Is Wright's History of Perry county, page 250, is mentioned a remarkable room as follows: "There is a room in the house now occupied by Francis Gibson, Esq., in Spring township, Perry county, Pa., in which occurred the birth of John B. Gibson, Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania, George Gibson, Commissioner of the United States, Dr. John Bernhart, the Mormon who first represented the Mormons in Congress, Hon. John Bigler, Governor of California, from 1852 to 1855, and Hon. Wm. Bigler, Governor of Pennsylvania, from 1852 to 1855, still living in Clearfield, Pa." Is there any other room in the State that can make a claim to furnishing the birthplace of so many prominent persons?

KILLED.—On Saturday afternoon the mail train west, when near the furnace below Newport, struck Mr. Abraham Evans, killing him instantly. No blame can be attached to the engineer, who sounded his whistle, giving Mr. Evans ample time to get off the track. For some reason he failed to pay any attention to the warning, with the above sad result. The train was stopped, and the body was taken on to Newport station. Mr. Evans was an esteemed citizen of Miller township, and his sudden death caused a severe shock to his many friends.—Bloomfield Times.

A discussion took place lately between the bachelors and benedicts of the St. Petersberg (Clarion county) lycium on the question: "Are married men happier than our single brethren?" The Progress says the married men would have achieved a tremendous victory, but the alarm of fire was sounded, and the meeting was dispersed. After the fire the fire the married men went home to their wives, but the wretched bachelors went back to the hall, took a vote and decided the question in the negative.

By request the following riddle is published: This God made Adam out of dust, But thought it best to make me first; So I was made before the man, To answer God's most holy plan. My body he did make complete Without an arm, or legs or feet; My waist and actions did control, Yet fashioned me without a soul.

A living being I became, And Adam soon gave me a name; Then from his presence I withdrew, No more of Adam ever knew. I did my Maker's laws obey, From them I never went astray; Thousands of miles I ran in fear, But seldom on the earth appear.

Now God in me did something see, And put a living soul in me; But soon of me God did claim And take from me that soul again. As soon now as the soul had fled I was the same as when first made; Without an arm, or leg, or soul, I travel now from pole to pole.

I labor hard both day and night, To tell men I give great light; Thousands of people, young and old, Shall at my death great light behold. No joy or death can trouble me, For fear or love I never shall see.
