Selling-grove is preparing for an old-fashioned Fourth of July celebration.

All Lewistown is happy over the uniforming of their police. What a little dress will do.

A Johnston, Cambria county, boy was so frightened at a terrific peal of thunder that he fell dead.

The corner stone of the new Lutheran Church at Newport will be laid next Saturday at 3 o'clock P. M.

Judge Orvis, of the Clearfield district, at his first court imposed $900 on liquor dealers, and sent several to jail.

A Cumberland county man hauled a load of hay to Carlisle that weighed four tons and twelve hundred pounds.

Employees of Glanville Iron Company are still at work at Glanville at the foot of the Long Narrows, north of town.

The musical entertainment of the "Lewistown Vocal Union," looked for next Tuesday evening, promises to be a rare musical treat.

It will not be lawful to shoot squirrels until the first day of September.

The new hotel enterprise of George Jacobs, Esq., is progressing slowly.

The "Lewistown Vocal Union" will give their entertainment in Graybill's Hall on Tuesday evening.

The vacation of the Soldiers' Orphan Schools will commence July 20th, and continue till September 1st.

Ladies at Granite Station, Mifflin county, were enjoying a skiff ride on the river the other evening.

The closing exercises of the County Normal School at Thompsonstown, last Friday, were spoken of in complimentary terms by people who were present.

The Altona Tribune comes out square and says the best picture and painting that is carried on in the fields and woods about Altoona to the demoralization of boys and young men, must be stopped.

Last week it was Stingsgrove that was excited over an elopement case; now it is Salem township, Westmoreland county, that is inquiring for the whereabouts of a runaway couple of married yet unmarried people.

The old-fashioned Fourth of July spirit has broken out at Oakland Mills.

Blair and Cambria counties send S. M. Woodcock as Senatorial delegate to the Democratic State Convention.

Two boys at the Soldiers' Orphan School at McAllisterville left that institute without leave, but Mr. M. R. Smith, Superintendent of the Boys Department at the school, traced them to Altoona, where he found and returned with them last Friday.

A writer recently said the chief sin of an editor is his conceit.

On Monday evening a carpenter employed at the Court House, while carrying one end of a joist, missed a foot-step and thereby lost his balance and fell on the outside of the wall to the ground, a distance of some 15 or 14 feet.

Some days ago a man was killed by a passing train of cars at Anderson Station, Mifflin county.

Erlington Hammond, an iron master at Hollidaysburg, this State, some time ago disappeared in an unknown or mysterious manner.

Mr. John Underwood, an employee of the P. R. R. Co., about 12 o'clock last Thursday, while engaged at work in the railroad yard at Patterson, put his right leg under a train of cars to steady his body while he reached for a spike that lay between the rails on which the train stood.

LAST Saturday about 10 o'clock Mr. Abraham Swartzlander started on his way home to McAllisterville from town. At the intersection of Third and Cherry streets a small dog proceeded to chase a hog. The hog ran under Mr. Swartzlander's horse, frightening the beast so badly that it leaped forward so powerfully that when checked up the buggy came up with sufficient weight to break the holding back straps, and the buggy, without anything to break its force, thumped against the horse, frightening it tenfold worse than before.

By this time Mr. Swartzlander had a firm hold on the lines, but so frantic was the animal that in a twinkling he was dragged out over the dash-board of the buggy that was still fast to the horse by the traces, and fell in front of the vehicle, one of the front wheels of which struck him on the head, violently, as it passed over him, cutting the back of his head quite severely.

He was taken up by persons working on the street and carried to the house of the Bergs brothers, where professional requirements were rendered by Dr. Crawford.

The frightened horse dashed out Cherry street with the buggy till a cart used by men in grading that highway was reached. The buggy struck it and was turned "upside down" and lay flat on the seat. The shock of the collision loosened the horse from the buggy. The least ran three miles, to "Happy Hollow" school house, where it was caught by the mail carrier on the route to Selingsgrove, and brought to town.

Mr. Samuel Berg, then, in the goodness of his heart, concluded to take Mr. Swartzlander to his home in McAllisterville. With this end in view his horse was harnessed and put into a buggy, in which Berg and Swartzlander took seats. The runaway horse was led behind. At the intersection of Main and Bridge streets the horse became scared at a rag or bag lying on the street, and leaped forward, striking the buggy and frightening the horse in the shafts so that he also sprang forward.

Mr. Berg, who was driving, looked back to see what was going on behind and thereby lost the management of his horse in front. That horse sprang so far out of the middle of the street that the buggy encountered a post at the corner of the Court House square, and there stopped, while the horse went on, dragging Mr. Berg out over the dash-board, and landing him on his back in the street. The singletree and shafts were broken into pieces. The horse ran to the stable and no further.

THE largest, finest, best and most stock of Goods was brought to this town by Cheap John, from New York and Philadelphia, that has come here for a long time, and at such low prices that it astounds every person how he can stand it; but the way he does it, he buys his Goods from the manufacturers and importers, and buys everything for cash, and thus saves from 25 to 50 per cent, which enables him to sell Goods 25 to 50 per cent, lower than any other person.

THE VOCAL UNION will give a grand concert at Mifflintown about the 30th of this month. We would say to the people of our neighboring county-seat that if they want to spend a delightful evening in their elegant concert hall, it would be well to make a note of this fact, as Laugh and song will glide along where the members of the Union are found. We understand a magnificent programme has been made out, including the Grand Coronation Scene, which created such a sensation here, and the irrepressibly funny delineation of the "Heathen's home," as well as that laughable admixture of cackle, song and crowd entitled The Great Hen Convention. Our orchestral band will accompany them.—Lewistown Gazette.

ATTENTION, FARMERS.—Farmers who want to buy a first-class Reaper and Mower will do well to call on the undersigned who has for sale the Hibbard Reaper and Mower and the Hurdless Reaper and Mower. The gearing of both these machines is neatly enclosed—not a cog or spring being outside. I sold thirteen of these machines last year, and they all gave entire satisfaction. I also have for sale the Taylor Bay Rake, the Mechanicsburg Rake, and the genuine Columbia Rake. Orders addressed to Mifflin P. O. will receive prompt attention. DANIEL AUKER. May 27-28

ANOTHER lot of Parasols and Sun Shades at Cheap John's, which will be sold at reduced prices.

Mr. John Underwood, an employee of the P. R. R. Co., about 12 o'clock last Thursday, while engaged at work in the railroad yard at Patterson, put his right leg under a train of cars to steady his body while he reached for a spike that lay between the rails on which the train stood.

Now FOR THE SHAWLS!—Cheap John has bought the prettiest line of Spring and Summer Shawls ever before brought to town, so that ladies in need of a Shawl cannot help but buy one of him, after examining them and inquiring the price.

Miss JANE, sister of George and Joseph Mingle, living on Zinc mine farm, near Birmingham, met with an accident on Thursday evening of last week, which resulted in her death. In the barn-yard stands a wagon-shed, and from this shed to the gate leading from the yard the grade inclines downward pretty rapidly. In the shed was a four-horse wagon, which was usually kept locked to prevent it from running down the hill.

On Tuesday afternoon of last week Henry McKee's hotel, located about twenty yards from the Clark's Ferry bridge, in Dauphin county, took fire from sparks from a passing locomotive, and was entirely consumed, together with the larger portion of the bedding, nearly all the clothing of the family, about two hundred pounds of lard, and potatoes and liquors in the cellar.

GOVERNOR HARTMAN's hostler had a vicious dog that bit His Excellency in the right heel as he walked among his horses in the stable last week.

FIVE pair of Men's Half-hose at Cheap John's for a quarter.

BR WISE TO DAY.—The madness to neglect a cough or cold, however slight. Consumption may follow, and though Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry has frequently cured this much dreaded disease, it almost invariably cures the primary diseases of the throat, lungs and chest, where other remedies fail.

JAMES SHINEFELT, whom we last week noticed as having "raised" an $8.75 poor house order to $80.75, has "arranged" the matter. We would suggest to James that he do not repeat that little operation or he might be raised to a place beyond the mountains.—Blair County Radical.

It is said that Bob Aker is perambulating through certain portions of this county accompanied by a Newfoundland dog. He visited a farm house a few miles north of Bloomfield a few days ago.—Bloomfield Press.

THOMAS—On the 19th inst., in Fernagh township, after a lingering illness, Mrs. Heister Thomas, aged 63 years, 3 months and 26 days.
