LOCAL INTELLIGENCE.

The odor of the fire in the mountain was perceptible here. The cold of Saturday and Sunday nights gave vegetation a backward.

Go to Mrs. Powell's, on Third street, for your Ice Cream, on Saturday evening. The Canada House, an old tavern stand in Hollidaysburg, was destroyed by fire on Sunday a week.

It is said that the Court House ring in Centre county have offered promised fifteen years into the future. WELL DROGGS—Done at prices to suit the times. Address Alexander Logan, Millintown, Juniata Co., Pa.

The Selingsgrove and North Branch Railroad is destined to reach the Potomac. Its completion is only a question of time. A large stock of new goods have just been received at J. & H. A. Stambaugh's.

Last Friday night a week David Shoop, a resident of Shiremansland, Cumberland county, fell out of bed and broke a leg. Baker, of the Perry County Freeman, reports dozens of potato bugs as being in his garden. He shows Park Green at them.

A Spruce Creek lad, aged 11 years, is in Huntingdon jail, awaiting the result of the wounding of a fellow boy with a dirk-knife. The International Sunday School Convention held its sessions in Baltimore, Md., last week, commencing on the 11th inst. Dr. Elder represented this county.

The members of the Presbyterian church in Lewisburg presented a newly-married couple of their church choir household goods to the value of $300.

McAlisterville Lodge, No. 716, L. O. O. F. of McAlisterville, will celebrate its Fifth Anniversary on the evening of June 10th. All Lodges and members of the Order in the county are cordially invited to meet with them and join in the exercises of the evening, which will be varied.

The Lewisburg Democrat of last week says: Anthony Felix's cellar under his store was entered by a burglar about one o'clock Tuesday night, and disturbed Mr. F., who got up and fired four shots after him, and the marks of blood on the pavement indicated that some of them hit. Let this be a warning to burglars.

The Harrisburg Telegraph says: Mr. M. C. Stuyman, in Cumberland county, informed us of a bee hive that he dug out from underneath his garret floor last week, that had lived for some time, and secured one hundred pounds of honey. The bees worked their way through the cornice of his house, which is built of brick, and made their home beneath the floor.

This is a partial list of prizes that were awarded last evening to the successful participants in the Soldiers' Spelling Bee, at Port Royal: Webster's Unabridged Dictionary, Camp Stool, Boy's Hat, Set of Porcelain Ware, Set of Glassware, History of Pennsylvania, Tea Set, Needle Case, Pair Vases, Fruit Dish, Neck Tie, Butter Dish, Chamois, Salt Service, Toy Chair, Wash Board, Wash Basin, Spoon, Tin Bucket, Toy Trombone, Set of Spoons, One Dollar Greenback, Pocket Knife, Pocket Book, Baseball.

Fusselman and Winn were tried in the United States Court at Pittsburg, for robbing the post offices at Farmdale and Reed's Gap, this county, and found guilty. They were sentenced to imprisonment in the Western Penitentiary for a term of five years each. A fine of $1,000 was also imposed on each one. It cannot be said that they were confronted by strangers in the court. Esquire Keeler, Officer Wilson, James Irwin, A. J. Hertzler, H. R. Given and J. C. Moser from Juniata county were there as witnesses. A. G. Bonnell, of the Democrat and Register, was one of the Jurors, and the prosecuting attorney was George Wilson, a native of this town, and Assistant United States District Attorney for the Western District. It was his first appearance before the Court, he having been but recently appointed. The Pittsburg Gazette, a reliable paper, commends him as a promising young man.

Go to Mrs. Powell's, on Third street, for your Ice Cream, on Saturday evening. On Saturday afternoon the dwelling of Mr. James P. Cromleigh, in Duncannon, caught fire from sparks from the kitchen chimney. A hole was burned in the roof and the weatherboarding was in flames when a deaf and dumb boy, named Wills, discovered the fire and ran to the roof with a bucket of water, and thus stayed the progress of the flames until other assistance arrived. A strong breeze from the east was prevailing at the time, and but for the timely discovery of the fire by young Wills we would have to record a destructive fire in the flourishing town of Duncannon.—Perry County Advocate.

AMONG the court proceedings of Perry county, as published in the Perry County Advocate of last week, a case reads: James Wilson Miller, of Spring township, on the information of Henry Sonder, was indicted—1st count, for breaking and entering a store in the night time with intent to commit felony; 2d count, larceny; and 3rd count, for receiving stolen goods. Tried, and jury found defendant guilty on the 3rd count, and not guilty on the 1st and 2d counts. Sentenced one year to Eastern Penitentiary.

Miller was an accomplice of Harman, who was sent to the Western Penitentiary, from Juniata county last February. AN act of Assembly, passed at the last session of the State Legislature, makes it a misdemeanor to carry pistols, razors, dirk knives, slung shots and all other description of concealed deadly weapons; and upon conviction, imposes a fine, on the person so offending, of not less than $500 and a term of imprisonment of not more than one year, or either, or both, at the discretion of the court. This is a wise and salutary law and should be strictly enforced, for if for other purpose than to prevent the carrying and careless handling of dangerous weapons, by those who are in the habit of using them when under the influence of liquor.—Under the Act, the jury may infer malice, from the fact of the defendant carrying such weapons.

The barn of Joseph Harshbarger, in Bratton township, barely escaped destruction by fire on Saturday afternoon last, under the following circumstances: Mrs. Harshbarger was working in the garden, and had set fire to a pile of rubbish, which she started up from time to time with a piece of rake handle, the end of which became charred. One of the children took this stick, and carried it about the garden and into the woodshed, where he left it. One of the men was digging garden, and as he went to the barn for manure discovered smoke issuing from the woodshed, which was full of dry rails etc. He ran for water, but before he got back the fire had gained such headway that a bucket of water was of no avail. He called assistance, and the farm bell was rung, which attracted the attention of some railroad hands in the vicinity, who came to the rescue. A high wind prevailed at the time, and the fire was communicated to the roof of the barn three times, but it was extinguished by the men. The shed was entirely consumed, with a quantity of dry wood.—Lewisburg Gazette.

ATTENTION! JUNIATA SCOUTS!—You are hereby ordered to parade in Mexico, on Wednesday, May 26, at 10 o'clock. All members not present at that time will be counted absent for the day, unless specially excused. By order of J. K. ROBISON, Captain.

CLARENCE DUNK who stole the horse from Mr. Kline, in Liverpool township, and buggy from Mr. Gougher, of same township, was arrested and brought to this place on Tuesday of last week, plead guilty of the charge before court and is now journeying in the Eastern Penitentiary for two years. Lightner, who was arrested at Columbia, as an accomplice, will be tried at the August court.—Perry County Advocate.

W. H. PATTERSON, formerly of this county, now of Harrisburg, is having considerable attention directed to himself in the office he holds at the latter place. An exchange says this of him: W. H. Patterson, the recently appointed Superintendent of the Public Grounds, is devoting his time and energies to his new duties. He is likely to prove "the right man in the right place." The position he fills is one of importance, his work passes daily under the public gaze—and such exacting public is ever ready to award praise or blame. Visitors may expect to find the grounds well cared for under the management of "Farmer Patterson" and his efficient assistants.

ELISHA GRAHAM, residing near the mountain above Manayunk, was awakened by the fierce barking of his dog the other night, and going down he found he had taken a fox in a trap which he had set. He went to bed, but his dog continued to bark, until he brought "Lish" down again. He lighted a pine torch and followed the dog up to the edge of the mountain, but his torch went out and he thought he would remain under a tree for an hour or so until daylight. Daylight came, and with it the discovery of a large scow on the tree under which he sat. After dispatching the animal, the old gentleman was ready for a hearty breakfast.—Lewisburg Gazette.
