LOCAL INTELLIGENCE.

Editorials crowded out, as is also a parcel of contributed matter. Mr. Emanuel Meyer, of Fernanagh township, has recently honored his bay.

LAST Sunday afternoon about three o'clock, a fire broke out in a stable owned by Mr. John Wright, in this borough. In quite a short time the fire extended itself through the adjoining stables of Captain McClellan and Mrs. Oswald.

A NUMBER of distinguished citizens, in the "full flush and vigor" of mature manhood have determined to inaugurate a course of lectures. Two well known gentlemen have already signified their willingness to open the course gratuitously, which will be a great help financially speaking.

enemies and all old croakers, who oppose public enterprise and cry down improvements, would take advantage of it and use it detrimental to our interests. As regards the completion of the road, there is no difficulty about that, as we have ten miles graded and sufficient money subscribed to pay for the balance of the gradation, masonry, and engineering expenses.

stories then in circulation, and all seemed to be believed. I yet recollect a case that occurred near Mifflin, on the main road from Mifflin to Thompsonstown. Near the Cedar Springs a public road leads for Mexico.
