PRITOR AND PROPRIETOR. WHEN Horace Greeley first manifested a disposition to carry his pecuthe good old man, and he became their verest tool.

There is a case now in New York is that of the case of the editor of the New York Post. William Cullen Bryant took issue with the President on the Louisiana trouble. At once the ant, quoted his postry, and feasted and that the number of persons killed and toasted the good old man until they wounded from political causes in Louhas been of such an earnest and persistent character that it is a question Albany, then, indeed, is Bryant stronger than Greeley. Greeley's seduction should be a warning. All this, however may be nothing more than the amenities of life. So mote it be.
