The Late Rebellion in Louisiana.

In November, 1872, a State election was held in Louisiana. John McEnery and Wm. P. Kellogg were the candidates for the Governorship of the State.

The McEnery people, however, have all the while pronounced it a fraud, an usurpation, and failed utterly to understand that they must "bide their time" for redress at the ballot-box at the next election.

Immediately preceding Kellogg's abandonment of the government he despatched to Washington, to the General Government, relating the facts of rebellion against the State government of the State of Louisiana, and his utter inability to quell it without assistance from the Government of the United States.

General Wister, nominated at Millington, on Tuesday last, as the Republican candidate for Congress in the Eighteenth district, consisting of the counties of Franklin, Fulton, Huntington, Juniata, Perry, and Snyder, is a native of this county—a son of William Wister, of Germantown, long the treasurer of the North Pennsylvania Railroad, and a brother of our well known townsman, William Rotech Wister.

Langhorn Wister, who is scarcely more than thirty-nine years of age, established his residence at Duncanson Perry county, upon attaining his majority, and has lived there ever since.

menacing at Drainsville, and in the Saturdays' battle received a slight wound. Upon the organization of the 150th Regiment Pennsylvania Volunteers, in 1862, Governor Curtin tendered the command to Mr. Wister, which was promptly accepted.

Third Term Agitations. The Pittsburg Gazette discourses under the heading of this article as follows: Various circumstances conspire to fill suspicious persons with the fear that there is an agitation in behalf of a third Presidential term, which may be precipitated into an organized movement when the proper time arrives.

On the other hand, intimate friends of the President say he is not a candidate for a third term and will not accept nomination if it is offered him. He is declared to be already forecasting preparations for his home life at the close of his present term.

Putting aside, however, even this, and looking at the subject in the light of its own merits, and we fail to see any good reason why a Third Term should be granted to any man.

Admit this idea, and the Presidency is a mere phase or incident in our Governmental life—important, yet tributary to the sovereign will of the people. The strength or weakness of the Presidency has never been the test of national strength or growth.

The idea can never be admitted that one particular person is necessary to the maintenance of free institutions. At the present we can think of a half dozen persons who could fill the Presidential office acceptably.

On the 16th inst., Mr. Phineas T. Barnum, the great showman, was married, in Dr. Chapin's church in New York City, to Miss Nancy Fisk, of Southport, Lancashire, England.

Jeff. Davis and His Wife. In his speech at Memphis the other day, Jefferson Davis spoke as follows: "Every Southern man in his memory runs back to the negro woman who nursed him; to the boy who hunted and fished with him; to the man who first taught him to ride and swim; and as he grew to manhood, the cordial welcome given him by the old nurse, with a tenderness scarcely inferior to that of his own mother."

SHORT ITEMS. Oregon farmers now employ Indians in their harvest fields. Owing to the ravages of worms the Cape Cod cranberry crop will be a failure this season.

THE Democratic State Convention of New York, on the 17th inst., nominated S. J. Tilden for Governor, William Doehmer for Lieutenant Governor, Adin Thayer for Canal Commissioner, Judge Theodore Miller for Judge of the Court of Appeals, George H. Wagner for State Prison Inspector, and passed the following resolutions:

1st. Gold and silver the only legal tender; no currency inconvertible with coin. 2nd. Steady steps towards specie payments; no stop backwards. 3rd. Honest payment of the public debt in coin only; sacred preservation of the public faith.

It was told of old that the cackle of a goose once saved Rome. It is now related that a swallow won a suit in court away down in Texas. A poor widow and her daughter had a suit for damages before a court in Houston.

On the 16th inst., Mr. Phineas T. Barnum, the great showman, was married, in Dr. Chapin's church in New York City, to Miss Nancy Fisk, of Southport, Lancashire, England.

A New York court figures it out that an average woman sheds one barrel of tears in forty years.
