Last Saturday a lean, gangly, light-complected young man, about six teet tall, who until the day before had been in the employ of ex-Sheriff Hamilton as a painter, hired a horse and buggy at D. P. Sulouff's livery stable ostensibly to drive to Perrysville, promising to return soon after noon. After dinner Mr. Sulouff received a despatch stating that the horse and buggy could not be returned before 5 o'clock r. M., but they were not returned at that hour. On Sunday morsing Suloutl sent a man to Perrysville to look up his missing property. The agent was informed that the young man in possession of the horse and buggy had left that morning about daylight in the direction of Tuscarora Valley.
