CONTRAST.

There is happy sailing for others Adown life's calm, sweet seas. Whose boats are gayly dancing Before the fragrant breeze There are adverse winds and a billowy sea. And storms, and clouds, and gloom for me.

Some walk 'long paths all fair and sweet, Abloom with countless flowers, And scarce can tell which first to pluck In all love's radiant bowers; I walk along a thorny road. Bearing a cross-a heavy load.

Some have their homes all bright with love And sissee and fond good-byes, That only makes short absence sweet, And tearless, sparkling eyes; There's a dear one's grave on the hill for me And rest, sweet rest, beyond the sea.

I too, had countless treasures once, More than my heart could hold: Love scattered its pearls down at my feet. And crowned me with its gold. My pearls were gathered by the demon, Deat My gold was tarnished by his breath.

God. steer my boat adown the sea. Through all the murk and gloom: Help me to walk along the road Where not one flower doth bloom; Open the pearl-gates 'cross Death's sea And give my darling back to me.
