LOCAL INTELLIGENCE.

The river bridge is being repaired. The summer is over. The grandest days of all the year are come.

The Perry County Fair will commence on the 30th day of September.

Work on the new railroad is being prose cuted with more than the usual vigor. Jacob Will, Jr., has a young steer in training to harness for the Fair to be held at Riverside Park. If you need hardware go to the People's Hardware Store. See advertisement in another column of this paper. Mr. Noah Elder, and Mr. Henry Goshen, were thrown out of a buggy while driving down Main street on Monday evening. They sustained no serious injuries. S. B. Loudon, Merchant Tailer, has removed his tailoring establishment to th room immediately above Muthersbaugh's hardware store, on Main street. Hon. Judge Burchfield is delivering a fine quality of peaches freshly placked from trees in his peach orchard. Now is the time to order fruit of that kind. Yesterday that portion of the Wes

Branch and Susquehanna canal above Loci Haven and that portion of the Juniat canal above Petersburg was abandoned. Parties wishing to purchase a first-class parlor organ, will do well to call and examine this instrument, or send for price list. See advertisement in another colum The dweilling house of Josiah Kepne

Some time during Monday night a week, a valuable cow, owned by John T. Metlin, Register and Recorder" of this county, found her way, or was driven, into the river bridge, and fell through at a point where repairs are being made, to the stream below, and was killed. How the cow got out of the stable yard is not known to Mr. Mettin, as the enclosure was in proper condition in the morning when the cow was missing.

It would be worth "a man's while" who has never driven on a piece of good road, to drive a dozen or fifteen, or even twenty miles to experience the exhilarating effect of coursing over a stretch of road as smooth as a floor. You can experience such a luxury by driving in "Riverside Park." Every person who can raise a horse and buggy should come to the Fair and take a drive. Going to the city is nothing to it.
