance during month, 68. Average attendance, 62. Per cent. of attendance, 91.

THE following is the official vote of this county on the new Constitution: For. Con. 105. A. G. 14.

PUBLIC SALE.—John Motzer, Administrator of the estate of Samuel Dunn, dec'd., will sell at public sale, on the premises, at 1 o'clock P. M., on Saturday, February 24th, 1874, a Lot of Ground situate in Mexico, having thereon erected a good two-story frame dwelling House, Stable, and other necessary outbuildings and surrounded with a good fence.

CHURCH OPENING.—The new Methodist Church in this place will be formally opened for the worship of God on Sunday, January 4, 1874. Old pastors have been invited. Other distinguished ministers will also be present. The friends of Christianity are cordially invited.

PERUVIAN SYRUP.—This valuable medicine has been silently making its way into public favor by the numerous remarkable cures it has performed. Its singular efficacy is owing to the principle of iron which in this preparation remains unchanged, and is the only form in which this vital element of healthy blood can be supplied.

CLOSING OUT AT REDUCED PRICES.—Cornelius Bartley is closing out his large stock of Fall and Winter Boots and Shoes at Greatly Reduced Prices. Now is the time to buy. The winter has just fairly set in, and you need good warm boots and shoes.

Rev. J. P. Long, of the Milroy charge, has awakened a great religious interest in Alleenville. Up to Friday last 81 converts had been announced, and 16 penitents were at the altar. On Thursday last Jacob and Samuel Bupp and Geo. Womer were taken before Rev. Orr, in Decatur township, charged with improper behavior during public worship in Kemerling chapel on Sunday, the 20th ult. In default of bail they would have been brought to the county jail, had not Constable Folk, on account of the illness of his wife, helped them to beg off.

The rector Rev. T. W. Martin, of St. Mark's Episcopal Church, has resigned the Rectorship of this Parish. On Wednesday last week Mrs. Sarah Davis, wife of Edward Davis, of McVeystown, died in great agony, from the effects of a dose of arsenic, which she had taken a few days previous, to end her life. She was only about 20 years of age, and had been married but about a year. She was an estimable woman, and her rash act is deplored by a wide circle of friends and relatives. She was a daughter of Thomas Cochran, of Wayne township.

Several mischievous boys, who are getting a more than ordinary street education, were arrested on Monday, at the instance of the school board, for going into the old school building and building a fire therein on Sunday last. They were bound over to appear at court. There are some others nightly on the streets whose parents would do well to look after them.

On Saturday a week about 15,000 California salmon, landed for the government by Dr. Slick, at Bloomsburg, New Jersey, were sent to Col. James Worrill, of Harrisburg, and by him placed in the Yellow Breaches and McDonaght Creeks in Cumberland county, for the purpose of stocking those streams.

Our friends along the old Sherman's Valley route are now certain of having a railroad. We learn that men were put to work last Monday to grade portions of the surveyed line, and we are informed that the work will be pushed ahead as fast as possible. The road will start at Marysville, striking Sherman's creek near Sherman, thence along the creek to Landisburg and up the valley above Germantown, where a short tunnel through the mountains will allow them to emerge in Park Valley, Franklin county. We hope the anticipations of our up valley friends will be fully realized during the coming summer.

Our young townsman Aleck Miller, was presented with a fine, bonneting, 12 pound boy, on Friday morning last and is as happy and proud as a king. In Harrisburg they fine the human swine who spit tobacco juice on church floors. In Huntingdon they should do likewise.

Dudley was the scene of a cowardly assault Sabbath last. Charles Grotz, a blacksmith on East Broad Top railroad visited Dudley and while walking from the latter place to Barrettstown met James Egan, a quite insignificant young man from the "back switches" and stabbed him in the side with a large pocket knife. Egan escaped further injury by flight. Constable Dalton promptly arrested Grotz and took him before Egan's Cauty, who committed him for trial, and he is now safe in Fort Houck. Why the assault was made no one knows. Grotz was perfectly sober (and Egan always is) when he committed the deed, and yet expressed regret that he had not killed his victim.

Tuesday afternoon last Mr. Daniel Sorley, an aged farmer of Penn township, was found dead in the field by his son-in-law Mr. M. Feyley. He had complained of pain in his heart and noon and the family urged him to stay in the house, but after a while he got better and went out to plow, while doing which he grew worse, sat down and instantly expired. His son-in-law in returning from chopping wood discovered the body shortly after death. An inquest was held on the body, when a verdict of death from heart disease was rendered. Mr. Sorley was in his sixty-third year, was well known and highly respected.

THE YOUTH'S COMPANION A WEEKLY PAPER FOR YOUNG PEOPLE AND THE FAMILY. THE COMPANION aims to be a favorite in every family—looked for eagerly by the young folks, and read with interest by the older. Its purpose is to interest while it amuses; to be judicious, practical, sensible; and to have really permanent worth, while it attracts for the hour. It is handsomely illustrated, and has for contributors some of the most attractive writers in the country. Among these are: Edward Eggleston, Dr. I. L. Hayes, Prof. James DeMille, Louise C. Moulton, Louisa M. Abbott, "Strophie May," Rebecca H. Davis, C. A. Stephens, C. W. Flanders, Ruth Chesterfield, S. S. Robbins, M. A. Denison.

Iron in the Blood. PERUVIAN SYRUP MAKES THE WEAK STRONG. The Peruvian Syrup, a Protected Solution of the Protoxide of Iron, is so combined as to have the character of an aliment, is easily digested and assimilated with the blood as the simplest food. It increases the quantity of Nature's Own Red Blood, and cures "a thousand ills," simply by Toning up, invigorating and Vitalizing the System. The enriched and vitalized blood permeates every part of the body, repairing damages and waste, strengthening the muscles, nerves, and leaving nothing for disease to feed upon. This is the secret of the wonderful success of this remedy in curing Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Dropsy, Chronic Diarrhea, Rashes, Nervous Affections, Chills and Fevers, Humors, Loss of Constitutional Vigor, Diseases of the Kidneys and Bladder, Female Complaints, and all diseases originating in a bad state of the blood, or accompanied by debility or a low state of the system. Being free from Alcohol, in any form, its energizing effects are not followed by corresponding reactions, but are permanent, infusing strength, vigor, and new life into all parts of the system, and building up an Iron Constitution.
