HOW TO ESTIMATE THE PROPERS OF FARM.-The farmer lives in his own house. The use of the house, which he does not pay for, is as much a part of his income as the money which a salaried man pays for rent, is of his, and should be counted as such in an esti-mate of the profit of the farm. All things produced on the farm and conthe vegetables from the garden, the eggs and milk used in cooking, are as much a part of his income as the money paid or such things out of his out of his salary for carriage hire is of Courtship and Marriage.

It is a singular fact, says a Parisian writer, that a man generally requires very different qualities in a wife from those he admires in a sweetheart. While a lover, he expected to see his future wife neatly and stylishly dressed whenever he chose to call, either morning or evening, and the girl buisied her little brain all day in efforts to please his taste. If he left town for a few days, he sent letters full of sweet nothings that filled her soul with joy. nothings that filled her soul with joy.
