Mifflin, June 21, 1874.

LOCAL INTELLIGENCE.

Traveling has been resumed on the river bridge.

Election day comes on Tuesday, the 3rd day of November.

The thickest frost of the season put in an appearance last Tuesday morning.

A rush of advertisements cause the publishing of a supplement this week.

There should be at least one Republican in the Board of County Commissioners.—Turn out and elect Shellenberger.

Few county papers in Pennsylvania have as large a circulation as the SENTINEL AND REPUBLICAN.

With Smeltor in the Legislature Juniata county would stand on the side of that policy that has reduced the State debt one-half.

The sale of the Blair farm, in Walker township, has been postponed; it will be offered at public sale on Thursday, November 12th.

Capt. Samuel Davis, years ago, an active business man and citizen of this place, but now a citizen of Lancaster county, visited his relatives in Mifflintown last week.

The 40 miles embraced in the distance of railroad between this place and Selinsgrove, have all been graded and are ready "for the ties," excepting, only, about 13 miles.

Walters, of the Lewistown Sentinel was in town last evening, and like all other Democratic editors, was overflowing with enthusiasm over the elections in Ohio and Indiana.

The Stouffer farm in Fermanagh township, formerly known as the Nathan Bell farm, was sold last Thursday to Daniel Stouffer for betwixt thirteen and fourteen thousand dollars.

General Wister's past life is a guarantee of his future life. His labors have all been for the best interests of his fellow men. It is not often that such men are before the people for Congress.

Judge Burchfield has demonstrated to a satisfaction that the devastating potato bug may be excluded from potato patches by sowing "buckwheat" on the ground when potatoes are planted.

The next State Fair should be held on the grounds of "Riverside Park." A movement started now, having for its object the securement of that exhibition next fall, may succeed. All shoulders to the wheel. Now all together!

Philadelphia market quotations on Tuesday morning. Wheat—Indiana red $1.20, Indiana amber $1.21. Corn 88a90c. Oats 59to62c. Cattle—beef and stock, 3to8c per pound. Sheep—common $1.50to3.00 per head. Hogs $9.50to10.75 for corated.—Cows, $35to55 and upwards.

A combination of local circumstances caused the elections in Indiana, Ohio and Arkansas to go largely in favor of the Democracy. The erring brethren in town felt exceedingly good over the result. They turked up their upper lip, which so long swung pendant, and if they did not shout glory, outright, they smiled it all over their faces for days. It was a happy time of congratulation for them.

Sheriff Kaouse's horse frightened at the cars on Monday evening, at the lower crossing in Patterson, ran away, tore the harness to pieces and left the sulky at the roadside, a subject for general repairs. The Sheriff was not in the vehicle when the beast ran away. It was a case of genuine fright on the part of the horse; two men could not hold him. He ran to the gates at the bridge and was stopped there.

"LAUGH and grow fat" is an old motto, but you cannot always do so unless you drive away pain by using Pain Cure Oil.

Sold wholesale and retail by Banks & Hamlin, Mifflintown.

PARLOR ORGANS.—We call attention to the advertisement of Messrs Beatty & Plotts, of Washington, Warren county, N. J., proprietors of the celebrated Golden Tongue Organs, in another part of this paper These organs are fast superceding all others on account of their good quality. These instruments are highly recommended by the best musicians in the country.

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 12, 1874,

The following described real estate, to wit: The undivited one-half of a certain plantation and tract of land situate in Walker township, Juniata county, bounded on the east by lands of John A. Gallaher, on the north by lands of Moses Kyle, on the west by lands of Minichen and Bashoar, and on the south by lands of Book and Hetrick, containing

One Hundred and Forty Acres, more or less, and subject to a dower of Rebecca J. Shuman; 110 acres of which are cleared and in a high state of cultivation, the balance being timberland, with a valuable stone quarry on it. The improvements are a

A Large Frame Bank Barn,

45x90 feet, with a large Cistern, Corn Crib, and Wagon Shed.

The location is a very desirable one, being convenient to schools and churches, and having the advantages of three good markets—being one mile from Port Royal on the Pennsylvania Railroad, three-fourths of a mile from the Pennsylvania Canal, one mile from Mexico, and three miles from Mifflintown, the county seat.

The other half of the above farm will also be sold at the same time and on the same terms.

TERMS OF SALE.

One-fourth of the purchase money to be paid on the confirmation of sale by the Court; one half of the balance on the first day of April, 1875, and the other half on the first day of April, 1876, with interest from April 1, 1875, to be secured by bonds and mortgage.

EXECUTOR'S SALE OF VALUABLE REAL ESTATE.

THE undersigned, Executor of the last will and testament of Robert C. Gallaher, deceased, will sell at public sale, at Mifflintown, Juniata county, Pa., at one o'clock P. M., on

The farm will be offered as a whole or divided into lots, to suit purchasers.

No. 6.—A Wharf on the Canal, in Walker township, adjoining lot of Mrs. Smith.

BEATTY & PLOTTS'
GOLDEN TONGUE
PARLOR ORGANS.

THE Beatty & Plotts celebrated Golden Tongue Parlor Organ, the best parlor organ now in use.—Herald

ST CLAIR, Pa., Dec. 6, 1873.

Messrs. Beatty & Plotts, Gents:—I have received the organ as sent by your firm to me, and I have had it examined, and it gives ample satisfaction. JOHN SIXEY.

MAHANOY CITY, Pa., Oct. 16, 1873.

The Beatty & Plotts celebrated Golden Tongue Parlor Organ is by far the best parlor organ in use. I have carefully examined it, and find its tone, workmanship and durability to be the best I ever saw, and I can with pleasure recommend it to any one in any one in want of a first-class parlor organ. PROF. O. H. UNGER.

Messrs. Beatty & Plotts, Gents:—Having had one of your Golden Tongue Parlor Organs for six months past, I thought before recommending it to give it a fair trial, and am happy to testify that it surpasses all that has been said or advertised about it. I have had professors of music and celebrated organists come and try it, and one and all say that it is one of the sweetest and best toned instruments in the market. It has taken the shine out of all the others around here. I am perfectly satisfied with it, and if I could not get another of the same kind, money could not entice me to part with it. You may publish this if you see fit, as my organ can be tried by any one wishing to do so, in proof of what I say.

Late editor of the Tamaqua Courier, now at Bethlehem, Pa.
